"HAIL TO THE REDSKINS"

Hail to the Redskins
Hail Victory
Braves on the warpath
Fight for old D. C.

Run or pass and score —
we want a lot more
Beat 'em Swamp 'em Touchdown —
let the points soar
Fight on, Fight on —
Till you have won
Sons of Wash-ing-ton.

One of football's biggest attractions nationwide, the Washington Redskins boast a proud tradition.

Currently riding the crest of seven consecutive winning seasons, matched only by two other clubs, the Redskins are carrying on a winning tradition which began with nine consecutive winning years (1937-45) when the team arrived in the Nation's Capital.

Redskin fans have stayed behind their team for 41 years, always knowing that the organization was dedicated to providing the best. Griffith Stadium, and now RFK Stadium, have rocked with thunderous cheers of the loyal partisans.

Founder George Preston Marshall headed pro football's fifth oldest organization in 1932 in Boston, but transferred the team to Washington in 1937. Marshall helped guide the NFL through rough times and was responsible for the two-division system with a championship game, a slimmed down football for more passing, and a Pro Bowl featuring all-stars. A showman, Marshall had the first team marching band, the first rally song and elaborate halftime shows. The Redskins were the first team to have all their games televised, have a large radio network throughout the South, while all home games have been sold out since the 1960's, with a waiting list for season tickets numbering over 10,000.

Under President Edward Bennett Williams, the Redskins have thrived. Dedicated to excellence, he has supplied the best in players and coaches, while providing one of football's finest training facilities, Redskin Park.

Millions of fans, young and old, are proud to proclaim, "Hail to the Redskins, Hail Victory!"

PRESIDENT

EDWARD BENNETT WILLIAMS is the senior partner in the Washington law firm of Williams & Connolly. A native of Hartford, Connecticut he received his A.B. (summa cum laude) from Holy Cross College in 1941. After serving in the USAAF during World War II, he was graduated from Georgetown University Law School and was admitted to the Bar of the District of Columbia.

Mr. Williams taught Criminal Law and Evidence at Georgetown Law School from 1946 to 1958, was guest professor of American Criminal Law at the University of Frankfurt in West Germany in 1954, and in 1971 was visiting lecturer at Yale Law School where he taught Constitutional Litigation. He holds honorary degrees from eleven universities.

He was Chairman of the American Bar Association Special Committee on Crime Prevention and Control in 1970-72. In 1966 the Bar Association of the District of Columbia presented him with its "Lawyer of the Year" award. He is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, and was a member of its Board of Regents from 1968 through 1972.

By appointment of the Chief Justice of the United States in March of 1965, he served on the United States Judicial Conference Advisory Committee on Federal Rules of Evidence until 1974, and from 1971 to 1974 on the Chief Justice's Committee on Court Facilities and Design. Since 1971 he has served as Chairman of the Judicial Nominating Commission for the Sixth Judicial Circuit of Maryland.

By appointment of President Ford, Mr. Williams served on the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board in 1976 and 1977. In 1977 President Carter appointed him as a consultant to the National Security Agency. He is a past member of the President's Lawyers Committee on Civil Rights.

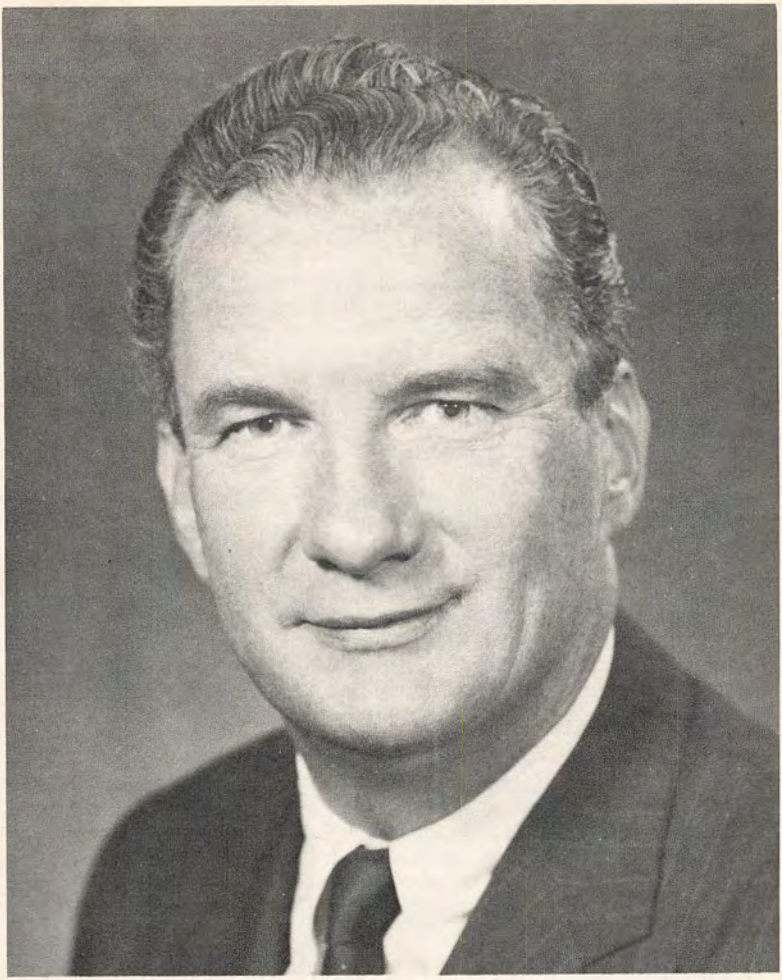

Mr. Williams served as Treasurer of the Democratic National Committee from 1974 to 1977, has served as general counsel of Georgetown University since 1949, and is a member of the Board of Trustees of the College of the Holy Cross.

He is the author of the best seller, One Man's Freedom, 1962.

He is the father of seven children and is married to the former Agnes Anne Neill, who is also a graduate of Georgetown University Law School. They live in Potomac, Maryland.

With a firm commitment to excellence, Edward Bennett Williams has brought the Redskins to a championship caliber level in the NFL.

Under Williams, only the third president in the team's 45-year history, Washington has thrived, but has not yet reached the pinnacle Williams desires—a Super Bowl victory. The success achieved, however, has earned the Redskins recognition as one of the NFL's strongest teams. Sold-out RFK Stadium and national TV popularity are only small indications of what Edward Bennett Williams has accomplished with the Redskins.

Edward Bennett Williams

HEAD COACH

JACK PARDEE was named Washington Redskin head coach by Club President Edward Bennett Williams, January 24, 1978.

Pardee's return to the Redskins came just five years and 10 days after he ended a 15-year NFL playing career by announcing his retirement following the Redskins' Super Bowl VII loss to the Miami Dolphins.

"He has the fantastic advantage of really knowing our team, knowing the methods that we have employed, and knowing the personnel," Williams feels.

Pardee, 41, starred at left linebacker and defensive signal caller for the Redskins for two of the team's most successful years, 1971 and '72. During this time Washington won 22 games, posted the team's best record since 1945, and were crowned NFC champs.

Following his retirement, his pro coaching career began immediately as he became linebacker coach for the Redskins.

Debuting as a head coach in the World Football League, in 1974, Pardee accepted the assignment with a franchise that was to be located in Washington, later moved to Norfolk, and finally became the Florida (Orlando) Blazers. As coach and general manager, he guided the team through many financial disasters. Going sometimes without paychecks, the team posted a 14-6 record and entered the WFL championship game, bowing to Birmingham by a single point.

Pardee was the youngest head coach in the NFL (age 38) when he was hired by the Chicago Bears, December 31, 1974. In three years, he took the Bears from a lowly 4-10 record to the NFL playoffs. Only the eighth head coach in Bear history, he earned NFC Coach of the Year honors by UPI and Pro Football Writers Association in his second year. In 1977, the Bears closed with a six-game winning streak, their longest in 18 years (1959). The last time the Bears had been in the playoffs was 14 years ago (1963).

A superb student of the sport, Pardee's football career began at Texas A&M where he starred under Paul (Bear) Bryant. He was selected All-Southwest Conference and had outstanding performances in both the Blue-Gray and North-South post season all-star games. Off the field, he earned classroom honors as a business administration major.

In 1957, the Los Angeles Rams chose Pardee as a second round draft choice and a sparkling NFL career was underway. After his eighth pro season, an operation to remove cancer in his arm forced him off the field, at which time he entered the coaching profession as an assistant at Texas A&M. Never one to quit, Pardee rejoined the Rams in 1966 after the one-year layoff. When the Rams and the Redskins transacted a seven-player, eight-draft choice trade in 1971, Pardee came to Washington.

In his 15 NFL years, he played in 196 games. His stats read 22 pass interceptions, 13 fumble recoveries, five touchdowns, and a safety and 1963 and 1971 All-Pro honors. As the defensive signal caller, he was a coach on the field.

Redskin fans may well remember Pardee's game vs. St. Louis in 1971 when he intercepted three passes and returned one for a touchdown.

Living with the thought "I've always tried to treat everybody the way I'd like to be treated," he has earned the respect and admiration of those who have come in contact with him.

The 6-2, 225 pounder was voted to the Texas all-time Pro Team in 1975. He coached the South All-Star team in the 1976 Senior Bowl and the Big 10 senior stars against the Pac 8 last year at the Seattle Kingdome in the Challenge Bowl.

Pardee lists his "loves" as church, family and football. He and his wife Phyllis Lane Perryman, were married December 27, 1957, and have five children: Steven, 19 (a sophomore Pre Med student at Texas A&M); Judee, 18 (freshman at Texas Christian University); Anne Marie, 17; Susan, 15; and Ted, 9.

Born April 19, 1936 in Exira, Iowa Pardee spent most of his youth in Texas playing six-man high school ball at Christoval High.

GENERAL MANAGER

BOBBY BEATHARD

"He has compiled a record that is without equal in the NFL for finding and signing talent . . . ," President Edward Bennett Williams said in announcing the hiring of Beathard as General Manager.

At 41, Beathard already has a success record in achieving talent that no other general manager or talent scout can match.

Over the past four years in Miami, Beathard drafted 23 players in the first six rounds that made the Dolphin roster. In 1977, eight of Miami's 11 picks were on the final 43-man roster. Among players drafted in 1976 and 1977, the Dolphins had eight starters plus a punter in the lineup for the final five games of 1977.

In consecutive drafts, he chose three successful receivers in Nat Moore, Freddie Solomon and Duriel Harris. His "sleepers" include middle linebacker Steve Towle, and running backs Leroy Harris and Gary Davis, each of whom had two 100-yard rushing games in 1977.

With over 15 years of reviewing college talent behind him, Beathard knows the NFL. He began on a part-time basis with Kansas City (1963-66), scouting the western states and then moved on as an aide to Al Davis in the AFL (American Football League) front office. Kansas City made him a permanent scout after three months at the League office, and he stayed until 1968 when he was hired by the Atlanta Falcons. In 1972, Miami named him Director of Player Personnel (as a successor to Joe Thomas).

A native of El Segundo, California, he quarterbacked Cal Poly (San Luis Obispo) to consecutive 9-1 records in 1957-58. He signed with the Redskins in 1959, competing for a spot with Eddie LeBaron, Ralph Guglielmi and Eagle Day. He had a brief stay as a defensive back in 1961 with the San Diego Chargers. His younger brother, Pete, starred at Southern Cal and was a first round draft choice by Kansas City in 1964 at quarterback.

Born January 24, 1937, Beathard is an avid runner. He runs at least 15 miles a day, competing in various marathons as his schedule permits. In 1978, he completed the Boston Marathon in two hours, 55 minutes and the San Diego Marathon in two hours, 57 minutes.

When Beathard isn't traveling the country looking for talent, he resides in Oakton, Va. He has three sons and a daughter, all living in California.

BILLY KILMER

Quarterback UCLA

Height: 6-0 Weight: 204 16th Year

Born: September 5, 1939, Topeka, Kansas

Became Redskin: January 28, 1971. First trade George Allen made in Washington was to get Billy Kilmer from New Orleans, giving up Tom Roussel and 4th and 8th round draft picks in 1972.

NFL Games Played In: 165

Pro Career: One of the smartest and guttsiest quarterbacks to ever play. Entered the NFL as a shotgun-style QB and gained almost 1,000 yards rushing in first two seasons, scoring 15 TD's himself by running. An auto accident forced him out of action in his third year (1963) and almost forever. Also missed all of 1965 season. He was selected by New Orleans from the 49'ers in the 1967 expansion draft. In four years at New Orleans, Kilmer passed for 7,500 yards and 47 TD's.

Came to Washington right after Allen arrived in 1971 and has been football's winningest quarterback the past six seasons. He was the Redskins MVP in 1971 and sportswriters' Most Courageous Athelete, an award he is always considered for every year because of his extreme desire to play and win. Has led Redskins to six consecutive winning seasons, five trips to the playoffs, an NFC championship and a trip to Super Bowl VII.

In his 7 years at Washington, he has won 50 of 68 games. Injuries have slowed him down at times, but never stopped him. He is a courageous athelete who has a long list of games played in (and usually won) when in pain.

In 1976, he passed for 1,252 yards and 12 TD's after coming back from a severely bruised shoulder and ribs to lead the team for four consecutive wins and into playoffs. In 1977, he passed for 1187 yards and returned from injury to lead team to season finale wins against St. Louis and Los Angeles, only to finish in tie and miss playoffs.

His 1,562 career completions is the 20th best total in NFL history. Has passed for 148 TD's and scored 22 himself, one as a receiver. Shows 99 TD's and 72 interceptions since coming to DC

Notable: In his first two seasons, Kilmer caught 27 passes for 288 yards and one touchdown. He also punted 16 times, averaging 37.4 yards.

1977 Draft Choice Profiles

Round Six:

TONY GREEN
Running Back—Florida 5-9 185

"He's an eye-catcher. He brings the crowd to its feet," Beathard says of the Redskins' top choice. Green is clocked at 4.5 in the 40 and has unusual balance, according to Beathard. Florida's all-time leading rusher averaged 5.8 and 6.3 yards per carry in his final two years. As a senior he had 726 yards on 119 carries and scored eight touchdowns. Area fans remember his 178-yard game vs. Maryland with a 76-yard touchdown gallop in a 1974 17-10 Florida victory.

Round Eight:

WALKER LEE
Wide Receiver—North Carolina 5-11 183

"He's got speed, quickness and the cutting ability you look for in a receiver," Beathard says. Lee went to North Carolina without a scholarship and earned one because of his skills. A former high school quarterback, he started for a Tar Heel team that was primarily a running oriented school. As a senior he grabbed 16 passes for 220 yards and three touchdowns. He has 4.4 speed in the 40.

DON HOVER
Linebacker—Washington State 6-2 222

"Don's a very intelligent player with pretty good speed," Beathard comments. The Redskins also hope to get a lot of special teams action from him. He may have been overlooked because he sat out a year (his junior) to earn money to support his wife and two-year old son by working on a wheat farm.

Round Nine:

JOHN HURLEY
Quarterback—Santa Clara 6-3 205

"This guy has the potential to play in the NFL," Beathard feels. He broke his index finger as a senior in the third game, but still passed for 1,103 yards and seven touchdowns with a 63 per cent completion mark. The day he broke his finger, he still completed 19 of 30 for 365 yards and three touchdowns. As a junior, he passed for 1,426 yards and nine touchdowns, including a 28 of 42 for 403 yards and a three-touchdown game. He graduated in January and was working as an accountant. His father played under Amos Alonzo Stagg and was drafted by the Redskins in the 1940's, but chose law school instead.

Round Ten:

SCOTT HERTENSTEIN
Defensive End—Azusa-Pacific 6-3 245

After an outstanding high school career, he was recruited by Nebraska. After two years, he transferred to Azusa Pacific, where he recorded 21 quarterback sacks while earning NAIA All-American honors.

Round Eleven:

MIKE WILLIAMS
Cornerback—Texas A&M 5-10 180

"He's had real fine coaching and training. He's also quick and smooth," Beathard notes. He's clocked at 4.6 in the 40 and could also help the Redskins special teams. From the same alma mater as Coach Pardee and linebacker Brad Dusek.

Round Twelve:

STEVE McCABE
Guard—Bowdoin 6-4 250

The captain of his college team, McCabe is "a good athlete who has the right attitude." He could earn a back-up spot on the line or special teams with hard work.

SEASON SELL-OUTS. . . . Home games at RFK Stadium have been sold out in advance since 1967, a string of some 83 consecutive games. All tickets are sold on a season basis, but as in all sports this was not always the case. In 1937, when the Redskins arrived in Washington only 916 die-hard fans purchased tickets for all six home games.

REDSKIN STREAKS . . . . In the first HOME game of the season (this year vs. Philadelphia, September 10), the Redskins have won the last three in-a-row and 10 of the last 11 home openers. In the FIRST game of the season (this year vs. New England), the Redskins have won 8 of their openers in 10 seasons.

1977 In Review

September 18—Giants 20; Redskins 17; (76,086) at New York

A field goal with :07 remaining was to do as much damage today as a field goal at this stadium on December 18 with :09 remaining in overtime would do to the Redskins playoff hopes.

After rallying for a 17-10 lead with 3:26 remaining, a deflected pass off Ken Houston's hands went for 47 yards to set up a tying Giant TD with 1:56 reading. Ten seconds later, a Mike Thomas fumble gave the ball back to the Giants, who responded with a game-winning 30-yard field goal.

A 30-yard TD interception by George Martin had put the Redskins in an early hole en route to their first opening loss since 1970.

September 25—Redskins 10; Falcons 6; (55,031) Home

Two of the League's top defenses went to work as only one touchdown was scored all day, a 3rd quarter Mike Thomas pass from Billy Kilmer.

Atlanta went on to set an NFL record, while the Redskins established a team record for points yielded.

October 2—Redskins 24; Cardinals 14; (55,031) Home

Billy Kilmer passed for three touchdowns and mixed his play selection in a game that wasn't even as close as the score indicates.

John Riggins and Mike Thomas netted 117 and 115 yards, respectively, rushing and receiving in one of the best offensive productions of 1977.

The defense sacked QB Jim Hart twice and intercepted two of his tosses.

St. Louis —Morris 1-run (Bakken kick)

October 9—Redskins 10; Tampa Bay 0; (58,571) at Tampa

The Redskins struck early on way to their third straight win and the defense did the rest.

A Moseley field goal and a Thomas touchdown put the Redskins up 10–0 with less than 10 minutes gone in the game.

The defense was superb with 10 QB sacks, three interceptions, two fumble recoveries and only 136 net yards surrendered, along the way to the shutout.

Washington —Moseley 44-yard FG
Washington —Thomas 6-run (Moseley kick)

October 16—Dallas 34; Redskins 16; (62,115) at Dallas

The game was costly for the Redskins as John Riggins and Bob Brunet were lost for the year and Billy Kilmer bruised a shoulder that hampered him for the next six weeks.

The Redskins were prepared to post their second straight win in Texas, and led 6–0 after one period and 16–14 in the 3rd quarter before the Cowboys took advantage of several mistakes in the final period.

October 23—Giants 17; Redskins 6; (53,903) Home

Washington was ready to get back on the winning track and avenge the season opening loss but couldn't avoid their own mistakes and fell to a costly loss.

A TD-called back for illegal motion, two key holding penalties, three costly fumbles, and a clipping penalty showed the Redskins who their worst enemy was: themselves.

October 30—Redskins 23; Eagles 17; (55,031) Home

The Redskins scored their first two possessions on Jean Fugett/Joe Theismann passes as the Redskins got back in the win column. Mark Moseley added three field goals. Again, the Redskins continued to make mistakes, having 3 TD's called back and stalling drives with penalties.

November 7—Colts 10; Redskins 3; (57,740) at Baltimore

A Monday night TV audience watched the teams play in a driving rainstorm, before the Colts pushed across a 4th quarter TD to even the Redskins record at 4-4, the lowest in seven years.

Washington drove 61 yards to the Colt 13-yard line and then passed for a TD, but officials ruled the clock had run out before the play got underway.

This was only the second loss in 11 Monday night games for Washington.

Baltimore	3	0	0	7	—	10

Baltimore —Linhart 26-yard FG
Washington —Moseley 40-yard FG
Baltimore —Scott 12-pass Jones (Linhart kick)

November 13—Redskins 17; Eagles 14; (60,702) Away

A blocked punt by Dallas Hickman sparked a 4th quarter rally that kept Redskin hopes alive. Mark Moseley booted a team record 54-yard field goal with 3:32 remaining to provide the winning margin. Theismann's TD passes to Grant and Buggs erased a 7-0 halftime deficit.

November 21—Redskins 10; Packers 9; (51,498) Home

A second Monday night game in three weeks saw the Redskins prevail, 10-9. The victory made the Redskins the first team to win 10 games on Monday television.

Thomas had 81 yards rushing, 32 receiving, and scored the game's only TD in the 4th period.

November 27—Cowboys 14; Redskins 7; (55,031) Home

It was a case of winning the battle, but losing the war. Washington outplayed the Cowboys, but didn't outscore them. The Redskins had a TD called back, committed 11 penalties (one a key 4th down call on Dallas' TD drive), and Moseley was wide right on three field goals. Once again, the Redskins beat themselves.

Theismann passed for 231 yards, while the defense pretty well shut down the Cowboys. This was loss number five of the season, perhaps the one that enabled the Bears to edge in as the wild card.

Washington	0	7	0	0	—	7
Dallas	0	0	7	7	—	14

Washington —Theismann 1-run (Moseley kick)
Dallas —Richards 4-pass (Herrera kick)
Dallas —Dorsett 1-run (Herrera kick)

December 4—Redskins 10; Bills 0; (22,975) at Buffalo

In cold, windy Buffalo, the Redskin defense posted their second shutout of the season.

Theismann and Fugett connected for the lone TD and Buffalo QB Ferguson hit only 40% of his 42 passes and was intercepted twice and sacked three times by an agressive Redskin defense.

Washington	0	7	0	3	—	10
Buffalo	0	0	0	0	—	0

Washington —Fugett 12-pass Theismann (Moseley kick)
Washington —Moseley 19-yard FG

December 10—Redskins 26; Cardinals 20; (36,067) at St. Louis

Billy Kilmer came back from a six-week layoff to spark the team to a needed win at St. Louis in a game that eliminated the Cards from playoff contention for a second year in a row.

Kilmer's 71 play ball-control day and Moseley's four field goals fueled the Redskins' playoff hopes. Calvin Hill and Mike Thomas scored the TD's.

The defense intercepted Jim Hart three times, sacked him three times and recovered a fumble.

Washington —Moseley 42-yard FG
Washington —Thomas 4-run (Moseley kick)
St. Louis —Metcalf 68-pass Hart (Bakken kick)

December 17—Redskins 17; Rams 14; (54,208) Home

Calvin Hill's first start and Billy Kilmer's passing provided the Redskins with a third consecutive win and a 9-5 record.

Hill gained 89 yards rushing and 27 yards receiving in replacing Mike Thomas. Kilmer hit 12 of 21 for 144 yards and two touchdowns in the "must win" game.

Los Angeles rallied from a 17-0 third quarter deficit to the final margin and tried two field goals in the final 10 seconds but failed.

For Washington, it was "wait and see" time as their fate rested in the hands of Minnesota or Chicago.

It was in Giants Stadium, the same end of the field and the same situation as the Redskins' season opener that Bob Thomas kicked a FG with :09 remaining to seal the Redskin hopes for playoffs in 1977.

The Super Bowl

In 1970, the NFL was divided into two 13-team conferences, comprised of the 26 teams formerly competing in the National Football League and the American Football League. Each conference was further divided into three divisions, the winner of each conference to be determined by a playoff of the three division winners plus the second place team within the conference with the best record. The winner of the two conferences meet in the NFL title game — The Super Bowl. An additional wild card team from each conference will be added in 1978.

*Division Winner #Wild Card for Playoffs

Redskin Playoff Record

1971 Redskins—NFC Wild Card Winner (9-4-1)
Dec. 26, 1971—Redskins 20, San Francisco 24-Away

Redskins take a 10-3 halftime lead but fail to cash in on scoring opportunities. A Brodie to Washington 78-yard scoring pass ignites a winning 49er counter-attack.

1972 Redskins—Eastern Division Champions, NFC (11-3-0)
Playoff Game—Dec. 24, 1972—Redskins 16, Green Bay 3-Home

Powerful Redskin defense cuts off Green Bay running attack and the Redskins win their first playoff game under the new NFL championship rules. Billy Kilmer hit Roy Jefferson for a score and Curt Knight kicked three field goals.

NFC Championship—Dec. 31, 1972—Redskins 26, Dallas 3-Home

The Redskins win their first conference championship in 30 years with a smashing victory over the defending conference and Super Bowl champion Cowboys. Kilmer flipped two touchdowns to Charley Taylor and Knight booted a playoff record 4 field goals. Defense was outstanding all day.

Super Bowl VII—Jan. 14, 1973—Redskins 7, Miami 14-L.A.

Undefeated Miami cooled off the Redskins attack and the Dolphins became Super Bowl champions with the first undefeated season by any NFL team since the 1941 Chicago Bears.

1973 Redskins—Eastern Division Co-Champions, NFC (10-4)
Dec. 22, 1973—Redskins 20, Minnesota 27-Away

Both Dallas and the Redskins finished the regular season with identical 10-4 records, but because of the point differential in head-to-head play, the Redskins were assigned the NFC "wild card" berth. The Redskins were led by quarterback Billy Kilmer, who had spent all of that week in a Washington, D.C. hospital with a stomach ailment that required surgery after season. Vikings rallied from 7-3 halftime deficit and 10-10 4th quarter tie.

1974 Redskins—Eastern Division Co-Champions, NFC (10-4)
Dec. 22, 1974—Redskins 10, Los Angeles 19-Away

Although both the Redskins and Cardinals finished with identical records of 10-4 in the NFC's Eastern Division, the Redskins were again awarded the "wild card" berth since they lost to the Cardinals twice during regular season play. Despite holding a 10-7 lead at halftime, the Redskins were unable to score in the second half and faltered 19-10.

1976 Redskins—NFC Wild Card Winner (10-4)
Dec. 18, 1976—Redskins 20, Minnesota 35-Away

The Burgundy and Gold returned to the playoffs for the fifth time in the last six years facing Minnesota, who sported the best record in the NFC. The Redskins fell behind in the opening eighty-one seconds on a Viking TD and were unable to make up a 21-3 halftime deficit, despite scoring 17 points in the second half.

THE Jefferson HOTEL

1200 Sixteenth Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20036

"I hate to rave about this place—because it may get crowded. I'd just as soon keep it to recommend to my special friends. It might be a cliche, but there's no better way to describe The Jefferson than to say it's like a home away from home, and if you do a lot of traveling, or just like that kind of feeling when you do venture out into the world, you'll understand."—Nancy Love, The Washingtonian Magazine

The Jefferson is considered one of Washington, D.C.'s dowager hotels, an elegant, yet intimate "home away from home" which has, over the past half-century, been lovingly appraised by its many devoted guests. Once described as Washington's equivalent to New York's Algonquin because of its popularity among entertainers and journalists, today's Jefferson still welcomes its share of notables while catering primarily to a business-oriented clientele."—Signature

"As an old hotel lover, I am thrilled to at last have found one so pleasant and homey and convenient in Washington that I hardly mind being away from home anymore. The Jefferson, three or four blocks from the White House, is a small, personal type hotel, where the help learns your name and calls you by it, where the rooms are as individual as the people who occupy them and where the rates appear to be comparable with those of the most mundane, stereotyped chain hostelery.—Celestine Sibley, Atlanta Constitution"
