ocV!BE, a $4-billion, 95-acre, mixed-use community and live entertainment district, is coming to Anaheim in 2024. An endeavor of the Samueli Family, ocV!BE will surround its anchor, Honda Center, the home of the Anaheim Ducks, with a full range of lifestyle and public amenities as well as new live entertainment venues. This includes a new 5,700-capacity concert venue, 30+ restaurants, two new hotels, more than 1.1+ million square feet of office space, 1,500 residential apartment units, 20 acres of publicly accessible parks and plazas, and a network of pedestrian bridges and walkways, including a landmark bridge over Katella Avenue.

The proposed development will create more than 10,000 construction jobs, 3,000 permanent jobs upon completion, and generate more than $2 billion in a one-time economic impact, according to an analysis conducted by the public finance and development economics firm, DTA.

At the heart of ocV!BE will be four unique public plazas surrounding Honda Center. The Urban Park to the west will be more than three acres in size, and it will be anchored by a new 5,700-capacity concert venue, a 60,000-square-foot market hall and multiple floors of creative office space, and a landscaped boulevard called the Paseo, featuring retail and dining opportunities. The southern-facing plaza will be a hub of activity focused on sports with elevated walkways providing ample opportunities for dining. The northern plaza will feature a collection of smaller entertainment experiences. An eastern plaza will provide a garden setting with terraced seating, ideal for respite and special events. In addition, ocV!BE will feature 10 acres of parks, including a five-acre riverfront park providing ample space for community gatherings and special concerts and events.

ocV!BE's Master Plan proposes more than 1,500 residential apartments, filling a critical need for housing in Orange County, and includes a commitment of 15% affordable housing units onsite. These residential communities will have full access to the entertainment and lifestyle amenities including 20 acres of open space and more than three miles of trails.

A new 325,000-square-foot office tower will attract top employers to Anaheim, and when combined with other new and existing office buildings, the office campus will be over one million square-feet. ocV!BE will also feature two new hotels with 550 total rooms, providing a unique hospitality choice in the Anaheim marketplace focused on lifestyle and entertainment.

ocV!BE embraces a transit-oriented community. The Master Plan integrates the existing transit center, known as ARTIC, into the broader district. Ridesharing will also be thoughtfully designed into the project, with onsite pickup and drop-off areas. ocV!BE is supported by a series of parking structures combined and increased road capacity, engineered to improve traffic flow and circulation.

SUSAN & HENRY SAMUELI

Owners

Education and Professional Careers:

Susan Samueli was born and raised in Los Angeles, Calif. She earned her B.A. degree in Mathematics from UC Berkeley in 1972. From 1972 to 1985 she was with IBM Corporation, where she worked initially as a software programmer in the Federal Systems Division, Westlake Village, Calif., and then as a Systems Engineer in the National Marketing Division, Los Angeles, CA, providing technical marketing and sales support for IBM's mid-range computer systems. In 1985 she left IBM and focused her energy on raising her children, at which time she developed a keen interest in integrative health care, studying in the areas of nutrition, homeopathy and Chinese herbs. Susan subsequently received a Ph.D. degree in nutrition from the American Holistic College of Nutrition in 1993 and a diploma in Homeopathy from the British Institute of Homeopathy in 1994.

Henry Samueli was born in Buffalo, N.Y. and grew up in Los Angeles. He earned his B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in Electrical Engineering from UCLA in 1975, 1976 and 1980, respectively. From 1980 to 1985 he was employed in various engineering and management positions in the Electronics and Technology Division of TRW, Inc., Redondo Beach, CA, a military communications defense contractor now part of Northrop-Grumman. Since 1985 he has been a professor in the Electrical and Computer Engineering Department at UCLA, and since 2003 he has also served as a Distinguished Adjunct Professor in the Electrical Engineering and Computer Science Department at UC Irvine. In 1991 he co-founded Broadcom Corporation, a global leader in providing semiconductor solutions for wired and wireless communications. Henry took a leave of absence from UCLA in 1995 and joined Broadcom full-time as Chief Technology Officer (CTO). In 2016 Broadcom was acquired by Avago Technologies Limited and renamed Broadcom Inc. Henry retired as CTO of Broadcom in 2018 and now serves as Chairman of the Board.

Sports and Entertainment Ownership:

In 2003 Susan and Henry took over management of the Honda Center sports and entertainment venue in Anaheim, Calif. and in 2005 they purchased the Anaheim Ducks National Hockey League (NHL) franchise from the Walt Disney Company. In 2007 the Anaheim Ducks became the first California team ever to win the Stanley Cup championship. Henry is a member of the Executive Committee of the NHL Board of Governors. The Samueli's also own the San Diego Gulls American Hockey League (AHL) franchise, which serves as the Ducks' minor-league affiliate in San Diego, CA. In 2020, the Samueli's announced their endeavor to create ocV!BE, a 95-acre, mixed-use community and live entertainment district that will surround its anchor, Honda Center, with new live entertainment venues, dining and retail offerings, and public amenities. Construction is expected to begin in 2023 with the first phase opening in 2025.

Community Service and Philanthropy:

The success of Broadcom has provided Susan and Henry the opportunity to support many worthwhile nonprofit organizations. After Broadcom went public in 1998 they created the Samueli Foundation and to date they have gifted over $1 billion primarily in the areas of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Education, Integrative Health, Youth Services, Social Justice, and Jewish Culture. In 2012 they joined the Giving Pledge, initiated by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates, whose members pledge the majority of their wealth to philanthropy.

Susan serves on the Board of the Orangewood Children's Foundation, a leading provider of foster youth services in Orange County, CA, and she is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Samueli Academy, an innovative public Charter High School in Santa Ana, CA that focuses on project-based STEM learning for community, underserved and foster youth. She also serves on the Advisory Board of the Susan Samueli Integrative Health Institute at UC Irvine which provides education, research and clinical care built around integrative practices and emphasizes whole-person healing and wellness. Henry serves on the Dean's Advisory Board of both the Henry Samueli School of Engineering and Applied Science at UCLA and the Henry Samueli School of Engineering at UC Irvine. Both Susan and Henry serve on the Advisory Board of the Susan & Henry Samueli College of Health Sciences at UC Irvine.

In 2019 they opened Great Park Ice in Irvine, CA which features four ice sheets, including FivePoint Arena that seats 2,500 spectators. The 280,000-square-foot complex offers a variety of ice sports including youth and adult hockey programs, figure skating, curling, broomball, sled hockey, public open skating and is also the official practice facility for the Anaheim Ducks.

MICHAEL SCHULMAN

Chairman of the Board, ocV!BE Sports & Entertainment
Chairman of the Board, Anaheim Arena Management, LLC
Managing Director, H&S Ventures, LLC

Michael Schulman serves as Chairman of the Board of ocV!BE Sports & Entertainment, Chairman of the Board of Anaheim Arena Management (AAM), Chief Executive Officer of Anaheim Ducks Hockey Club (ADHC), Chairman of the Board of the Anaheim Ducks Foundation and Chief Executive Officer of the San Diego Gulls Hockey Club (SDG). He is also an Alternate Governor for both the NHL and AHL Board of Governors and serves on the board of NHL Enterprises.

In addition, he is Managing Director of H&S Ventures, the entity that manages the Samueli Family Office. Schulman reports directly to owners Dr. Henry Samueli and Susan Samueli, and is responsible for managing and long-term planning of their profit and nonprofit entities.

Schulman was the lead negotiator on behalf of the Samueli family in the acquisition of the Honda Center management agreement from the bankruptcy court and the City of Anaheim, and played the key role in extending the lease of AAM and acquiring various properties around Honda Center which formed ocV!BE.

He acts as liaison between the Samueli family and AAM management, and supervises all financial, legal, and charitable decisions of the arena; as well as with the other partners of AAM and the City of Anaheim. In addition, Schulman oversees all long-term capital projects, including the 57 Freeway Marquee, two 360° LED rings, revamping of the video room, new scoreboard and sound system, and remodeling of the company offices and locker rooms.

Schulman also represented the Samueli family in purchase negotiations with Disney for the Anaheim Ducks, and in qualifying the Samueli family for the purchase of the team with the NHL.

Schulman was also involved with the family in changing the team name and logo, and forming the Anaheim Ducks Foundation. Schulman led the negotiation with the American Hockey League (AHL) in forming the new AHL Pacific Division along with four other NHL teams. He was the lead negotiator in purchasing the Norfolk AHL team and moving the team to San Diego. He also formed the San Diego Gulls Foundation.

He is responsible for developing additional ice and inline rinks in the Orange County area and was instrumental in the purchase of several ice and inline rinks, including Great Park Ice and FivePoint Arena, Irvine and Corona inline rinks, and KHS, Lakewood, Poway, Westminster and Yorba Linda ice rinks. Schulman is the Chairman of THE RINKS Program and oversees its development, including the advancement of the Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League, California State Championship and the Learn to Play Hockey Program. Schulman spent over 10 years working with the City of Irvine in developing Great Park Ice and FivePoint Arena, and forming the Irvine Ice Foundation, which was responsible for the building of the complex.

Schulman's role at H&S Ventures is multi-faceted. He is the Managing Director of the family office, which oversees all of the family's profit and nonprofit operations. H&S Ventures serves as the manager of AAM, ADHC, SDG as well as a number of other business entities in which the Samuelis are involved. Schulman was a founding member, and is a past board member, of the Santa Clara Institute of Sports Law and Ethics and the USC Sports Business Institute (SBI) Advisory Council.

Schulman serves on the boards of AAM, ADHC, Anaheim Sports Holdings, Anaheim Ducks Foundation, HS Hockey Development, San Diego Gulls Hockey Club and ECH 2101. He is also a current member of the board of the Telluride Ski and Golf Company.

Schulman also serves on many nonprofit boards. He has been a member of the University of California, Irvine Foundation Board since 1991, and CEO Leadership Alliance (CLA-OC) since 2019. He was one of the founding members and past chair of the UCI Planned Giving Leadership Council. Schulman serves on the boards of the Samueli Foundation, Samueli Institute, Anaheim Ducks Foundation and San Diego Gulls Foundation.

After earning his Bachelor of Arts in Economics from University of California, Berkeley, Schulman went on to the University of Santa Clara Law School. In addition, Schulman studied economics for one year at the University of Leeds in England.

Following law school, he was hired as a full-time law professor at the University of Southern California, after which he was a practicing attorney for a number of years and a partner with the law firm of McDermott, Will & Emery.

A native of California, Michael and his wife, Sherry, reside in Laguna Beach and have four children: Annie, Danielle, Bryant and Natasha.

BILL FOLTZ

Chief Executive Officer, ocV!BE

Bill Foltz serves as Chief Executive Officer of ocV!BE. Named to his new role May 19, 2022, Foltz oversees the planning, strategic vision and development of ocV!BE, a one-of-a-kind, mixed-use, master-planned community and entertainment district, as well as lead the business initiatives of Honda Center and the company's Sports Division, which consists of the Anaheim Ducks, San Diego Gulls, The Rinks and Irvine Ice Foundation.

Foltz previously served as Chief Operating Officer of ocV!BE, responsible for the day-to-day operations and all enterprise-wide business functions, including Finance, Human Resources, Information Technology and Legal. He led all aspects of financing the development of the 95-acre ocV!BE, including real estate operations as phases of the mixed-use community project continue.

Foltz has extensive experience over a 35-year career that covers professional sports, hospitality, private equity and consumer products. Most recently, Foltz served as the Chief Financial Officer for the Anaheim Ducks, Anaheim Arena Management and H&S Ventures, the entity that manages the Samueli Family Office and the various other holdings of the Samuelis. He oversaw the financial teams for each of the operating entities of the Samueli family holdings and was responsible for all treasury, banking, strategic planning and taxes for the various companies.

Foltz joined H&S Ventures in 2015 and subsequently assumed the CFO roles for the operating companies in 2016. Early in his career he served the O'Malley family as CFO of the Los Angeles Dodgers, and subsequently joined Platinum Equity, LLC, a Beverly Hills private equity fund where he oversaw the initial fundraising effort in 2004, resulting in the largest first-time fund raise of that year. He then joined the Wonderful Companies, the holding company for consumer products companies Pom Wonderful, Wonderful pistachios and almonds, Halos mandarin oranges, Fiji Water and floral interchange Teleflora. While with the Wonderful Companies, he negotiated and closed the acquisition of the iconic Fiji Water company. Most recently, Foltz was CFO of Oakwood Worldwide, LLC, the world's largest provider of temporary housing where he sourced, negotiated and closed a multi-billion dollar joint venture with Singapore's Mapletree Investments.

A native of Southern California, Foltz is a graduate of the University of Southern California, where he received his Bachelor of Science in Accounting and Finance. He began his career with the Big 4 accounting firm Ernst & Young where he obtained his CPA certification.

Foltz has served on Board of Directors for the Catholic Big Brothers, where he also was a "big brother" for 15 years. He also started the Lunada Bay Little League "Challengers" program bringing special needs children together with mainstream "buddies" to play baseball throughout the baseball season. Foltz currently serves on the Board of Directors for Pediatric Therapy Network, which serves special needs children and their families through the critical early development stages.

Bill and his wife, Robbie, have four children: Bill, Daniel, Francesca and Zachary. The family resides in Palos Verdes Estates.

AARON TEATS

Club President, Anaheim Ducks Hockey Club, LLC

Aaron Teats serves as Club President of the Anaheim Ducks Hockey Club. Named to his current post in February 2022, Teats continues to have oversight of ocV!BE Sports and Entertainment, which includes the Ducks, San Diego Gulls and The Rinks, while he serves as President of the Irvine Ice Foundation. Teats also serves as an Alternate Governor for the NHL Board of Governors.

Now in his 28th season with the Ducks, Teats is an Alternate Governor for the club and most recently served as Anaheim's President of Business Operations, where in addition to his leadership role with the Gulls and The Rinks, he led all ticket sales, premium seating, business intelligence, broadcasting, communications, community relations, entertainment, fan development, marketing, merchandising, publications/digital content and social networking.

He also spent six years as the club's Chief Marketing Officer, where he was integral in several business initiatives advancing the brand and financial impact of the Ducks in the community as well as the front office. He created the Ducks' internal merchandise division in 2014, which included the design and creation of the new Ducks Team Store, and a business intelligence division in 2017.

Teats began his career within the broadcasting ranks in 1994. He served 11 years as both an Emmy Award-winning producer and director of the Ducks radio and television broadcasts before permanently transitioning to the business office in 2007.

Teats has helped lead an organization recognized as a leader in charitable programming and community engagement. He also helped create programs benefitting public education, health and wellness, access to youth hockey, and grassroots marketing. Twice in recent years, Ducks were named a finalist for Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year by ESPN (both 2018 & 2019). The award "represents a sports club/team that demonstrates how teamwork can create a measurable impact on a community or cause." The club has also been continually recognized by ESPN The Magazine in its annual "Ultimate Standings" edition for successes both on and off the ice. The magazine has recognized the Ducks as a top franchise among 122 professional sports teams (NHL, NFL, MLB & NBA), ranking in the top eight three times.

During his Ducks tenure, Teats has spearheaded additional successful initiatives which led to organizational growth. He helped lead the launch of the John Wayne Airport Breakaway Bar and Grill (2011), a Ducks-themed restaurant at Orange County's international airport. Teats was also instrumental in the celebration and honoring of Ducks legends Teemu Selanne (2015), Paul Kariya (2018) and Scott Niedermayer (2019), who each had their jerseys retired by the club. Kariya and Niedermayer's jersey retirements took place during the club's 25th Anniversary Season (2018-19), which was also led by Teats.

Additionally, Teats is on the Advisory Council for Anaheim Boys & Girls Club after serving on the board of directors for the previous 13 years, and the Advisory Committee for Cal State Fullerton's "PRactical ADvantage" student-run advertising for the last three years. He is also on the Board of Directors for the newly formed OC Sports Commission.

Teats began his career for the then-California Angels in 1992. He received his bachelor's degree from Cal State Fullerton in 1992. Aaron and his wife, Justine, have two sons: Nolan and Colin. The family has lived in Anaheim Hills for the last 28 years.

PAT VERBEEK

General Manager

Pat Verbeek is in the midst of his second season as General Manager of the Anaheim Ducks, his first full season with the organization.

Named the sixth General Manager in Ducks history on Feb. 3, 2022, Verbeek joined Anaheim with two Stanley Cups on his resume and 36 years of NHL experience, 16 as an executive and 20 as an NHL player. He won Stanley Cups as a player (1999) and Professional Scout (2008), and helped build foundational pieces of Tampa Bay's eventual back-to-back championship teams in 2020 and 2021.

Prior to his current role, Verbeek spent three seasons as Assistant General Manager of the Detroit Red Wings (2019-22) where he was involved in all hockey operations matters with a focus on player personnel decisions. Prior to the 2021-22 season, Verbeek was named General Manager of the Grand Rapids Griffins, Detroit's primary development affiliate in the American Hockey League (AHL). He also served as a Professional Scout for Detroit from 2006-10, serving on the Red Wings staff for the team's 2008 Stanley Cup championship.

Verbeek also spent nine seasons with the Tampa Bay Lightning as Assistant General Manager and Director of Player Personnel (2012-19), and Director of Professional Scouting (2010-12). Verbeek was responsible for oversight of the team's professional scouting operations, player recruitment, contract negotiations and overall support of the hockey operations department. During his tenure, the Lightning made an appearance in the 2015 Stanley Cup Final in addition to four Conference Finals (2015, 2018, 2020, 2021). A total of 17 Lightning players that won consecutive Stanley Cups in 2020 and 2021 were drafted, signed or acquired while Verbeek was an executive with the organization.

Verbeek also served as Director of Player Personnel for Team North America at the 2016 World Cup of Hockey and won a gold medal as part of Canada's management staff at the 2015 World Championship.

As a player, he won a Stanley Cup with Dallas in 1999 and appeared at two NHL All-Star Games (1991 and 1996) during a 20-year NHL career. Originally selected by the New Jersey Devils in the third round (43rd overall) of the 1982 NHL Draft, Verbeek scored 522-540=1,062 points and 2,905 penalty minutes in 1,424 NHL games with New Jersey (1982-89), the Hartford Whalers (1989-95), New York Rangers (1994-96), Dallas Stars (1996-99, 2001-02) and Red Wings (1999-01). He served as Hartford's captain for four seasons from 1991-95.

A native of Sarnia, Ontario, Verbeek represented Canada at several international tournaments as a player, including medals at the 1994 (gold) and 1989 (silver) World Championship. He also appeared at the 1996 World Cup of Hockey and 1983 World Junior Championship.

Pat and his wife Dianne have five children, including one son, Kyle, and four daughters: Stephanie, Kendall, Haley and Georgeanne.

SCOTT NIEDERMAYER

Special Advisor to Hockey Operations

Scott Niedermayer was named Special Advisor to Hockey Operations Feb. 8, 2022. He previously worked in a variety of roles with the Ducks after his retirement as a player, including nine seasons in various roles within the club's hockey operations, including development coach (2015-19), assistant coach (2012-15) and team consultant (2010-12).

Niedermayer spent five seasons as a player with the Ducks from 2005-10, serving as the captain of the Stanley Cup championship team in 2007 when he won the Conn Smythe Trophy as playoff MVP. He scored 60-204=264 points in 371 regular-season games with Anaheim, and also recorded 8-26=34 points in 56 playoff games. In 2006-07, he set the Ducks franchise record for most points (15-54=69) and assists by a defenseman in a single season.

In 18 NHL seasons with Anaheim and New Jersey, Niedermayer scored 172-568=740 points in 1,263 NHL games. He is a four-time Stanley Cup champion, winning one Cup with Anaheim (2007) and three with New Jersey (1995, 2000 and 2003). He is the 2004 James Norris Memorial Trophy winner, a three-time First Team All-Star (2004, 2006, 2007), six-time NHL All-Star (1998, 2001, 2004, 2007, 2008, 2009), and 1993 NHL All-Rookie Team member. His 13 regular-season overtime goals are the most by a defenseman in NHL history.

The first player in hockey history to have won a Stanley Cup, Olympic gold medal, World Championship, World Cup, Memorial Cup and World Junior Championship, Niedermayer is also the only player in hockey history to win four Stanley Cups and two Olympic gold medals.

Niedermayer helped lead Canada to gold medals at the 2002 and 2010 Olympic Winter Games, serving as captain in 2010. He won a 2004 World Championship, 2004 World Cup title and 1991 World Junior Championship. He also won the 1992 Memorial Cup with Kamloops of the Western Hockey League (WHL) and was named Memorial Cup MVP.

Niedermayer was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame on Nov. 11, 2013. His No. 27 was retired by the Ducks on Feb. 17, 2019 and also retired by the New Jersey Devils on Dec. 16, 2011. He became the eighth player in NHL history to have his number retired by two NHL teams.

JEFF SOLOMON

Vice President of Hockey Operations & Assistant General Manager

Jeff Solomon enters his second year as Vice President of Hockey Operations and Assistant General Manager of the Anaheim Ducks.

In his role, Solomon oversees strategic budget planning in relation to the NHL's Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) and the salary cap, player contract negotiations, salary arbitration case preparation and management, and player evaluation and analytics. Solomon was named Interim General Manager of the Ducks Nov. 16, 2021 and served until Pat Verbeek was hired as General Manager Feb. 3, 2022.

Solomon joined the Ducks May 24, 2021 after previously working for 35 years in the NHL as a team executive and player agent. He spent 15 years as a hockey operations executive with the Los Angeles Kings from 2006-21, most recently serving as Executive Vice President/Hockey Operations and Legal Affairs. Solomon was part of a pair of Stanley Cup championships with the Kings in 2012 and 2014. He was responsible for the negotiation of player contracts, development of strategic salary cap plans and management of all matters related to the CBA.

Prior to joining the Kings, Solomon spent 20 years as an NHLPA Certified Agent, representing player such as Chris Kunitz, Tony Granato, Bryan McCabe and Steve Sullivan. Solomon has extensive experience in player contracts and negotiations, including restricted and unrestricted free agents, salary arbitration and how they all relate to the NHL's CBA.

Solomon earned a Juris Doctorate from the University of San Diego School of Law in 1983 following a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Rutgers University in 1980. Solomon previously practiced law in California, specializing in tax and estate planning while also working as an international tax specialist and financial consultant.

Solomon has two children: Lexy and Drew. He resides in Rancho Mission Viejo.

MARTIN MADDEN

Assistant General Manager & Director of Amateur Scouting

Martin Madden enters his 15th season with the Ducks in 2022-23, his third as Assistant General Manager. He was named to his current role June 23, 2020 after spending the previous 12 seasons with the club as Director of Amateur Scouting (2008-20).

In his role, Madden oversees all of the club's scouting efforts (professional and amateur) and assumes an expanded role in a majority of hockey operations directives and initiatives. He continues to evaluate top prospects throughout North America and attends all major European junior tournaments. He also plays a key role in producing the final prospect list leading up to the NHL Draft.

A native of Quebec City, Madden spent three seasons as an amateur scout for Carolina (2005-08), winning the Stanley Cup with the Hurricanes in 2006. Prior to his time in Raleigh, he served as a scout for the New York Rangers for seven seasons from 1998-05. Madden received his first scouting position with the Halifax Mooseheads of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League in 1997-98 while completing his MBA in Finance at HEC Montreal.

Madden played hockey as a youth until Midget AAA. He walked on as a freshman for the McGill University hockey team but stopped playing to concentrate on his studies, completing a degree in engineering.

Madden currently resides in Quebec City with his girlfriend, Catherine, and their child, Alex (5). He racks up countless kilometers cycling around different areas of the province and is also passionate about golf, tennis, NFL football, wine and music.

ROB DIMAIO

Assistant General Manager, Anaheim Ducks

General Manager, San Diego Gulls

Rob DiMaio enters his first season as Assistant General Manager with the Anaheim Ducks. He also serves as the General Manager of the San Diego Gulls, Anaheim's primary development affiliate in the American Hockey League (AHL).

Named to his post May 3, 2022, DiMaio has spent 33 seasons in the NHL, 14 as an executive and 19 as a player. He spent the last 13 seasons with the St. Louis Blues, most recently as Director of Player Personnel (2015-22). He also served as Director of Pro Scouting (2012-15) and a Professional Scout (2008-12). DiMaio played a key role in helping build the roster for the Blues Stanley Cup championship in 2019. He also spent one season as a scout with the Dallas Stars, serving for all levels, including professional, amateur and junior hockey in 2007-08.

Selected by the New York Islanders in the sixth round (118th overall) of the 1987 NHL Draft, DiMaio appeared in 894 career games with the Islanders, New York Rangers, Tampa Bay, Philadelphia, Boston, Carolina and Dallas, recording 106-171=277 points and 840 penalty minutes. He also earned 7-9=16 points in 62 Stanley Cup Playoff games in nine postseason appearances.

In addition to his NHL career, DiMaio won a Calder Cup championship in 1990 with the Springfield Indians (AHL), posting 4-7=11 points in 16 postseason appearances. He appeared in 109 career AHL games, collecting 42-50=92 points and 158 PIM.

He won back-to-back Memorial Cup championships with the Medicine Hat Tigers (1987, 1988) of the Western Hockey League, scoring 228 points (104-124=228) in 240 WHL games. He was named the Memorial Cup MVP in 1988 while leading the WHL Playoffs in scoring (31). A native of Calgary, Alberta, DiMaio helped Canada earn a gold medal at the 1988 World Junior Championship.

DiMaio and his wife, Laura, reside in Toronto. The family has two twin daughters, Natalie and Julia.

MIKE STAPLETON

Director of Player Personnel

Mike Stapleton is in his first year as Director of Player Personnel and his eighth season with the Ducks overall. In his new role, he maintains extensive knowledge of all NHL personnel, and aides the hockey operations department in the procurement of players via free agency, trade and the NHL Draft.

Stapleton previously spent seven seasons as a professional scout with the club (2015-22), and also worked with the Anaheim scouting department on a part-time basis and served as an assistant coach for organization's primary development affiliate in the American Hockey League in 2010-11 (Syracuse). Stapleton also served as head coach for Sault Ste. Marie of the Ontario Hockey League from 2011-13.

Prior to initially joining the Anaheim organization in 2010, Stapleton spent four seasons as an assistant and associate coach in the OHL with Sault Ste. Marie (2008-10) and Erie (2006-08).

Originally selected by Chicago in the seventh round (132nd overall) of the 1984 NHL Draft, Stapleton played 14 NHL seasons from 1986-2001 with seven different teams (Chicago, Pittsburgh, Edmonton, Winnipeg/Phoenix, Atlanta, NY Islanders and Vancouver). He appeared in 697 career NHL games, collecting 71-111=182 points with 342 PIM. Stapleton also skated in 34 career Stanley Cup Playoff games, recording one goal and 39 PIM.

Stapleton is the son of former NHL defenseman and 1972 Summit Series Team Canada member Pat Stapleton. Mike and his wife, Laura, have two sons: Luke and Nick.

JIM JOHNSON

Director of Player Development

Jim Johnson enters his first season as Director of Player Development for the Anaheim Ducks. In his new role, Johnson will prepare and educate Anaheim prospects on succeeding in professional hockey.

Johnson has spent 24 seasons in the NHL, 11 as a coach and 13 as a player. He served as an assistant coach for numerous NHL clubs, including the Phoenix Coyotes (1999-00), Tampa Bay Lightning (2008-10), Washington Capitals (2011-12), San Jose Sharks (2012-15), Edmonton Oilers (2015-18) and St. Louis Blues (2020-21). He also spent time in amateur hockey, including an assistant coach for Team USA at three World Junior Championships while also serving in the same capacity at the United States National Team Development Program from 1999-02.

Signed as a free agent defenseman by the Pittsburgh Penguins in 1985, Johnson appeared in 829 career games with the Penguins, Minnesota North Stars/Dallas Stars, Washington and Phoenix, recording 29-166=195 points and 1,197 penalty minutes. He also earned 1-11=12 points in 51 Stanley Cup Playoff games in six postseason appearances. He also represented Team USA at the 1992 Canada Cup and four World Championships (1985, 1986, 1987, 1990).

A native of New Hope, Minn., Johnson played four seasons at the University of Minnesota-Duluth (1981-85), earning 13-70=83 points and 402 PIM in 174 NCAA games. He captained the Bulldogs in 1983-84 while helping the team to consecutive WCHA championships in 1984 and 1985.

Johnson and his wife, Jody reside in East Gull Lake, Minn. The family has two children: Derik and Mia. Derik has been a video coach with the Los Angeles Kings the last five seasons (2018-present).

CHRIS KENYON

Vice President, Ticketing

Chris Kenyon is in his third season with the Anaheim Ducks as Vice President, Ticketing and 11th overall with the organization. Kenyon oversees all ticket sales and operations, premium sales, customer service, including season ticket sales and retention, group sales, partial and single-game tickets sales, box office operations, and ticket pricing strategy and distribution.

Kenyon joined the Ducks in 2012 and most recently served as Director of Ticket Sales from 2017-20, while previously holding managerial positions in new business development and retention, and group and inside sales.

Throughout his tenure with the Ducks, Kenyon has implemented exclusive mobile ticketing, developed dynamic pricing models, designated season ticket holders as the Orange Alliance while enhancing benefits to the membership, and created the Terrace Saver Program, which was rated the No. 1 most valued season seat in the NHL. He also launched a corporate hospitality department to host and entertain corporate events at Honda Center.

Kenyon spent two seasons with the Oakland Raiders (2010-12) as Premium Sales Manager and also served as Manager of Professional Services for Aerotek for three years.

A native of San Diego, Kenyon earned a bachelor's degree in political science at Point Loma Nazarene University.

Chris and his wife, Terri, have three children: Sydney, Riley and Reese. The family resides in Rancho Santa Margarita.

JAMES PEARSON

Vice President, Finance

James Pearson is in the midst of his 15th season with the Anaheim Ducks and third as Vice President, Finance. He oversees all treasury, general accounting, finance, banking, budgeting, strategic planning and revenue projections for the Ducks, Honda Center, ARTIC and The Rinks.

Pearson joined the organization as Controller in 2007, serving in that role for 12 years, while also adding the duties as Director of Financial Planning Analysis from 2016-20.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Pearson spent four years at the Big 4 public accounting firm Deloitte as a Senior Auditor where he planned, supervised and performed financial statement audits for clients in a variety of industries, including manufacturing, real estate and health care.

A native of Southern California, Pearson earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in accounting at California State University, Fullerton. Pearson has served as a member of the Finance Committee of Taller San Jose Hope Builders since 2009 and has been the Chairman of the Audit Committee since 2015.

James and his wife, Jamie, have three children: sons Grant and Landon, and daughter Madeleine. The family resides in Anaheim Hills.

GRAHAM SIDERIUS

Vice President, Corporate Partnerships

Graham Siderius enters his 15th season with the Ducks and fourth as Vice President, Corporate Partnerships. In his capacity, Siderius oversees the organization's Corporate Partnership team and related revenue, activation and new business development for the Ducks and Honda Center. He also oversees sponsorship related revenue at FivePoint Arena and Great Park Ice, The Rinks operations and via contracts with the city of Anaheim, manages advertising sales for the Anaheim Regional Transportation Intermodal Center (ARTIC) marquee signs and naming rights sales efforts.

Siderius previously served as the Director of Anaheim's Corporate Partnerships department from 2014-20, overseeing record-high revenues, landing naming rights to the new Great Park facility (FivePoint Arena) and the club's first-ever Season Presenting Partnership (UCI Health) in 2018. He also oversaw the implementation of naming rights to Honda Center's Pacific Premier Bank Club Level, Shock Top Terrace, TCL Entrance and Impact Club, an exclusive arena-level VIP entertainment space coming in fall 2021. He began his career with the Ducks in 2008.

A native of San Diego, Siderius earned a M.B.A in Sports Business Management from San Diego State University and a bachelor's degree in marketing from Washington State University. He was a kicker for the Cougars Pac-10 football team. He serves on the Corporate Partnership Committee of Children's Hospital of Orange County.

Graham and his wife, Jessica, have two children, Brennan and Cameron. The family resides in Ladera Ranch.

MERIT TULLY

Vice President, Marketing

Merit Tully is in his 23rd year with the Anaheim Ducks, his third as Vice President, Marketing. In his current role, Tully oversees business intelligence, broadcasting, communications, community relations, entertainment, fan development, marketing, merchandising, publications/digital content and social networking. Tully provides oversight of the club's broadcast agreements, and led the team's effort to launch a 24/7 audio network, Duck Stream, in the fall of 2022.

Tully helped lead the organization's efforts to bring the U.S. Women's National Team to Honda Center for a Rivalry Series game vs. Canada in 2020. Through the club's efforts, the contest set an all-time attendance record for the Women's National Team in a game on U.S. soil.

Tully previously spent three seasons as the Ducks' Director of Marketing and Brand Management, overseeing all team marketing elements, premium sales marketing, graphic design and fan development, including S.C.O.R.E. (Scholastic Curriculum of Recreation and Education), the club's education-based youth hockey program which has reached more 400,000 school children since 2005.

Tully served as the Director of Media and Communications for Honda Center from 2007-16, acting as the primary liaison between the arena and media for all non-hockey events. He coordinated several major announcements for the arena, including facility upgrades such as the Shock Top Terrace, the most extensive upgrade in venue history.

He joined the Ducks in 2000 as a Communications Manager, helping enhance the overall image of the hockey club and assisting in the club's public relations efforts through three lengthy playoff runs, as the team won the Stanley Cup in 2007 and advanced to the Stanley Cup Finals in 2003 and Western Conference Finals in 2006.

Tully graduated from Fresno State with a degree in Communications & Advertising and began his career as a Publications and Media Coordinator for the Arizona Coyotes in 1999. He serves on the Anaheim Transportation Network Board.

Merit and his wife, Heidi, have a daughter, Payton, and son Cullen. The family resides in Mission Viejo.

NEWELL BROWN

Assistant Coach

Newell Brown begins his 10th season as an assistant coach with the Anaheim Ducks, his third stint as an assistant coach with the club.

Prior to rejoining the Ducks at the start of 2021-22, Brown served in the same role from 2005-10 and 1998-00. He helped the club to a Stanley Cup championship in 2007. Overall, Brown has more than 30 years of coaching experience at the NHL, American Hockey League (AHL) and NCAA levels.

Brown spent the past four seasons as an assistant coach with the Vancouver Canucks from 2017-21 in his second stint with the club. He served in the same role from 2010-13, helping the Canucks to consecutive President's Trophies in 2010-11 and 2011-12, and an appearance in the 2011 Stanley Cup Finals.

He spent 2013-17 as an assistant coach with the Arizona Coyotes, and also was an associate coach with the Columbus Blue Jackets (2000-04) and assistant coach for the Chicago Blackhawks (1996-98).

Before joining the NHL ranks, Brown spent four seasons in the Detroit Red Wings organization as head coach of the Adirondack Red Wings, Detroit's AHL affiliate. He also served as head coach of Michigan Tech University from 1990-92 and was an assistant at his alma mater, Michigan State University, from 1987-90. He helped the Spartans win back-to-back regular season and CCHA tournament titles in 1988-89 and 1989-90.

As a player, Brown spent two seasons with the Cornwall Royals of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League in 1978-79 and 1979-80, and helped the Royals win the Memorial Cup in 1979. From 1980-84, Brown played at Michigan State, where he served as team captain in his final three seasons and earned First Team All-CCHA honors in 1982. Selected by Vancouver in the eighth round (158th overall) of the 1982 NHL Draft, Brown spent one year in the Canucks organization playing with Fredericton (AHL) and Muskegon (IHL) in 1984-85 before serving as captain of the Canadian National Team in 1985-86.

Newell and his wife Lori have a daughter, Erika, and son, Adam. The family resides in Irvine.

MIKE STOTHERS

Assistant Coach

Mike Stothers enters his second season as assistant coach with the Ducks in 2022-23. Stothers most recently won a gold medal as an Assistant Coach for Canada at the 2021 U-18 World Championship. He previously spent six seasons as Head Coach of the Los Angeles Kings' AHL affiliate in Ontario (2015-20) and Manchester (2014-15), leading the Monarchs to a Calder Cup Championship in 2015 while being named the AHL Coach of the Year. He guided the Reign and Monarchs to a 220-137-48 record and four postseason appearances.

He spent three NHL seasons as an Assistant Coach with Atlanta Thrashers (2010-11) and Philadelphia Flyers (2000-01). He served as Head Coach of the Moose Jaw Warriors of the Western Hockey League (2011-14) and the Owen Sound Attack of the OHL from 2002-07. He also was the Head Coach of Grand Rapids (AHL) in 2007-08.

Stothers began his coaching career as a player/Assistant Coach with the Hershey Bears in 1991-92 and served as Assistant Coach from 1992-96. He served in the same role with the Philadelphia Phantoms in 1996-00, helping the club to a Calder Cup championship in 1998.

Selected by Philadelphia in the first round (21st overall) of the 1980 NHL Draft, Stothers recorded two assists (0-2=2) in 30 career NHL games with Philadelphia and Toronto from 1984-88. He also skated in five Stanley Cup Playoff Games with the Flyers, including the 1987 Stanley Cup Final. The defensemen appeared in 671 career AHL games with the Maine Mariners (1981-84), Hershey Bears (1984-88 and 1988-92) and New Market Saints (1987-88), scoring 36-106=144 points and 1,840 penalty minutes. He won a Calder Cup championship with Maine in 1984.

A native of Toronto, Ontario, Stothers and his wife Judi reside in Irvine.

CRAIG JOHNSON

Assistant Coach

Craig Johnson enters his first season as assistant coach for the Anaheim Ducks. Johnson spent the past four seasons in the Los Angeles Kings organization, serving as assistant coach of the Ontario Reign for two seasons, the club's primary development affiliate in the American Hockey League (2021-22). He also served with the Kings as a professional scout (2020-21) and development coach (2018-20). He helped the Reign to the AHL's top power play in 2021-22 (27.5%), the best power-play mark in a single-season in the league's history.

Johnson previously served as head coach of Santa Margarita Catholic High School in the Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League (ADHSHL) from 2011-20, leading the team to three national titles in 2013, 2018 and 2019. In 2015 and 2017, the team was a finalist in the national championship game. Santa Margarita is California's only USA Hockey national varsity champion. He also led the program to four state titles and three ADHSHL Division 1 championships.

He served as director of coaching for the Anaheim Jr. Ducks at the AAA Junior level in 2013-14. Johnson spent one season as an assistant coach with the ECHL's Ontario Reign in 2010-11, and was as an assistant coach for Team USA at the 2015 Deutschland Cup.

He most recently served as Assistant Performance Coach in 2021-22 after spending two seasons as Athletic Performance Quality Assurance Assistant (2019-21).

He began with the NBA organization in 2018 as Athletic Performance Quality Assurance Assistant for the Austin Spurs. Prior to joining the Spurs, Wang spent a season with the Cincinnati Bengals as Strength and Conditioning Fellow.

Wang earned a bachelor's degree in human physiology from the University of Oregon while also working as a Sports Science Assistant with Ducks football team.

DAVID KEYES

Data Scientist & Recovery

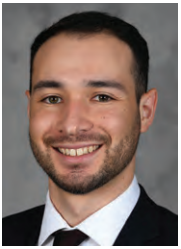

David Keyes is in his first year in Sports Science & Recovery for the Anaheim Ducks. In his new role, Keyes manages the sports performance data and the recovery program for the Ducks.

He joins the Ducks after spending two years working with the internal research team at the Gatorade Sports Science Institute.

Keyes also spent four years (2017-2021) with EXOS at the Mayo Clinic as a Performance Specialist working with athletes of all sports and levels to improve their performance and return from injury.

He held two internships in college athletics, serving as Strength and Conditioning/Sports Science Intern at Rutgers University (2016-17) and Strength and Conditioning Professional Intern at the University of Minnesota (2015-16).

Keyes earned a bachelor's degree at University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in Kinesiology and is currently working to complete his master's degree in Applied Exercise Physiology at Concordia University Chicago. He is also a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist.

JOHN LENCIONI

Physical Therapist

John Lencioni enters his first season as Physical Therapist for the Anaheim Ducks in 2022-23. A Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) and Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), Lencioni joins the Ducks after completing a Sports Physical Therapy Residency at University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center (UTSW) from 2021-22. As a Sports Resident, Lencioni provided accessory coverage for the Dallas Stars and Dallas Jesuit College Preparatory for the 2021-22 season.

As a Student Physical Therapist, he completed a clinical internship at the UFC Performance Institute in Las Vegas in 2021. He also served as a Student Strength and Conditioning Coach at California State University, Monterey Bay from 2016-18, working with the athletic department's women's soccer and women's volleyball teams. He also volunteered as a Sports Medicine Intern at West Valley College from 2015-16.

Lencioni earned his DPT in Physical Therapy at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas. He earned a bachelor's degree in Kinesiology and Exercise Science from California State University, Monterey Bay.

JILLIAN CHANEY

Sports Dietitian

Jillian Chaney is in the midst of her second season as Sports Dietitian of the Anaheim Ducks. A Registered Dietitian Nutritionist (RDN), Chaney joined the Ducks during the 2021-22 season, focusing on player and staff nutrition and overall wellness.

In addition to her role with the Ducks, she is a Performance Athletic and Nutrition Coach. Chaney is a certified coach for USA Triathlon (USAT) and USA Cycling (USAC), coaching athletes to successful Ironman 70.3 and 140.6 kilometer triathlon race finishes, including podium and world championship qualifying performances. She also currently serves as a clinical dietitian at Landmark Health, providing home-based care to chronically and critically ill patients, using food choices to prevent and treat illnesses by delivering nutrition assessment, care planning, progress monitoring, education and counseling.

Prior to earning a master's degree in Nutrition, Healthspan and Longevity from the University of Southern California, Chaney spent 17 years at Deloitte. She earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Duquesne University, a dual major in Management Information Systems and Accounting.

Chaney is a five-time Ironman Finisher while she represented Team USA in International Triathlon Union long course world championships.

CHRIS ALDRICH

Head Equipment Manager

Chris Aldrich is in his fifth season as the Anaheim Ducks' head equipment manager in 2022-23. Currently in his 16th season with the organization, he previously served nine seasons as an assistant equipment manager with the Ducks from 2009-18.

Aldrich has more than 30 years of experience in professional hockey, including serving as the equipment manager of previous Anaheim AHL affiliates in Iowa (2008-09) and Portland (2007-08).

Prior to joining the Ducks organization in 2007, he spent 10 seasons as assistant equipment manager of the Boston Bruins. Aldrich also had AHL stints with Providence and Maine from 1990-96.

In addition to his time with the Ducks and Bruins, Aldrich served as an equipment manager for Team USA at the 2010 IIHF World Championship in Germany.

A native of Windham, ME, Aldrich majored in history at Rhode Island College. When away from the rink, he enjoys playing tennis and following NASCAR. Aldrich is also an avid runner, having completed the Boston Marathon on three separate occasions. Aldrich and his wife, Susan, reside in Yorba Linda with their son, Andrew (15).

RYAN TALL

Assistant Equipment Manager

Ryan Tall enters his first season as Assistant Equipment Manager with the Anaheim Ducks. Tall joins the NHL club after spending five seasons in the same role with the San Diego Gulls where he handled the club's equipment needs.

Prior to joining the organization, Tall served as the Head Equipment Manager of the Utah Grizzlies in 2016-17, Anaheim's affiliate in the ECHL. He represented the club as an equipment manager at the 2017 ECHL All-Star Game. He also served as an intern in the equipment department with the Grizzlies from 2014-16.

A native of Centerville, Utah, Tall received a bachelor's degree from Weber State University

JEFF TYNI

Assistant Equipment Manager

Jeff Tyni is in his 18th season with the Ducks and his eighth season as an assistant equipment manager. Tyni previously worked with the Ducks as a Locker Room Assistant from 2005-15.

The Orange County native played in the Southern Professional Hockey League (Fayetteville) and served as a backup goaltender for several NHL and ECHL clubs. Before joining Anaheim's Hockey Operations staff, Tyni worked at Anaheim ICE as a Zamboni driver and with Honda Center's Event Crew. Tyni received a bachelor's degree from California State University, Fullerton.

Away from the rink, Tyni enjoys playing golf, traveling to Canada and spending time with his family. Tyni resides in Orange with his wife, Mira, and son, Blake (5).

DUCKS & HONDA CENTER IN THE COMMUNITY

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Commitment to community is one of the fundamental values of the Anaheim Ducks organization. The Ducks strive to be actively involved in the local community, ranging from outreach and fundraising events, in-kind donations, charity tickets and the dedicated involvement of the players, coaches, broadcasters, staff, Orange Alliance members, corporate partners and fans.

Under the guidance and example set forth by our owners, Henry and Susan Samueli, philanthropic support and giving is not only our responsibility as a member of the Southern California community, but something that is ingrained in the identity and culture of the team, staff, and fan base.

Anaheim Ducks Foundation

The mission of the Anaheim Ducks Foundation is to facilitate and support programs that produce positive change for children and families throughout Southern California by providing educational opportunities, broadening access to the sport of hockey, and addressing the health and wellness needs of our community. Through funds raised, the Ducks are able to support the Anaheim Ducks S.C.O.R.E. program, Learn to Play and inclusion hockey programs, and provide grants to a variety of local nonprofits.

S.C.O.R.E. (Scholastic Curriculum of Recreation & Education)

The Anaheim Ducks S.C.O.R.E. program offers free educational, standards-based curriculum to over 300 schools in five counties, reaching over 65,000 unique students annually. Impacting over 360,000 students since its inception in 2005, the S.C.O.R.E. program was developed to provide students access to valuable educational resources. Ducks S.C.O.R.E. provides physical education materials, science programming and school supplies while supporting teachers and educators with resources to foster a positive classroom environment, using hockey as a vehicle to teach and create opportunity.

Learn to Play

Learn to Play offers first-time hockey players the chance to get on the rink in full hockey equipment for free. Players receive instruction on the basics of hockey and skating. Participants in Anaheim Ducks Learn to Play are provided with full equipment to use for the four-week session. Since 2013, close to 20,000 children and adults have laced up their skates and hit the ice. In addition, the Anaheim Ducks Foundation provides all children who graduate from Learn to Play and sign-up for a The Rinks in-house league a complimentary first set of gear to start their hockey careers, with more than 7,000 sets being provided to date.

Inclusive Hockey Programs

In collaboration with the NHL's Hockey is for Everyone initiative, the Anaheim Ducks and The Rinks have created a variety of programs supporting adaptive and inclusive hockey. To make sure that the sport of hockey is accessible and available to all, the Ducks adaptive hockey programs include Top Flight, which teaches street hockey, ice hockey and ice skating to individuals with intellectual disabilities; sled hockey, which is designed for physically disabled youth and adults; blind hockey which is dedicated to providing opportunities for individuals with visual impairments; and deaf/hard of hearing hockey for individuals who have been diagnosed with a hearing loss.

Anaheim Ducks Foundation Signature Events

Anaheim Ducks Annual Golf Classic

The annual Anaheim Ducks Golf Classic presented by Honda features Anaheim Ducks players as the celebrity fifth player for a round of golf alongside Ducks fans and supporters. The Golf Classic raises funds to benefit the Anaheim Ducks Foundation.

The Anaheim Ducks Golf Classic presented by Honda offers on-course contests, along with a pre-shotgun program where event sponsors draft the Anaheim Ducks player who joins their foursome for an exciting afternoon of golf. Since 2008, the Golf Classic has raised nearly $1.3 million to benefit the Anaheim Ducks Foundation.

Anaheim Ducks Center Ice Party

Anaheim Ducks Center Ice Party stands as the team's annual themed cocktail party that gives Ducks fans and Orangewood Foundation supporters the chance to mix and mingle, alongside Ducks players and coaches, or cheer them on during a Go Orange for Orangewood themed game.

Since 2005, $1.5 million in proceeds from the Anaheim Ducks annual Center Ice Party have gone to assist 44 Women for Orangewood, an auxiliary of Orangewood Foundation, to support college scholarships and Peer Mentor programs for former foster care youth.

Dux in Tux

Dux in Tux presented by Honda is an Anaheim

Ducks signature event where players take on the role as celebrity sous chefs, joining Orange County's finest chefs to provide guests an evening of fabulous food and fun - all to benefit a great cause. Proceeds from Dux in Tux presented by Honda benefit the Anaheim Ducks Foundation.

The evening includes a silent auction, opportunity drawing, and live auction filled with Ducks memorabilia and unique player experiences. Dux in Tux presented by Honda is the ideal night for Ducks fans to interact with their favorite Ducks players, all while enjoying a night of fine dining, quality service and exceptional cuisine. In the 20-year history, this fan-favorite event has raised over $5.8 million to support the community.

Anaheim Lady Ducks Fashion Show Luncheon

In the spring, the Anaheim Lady Ducks - wives and significant others of players, coaches, and executive management - show off their fashion sense by hosting the Anaheim Lady Ducks Fashion Show Luncheon benefiting Children's Hospital of Orange County (CHOC).

The event gives attendees the chance to spend the afternoon enjoying lunch with Ducks players and a fashion show featuring members of the team, their wives/significant others and CHOC ambassadors walking the runway as they show off the latest spring fashion trends. Since 2008, the Lady Ducks have fundraised over $2 million to support CHOC.

Anaheim Ducks Community Outreach

La Casa Garcia's We Give Thanks

Honda Center and the Anaheim Ducks are proud to host We Give Thanks each Thanksgiving Day with local nonprofit partner We Give Thanks, Inc., and La Casa Garcia restaurant. This annual event at Honda Center provides a complimentary Thanksgiving dinner for local residents who might go without a meal during the holiday. For over 30 years, We Give Thanks has been serving meals to people in need, with more than 250,000 free meals being donated to the community.

More than 15,000 local residents fill the Honda Center parking lot to enjoy a traditional Thanksgiving meal and entertainment throughout the day. Ducks players, coaches and front office staff participate with their families to serve meals and give thanks on this special Thanksgiving holiday.

Holiday Shopping Spree

Anaheim Ducks players, significant others, and staff serve as holiday helpers during the holiday season as part of the annual Shopping Spree, which provides students from The Wooden Floor - a nonprofit organization serving low-income Santa Ana youth - the unique opportunity to load up their shopping carts with necessities and gifts for their families in celebration of the holiday season. The Anaheim Ducks players, joined by the Lady Ducks, assist The Wooden Floor students as they shop for new clothes, toys, and other essentials as a special holiday treat, all underwritten by the Anaheim Ducks and Anaheim Ducks player families.

Power PLAY!

Each season, Ducks staff, Orange Alliance members and corporate partners of the Anaheim Ducks and Honda Center team up to volunteer for a day of beautification projects at local S.C.O.R.E. elementary schools. From installing a street hockey rink to painting murals, building gardens and planting trees, the Power PLAY! is a great day for the volunteers to give back to the community. Twelve rinks and counting have been gifted to local schools to help their S.C.O.R.E. programs continue to grow.

KABOOM!

On Friday, Sept. 16, 2022, the Ducks and the City of Anaheim partnered to take part in their first KABOOM! Playground Build Day. Ducks players and staff members, along with City of Anaheim staff and volunteers, built and revealed a customized Ducks-themed playground to local children in the community. The 4,300-square-foot playground design was created with input from local children, along with the help of Ducks prospects, and includes a climbing wall, a bridge, monkey bars, a circular spider web climber, spinners, bucket swings, a companion swing, a zip line, teeter-totter and game and musical panels. It is the first phase in the transformation of a grassy field located next to Anaheim City Hall into Center Greens, a new downtown park benefiting the health and wellness of kids and families in Orange County.

Staff Volunteering

The Ducks, Honda Center, ocV!BE and The Rinks employees share the Anaheim Ducks commitment to the community and throughout the year are actively engaged in assisting the community through volunteer service. From beautification projects at local schools and nonprofit organizations, supporting families in-need with gifts during the holiday season, to sharing their professional experience as a resource for those looking to get back in the workforce. Our staff are inspired volunteers always willing to do their part.

Anaheim Lady Ducks

The Anaheim Ducks wives and significant others group, the Lady Ducks, are dedicated to assisting the local Southern California community through fundraising and volunteerism. This inspired group of ladies have assisted such organizations as CHOC, The Wooden Floor and OC Animal Care.

In addition to hosting the annual Fashion Show Luncheon, the Lady Ducks have also assisted in game-night activities including the Ducks holiday activities such as the toy drives, ornament sales, Adopt-A-Family program and annual Shopping Spree as well as the NHL Hockey Fights Cancer awareness night at Honda Center.

Anaheim Ducks Alumni Association

The Anaheim Ducks Alumni Association is composed of former Ducks players who are actively involved in the Ducks community initiatives. Ducks Alumni members have participated in charitable events such as Ducks Alumni charity hockey games, serving as sous chefs at Dux in Tux and assisting with The Rinks youth hockey programs. The alumni are an enthusiastic group, looking to contribute to the community goals of the organization and provide a fantastic way for fans to interact with some of their favorite Ducks of the past.

Visits and Appearances

Each season, the Anaheim Ducks appear at a variety of community events. The Ducks make regular visits to CHOC, visit local schools as part of the team's S.C.O.R.E. program, attend youth hockey clinics and The Rinks outreach efforts, and appear at local youth organizations, special events, charitable fundraisers and much more.

Donations

The Anaheim Ducks are dedicated to assisting charitable organizations throughout Southern California to raise funds by providing auction items for local events. Organizations interested in requesting a donation must be a 501(c)(3) agency located in Southern California. Requests must be submitted at least eight weeks prior to the date of the event online through the Ducks website: AnaheimDucks.com/DonationRequests.

In-Game Programs & Activities

Anaheim Ducks games are a terrific opportunity to feature local nonprofit organizations and highlight the needs in the community. Each season, the Ducks host a variety of activities at home games, including awareness nights for the NHL initiative Hockey Fights Cancer Night presented by UCI Health, Military Appreciation Night presented by Pacific Premier Bank, PRIDE Night, Animal Rescue & Adoption Night, Green Night, and CHOC Night. In addition, the Ducks hold toy drives throughout the month of December with Anaheim Fire & Rescue.

Launched during the 2020-21 season, the Anaheim Ducks added We Care Wednesdays to their in-game efforts. On Wednesday games throughout the NHL season, the Anaheim Ducks and Anaheim Ducks Foundation celebrate the amazing work of select nonprofit partners who make a positive impact in our community. We are proud to recognize the spirit and strength of our nonprofit partners and invite our fans to support the important services being provided to assist our community.

50/50 Raffle

The 50/50 Raffle is an exciting chance for fans to win a cash prize while also helping the Anaheim Ducks Foundation continue to expand the reach of its community programs throughout Southern California. One lucky fan receives half of the jackpot total from the raffle ticket sales that game and the other half benefits the Anaheim Ducks Foundation. The 50/50 Raffle has raised over $2 million dollars since its inception in 2016.

Surprise Puck Fundraiser

Each season, the Anaheim Ducks Foundation sells a commemorative series Surprise Puck Set, featuring four limited edition pucks with proceeds benefiting the Anaheim Ducks Foundation. Fans pick an individually wrapped puck at random and receive either a Ducks player-autographed commemorative puck or one of 23 surprise orange pucks. The lucky winners of the commemorative Surprise Puck fundraiser win a variety of great Ducks prizes.

Samueli Academy T-Shirt Design Contest

The Samueli Academy T-Shirt Design Contest tasks Design students from the Samueli Academy with a project to create an Anaheim Ducks branded t-shirt. The Samueli Academy is a project-based learning curriculum; therefore, the project was created for the students to hone their design skills, work in a group environment as well as make a formal presentation to pitch their designs.

Winners of the Samueli Academy T-Shirt Design Contest are recognized during a pre-game ceremony where their winning designs are revealed to the Ducks fans and then made available for purchase with proceeds from the sales of the shirts benefiting the Samueli Academy.

Anaheim Ducks Charity Ticket Program

Through the donations of Anaheim Ducks players, management, corporate partners, and fans, the Ducks are able to provide tickets throughout the season to charitable organizations in Orange County and surrounding areas.

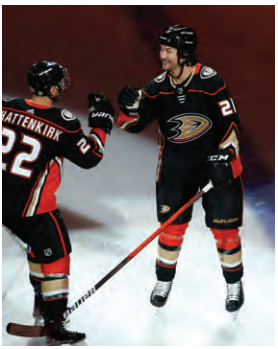

These tickets are located in the Community Corner which is a section of Honda Center that was created to give families and children from local nonprofit organizations the opportunity to experience all the fun of Ducks hockey.

Launched in 2015, the Ducks began the tradition of creating a spot on their Opening Night roster for the 21st Duck to honor a fan who embodies perseverance, character, courage, and inspiration, or is making significant contributions to our community. Each fall, the Ducks receive hundreds of submissions for the 21st Duck, inviting fans to share inspirational stories of Ducks fans who have demonstrated resilience and dedication. Each season, the chosen submission is introduced as the team's 21st Duck as part of the club's home opener at Honda Center.

Luke Gane – 2021-22

Luke Gane became the sixth 21st Duck honoree on Oct. 13, 2021, during Anaheim's home opener vs. Winnipeg. In 2008, before football practice, Luke Gane experienced a nosebleed that lasted over an hour. The Edison high school junior had high hopes to earn a football scholarship that year but soon found himself at CHOC hospital needing a bone marrow transplant. His diagnosis: severe aplastic anemia. Luke needed a transplant quickly and out of his four younger brothers, his youngest two (identical twins) brothers were matches. When asked who would help their older brother, 10-year-old Jacob raised his hand just before his twin brother Noah. With chemotherapy and a successful bone marrow transplant from Jacob, Luke had a four month stay at CHOC.

With determination and great support from his family, friends and coaches, Luke returned for his senior year in high school as a starter on the football team. He was able to help his team to an undefeated regular season and went on to play on the UCLA football team as a preferred walk-on.

Now, Luke, a special education teacher at Westminster High School, jumps at the chance to encourage and inspire CHOC patients. To this day, his doctors will call him to speak to new patients with similar diagnoses and their families to provide words of encouragement and inspiration. He is also a supporter and advocate for the Aplastic Anemia Foundation (AAMDS).

Luke has been a Ducks fan since he was three years old. He loved wearing his Paul Kariya jersey everywhere and played inline hockey throughout his childhood, even inspiring his brothers and his father to take up the sport as well. Today, Luke continues to play ice hockey in a recreational league at The RINKS where his team won the league championship at Anaheim ICE last year. He loved it when the Ducks players would visit him during his CHOC stay and has remained a steadfast supporter of his favorite hockey club.

Angelique Fong – 2020-21

Angelique Fong became the fifth 21st Duck on Jan. 18, 2021. Angelique is a two-time cancer survivor and mentor to cancer patients. Seven weeks after marrying the love of her life, Angelique, was diagnosed with breast cancer at age 39. Despite no symptoms, she had started on a cycle of mammograms and MRIs at the age of 35 because her mother was a two-time breast cancer survivor.

Already familiar with Susan G. Komen Orange County because of her mother's fight against cancer, Angelique served as a mentor to newly diagnosed breast cancer patients, volunteered at their free mobile mammography unit, and was a spokesperson at fundraising events. She turned her passion for running into a purpose: she has run over 40 half marathons and three marathons and counting, including a 48-mile challenge over four days twice, dedicating each mile to fellow cancer warriors.

Five years after winning her first battle, Angelique received the news that her breast cancer returned in April 2019 despite a double mastectomy. After three surgeries, Angelique created a "Radiate Kindness" initiative, including 33 random acts of kindness, one for each of her radiation treatments, to turn her radiation treatment into an opportunity to help others. Gestures ranged from monetary donations to her favorite causes; in-kind donations- home-made blankets to fellow cancer patients and children at CHOC, pet supplies to OC Animal Care, donating books to the library; and pay-it-forward surprises at the drive-thru window.

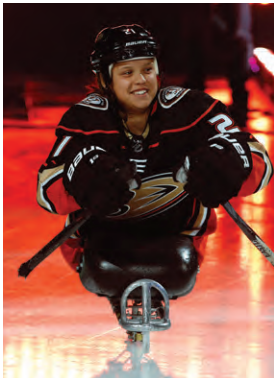

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Angelique was unable to be introduced during the home opener of the 2020-21 season, but the team flipped the script on her. On Feb, 17, 2021, the Ducks players, coaches and staff sat in the Honda Center seats and surprised Angelique with a standing ovation as she was introduced and walked out onto the ice for the first time.

As a longtime season ticket holder, Angelique credits the Ducks with being an important part of her life and throughout her cancer journey. Because of her perseverance and bravery, Angelique was honored with the Susan G. Komen Orange County 2019 "Most Inspirational Breast Cancer Survivor" Award.

Lera Doederlein – 2019-20

Lera Doederlein was introduced as the fourth 21st Duck at Honda Center on Oct. 3, 2019.

Born in Russia and adopted at the age of 21 months, Doederlein wore leg braces and used crutches most of her life due to being born with a condition called Arthrogryposis Multiplex Congenita (in both legs). After several surgeries and facing life in a wheelchair, Doederlein decided to take control of her mobility in 2017 and elected to have a double above-knee amputation. She was just 14 years of age at the time. Lera became dedicated to finding and creating her own way in sports as a bilateral amputee, as well as advocating and serving as an ambassador for adaptive sports.

Not long after her surgery, Lera was shown the sport of sled hockey at a sport amputee clinic and quickly fell in love with the game. Originally from Arizona, Lera began playing for the Arizona Coyotes sled program, and in 2018, she moved to San Diego where she joined the San Diego Ducks Sled hockey team. Beginning on the youth team, she served as a mentor to her teammates through her leadership, kindness and passion for the sport and scored 10 of the team's 19 goals in leading the team to the USA Hockey Disabled Hockey Festival's national championship.

Lera serves as a featured athlete for the Challenged Athletes Foundation, which provides opportunities and support to people with physical challenges, so they can pursue active lifestyles through physical fitness and competitive athletics.

In 2022, Lera represented Team USA at the Paralympic Winter Games in Beijing. She participated in the Sprint Biathlon, Middle-Distance Biathlon, Sprint Cross-Country, Middle-Distance Cross-Country.

Michael Lu – 2018-19

Michael Lu became the third 21st Duck when he was introduced at Honda Center on Oct. 8, 2018. A dedicated Ducks fan since 1993, Michael was diagnosed with Parkinson's at 28. He plans on not only finding a cure for Parkinson's, but to inspire others that this disease is solely just a disease. Parkinson's is a part of him, but it does not define him.

Michael was raised playing roller and ice hockey since age four in the Jr. Ducks program. He continued playing locally until his diagnosis in 2017. Even though he cannot play at the level he once did, he continued to work as a hockey instructor in the Ducks Learn to Play Program where he helped grow children's hockey skills and love for the game.

Michael earned a master's degree in Educational Psychology to counsel children with disabilities. Michael is optimistic and hopeful about life and his journey with Parkinson's. He works with the nonprofit organization Parkinson's Resource Organization as a member of the Board of Directors and is making it his mission to take his diagnosis to help raise awareness for Parkinson's to find a cure.

Katie Hawley – 2017-18

Katie Hawley became the second 21st Duck on Oct. 5, 2017, when she was introduced at Honda Center. Katie has been battling neuroblastoma since the age of nine, a rare childhood cancer. Katie had defeated cancer twice and endured countless surgeries, chemotherapy sessions, radiation treatments, scans, and blood transfusions. When Katie was diagnosed with cancer for the third time in December 2016, her spirits were low, and she told her parents that she did not want to fight anymore. Katie was given tickets to attend a Ducks game with her family. She credits watching that game and her favorite player, Rickard Rakell, as a key to reenergizing her drive to beat the disease.

Katie not only continues to fight the disease, but she also inspires others. Katie is a Courageous Kid with the Jessie Rees Foundation, a nonprofit organization ensuring that every child fighting cancer has the support to "Never Ever Give Up!" She has also helped raise awareness through the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation's 5K run, the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life and has created her own way to give back to patients in need through S.O.S., Stuff Our Slippers.

As part of her 21st Duck experience, Katie joined the team for practice to prepare for her Opening Night skate onto Honda Center ice - joined Rickard Rakell on the pre-game Orange Carpet - and then was led out onto the ice by Rakell and Corey Perry for player introductions, where she told them both to score goals that night. Perry had two goals in the game, and Rakell broke a 4-4 tie with the eventual game-winner late in regulation.

Kai Quinonez – 2015-16

Kai Quinonez is the inaugural 21st Duck. He was introduced to a sold-out crowd during the Ducks home opener on Oct. 12, 2015, at Honda Center through the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Orange County and Inland Empire. A youth hockey player, Kai was diagnosed with aplastic anemia when he was nine, and through the Make-A-Wish Foundation, he was afforded the opportunity to practice with the Ducks and join them for the home opener.

Kai was originally granted a day with the team and took part in a practice with Ducks players but was surprised by the club in what was the start of an inspiring new tradition. Kai, then 13 years old, arrived for Opening Night to walk the Orange Carpet with his favorite player, Hampus Lindholm. Kai skated out onto the Honda Center ice during the player introduction and was introduced as the 21st member of the Ducks for the 2015-16 season.

As part of his Make-A-Wish, Upper Deck surprised Kai by unveiling his very own Upper Deck Young Guns rookie card during the game at Honda Center in front of his family and fans in attendance. With a dream to play hockey, Kai played in multiple seasons for Los Alamitos High School in the Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League from 2017-19.

Bally Sports SoCal and Bally Sports San Diego are the destinations for the most local, comprehensive coverage of the Anaheim Ducks. In its 29th season as a telecast partner, Bally Sports SoCal and Bally Sports San Diego features Brian Hayward in the booth for his 29th season as the Ducks analyst while John Ahlers returns for his 21st season as play-by-play announcer. Aly Lozoff will again serve as a reporter throughout the season.

"Ducks Live" returns prior to and immediately following all home and road telecasts on Bally Sports SoCal and Bally Sports San Diego. Kent French will again lead discussions alongside Guy Hebert who offers viewers further analysis. Hayward joins Hebert to provide analysis for all home shows. In addition, French and Lozoff will rotate to offer updates and reports throughout each telecast on the regional sports networks. Connected original, fast-paced and fun, the half-hour program brings fans closer to the team with player and coach interviews, game analysis and much more.

Airing throughout the regular season on Bally Sports SoCal and Bally Sports San Diego, "Ducks Weekly" will again take fans inside the Ducks organization. Hosted by French, "Ducks Weekly" goes behind the scenes with player interviews, exclusive features, and unmatched access to the team.

Ducks programming airing on Bally Sports SoCal and Bally Sports San Diego will stream live on the Bally Sports app and on ballysports.com when viewers authenticate through their pay-tv service. New this season, Ducks games will also be available on Bally Sports+, the all-new standalone streaming subscription service from Bally Sports that gives fans a new way to watch their favorite teams. Fans can visit ballysportsplus.com to learn more and subscribe.

Together, Bally Sports SoCal and Bally Sports San Diego present more live, local sports programming than any other network or broadcast system in the market. Serving sports fans in Southern California, Nevada and Hawaii, the regional networks produce over 2,500 hours of live and original programming every year. For complete regional sports news, original features, and more, visit @BallySportWest and @BallySportsSD on Twitter, @BallySportWest and @BallySportsSD on Instagram and Bally Sports West and Bally Sports San Diego on Facebook.

JOHN AHLERS

Television Play-By-Play

John Ahlers is in the midst of his 21st season as the Anaheim Ducks' play-by-play voice on Bally Sports West. He has called 1,326 regular-season Ducks games since joining the club prior to the 2002-03 season along with numerous NHL games for NBC Sports Network over the previous 10 seasons. Ahlers called his 1,000th regular-season Ducks game on Nov. 12, 2017 vs. Tampa Bay.

For each of the past two seasons, Ahlers has handled the play-by-play for Sports USA's national radio coverage of the Stanley Cup Final, as well as numerous Stanley Cup Playoff games.

Each season, Ahlers is a significant contributor to the team's award-winning Ducks S.C.O.R.E. program, an educational initiative that impacts over 25,000 elementary school students. He teaches the students the value of teamwork in sports, in school and in life. Using team-building exercises that relate to hockey, this interactive presentation demonstrates the importance to work effectively with others to achieve success in all endeavors. Ahlers can also be seen and heard at many of the Ducks community relations events, where he works as host and emcee.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Ahlers served as radio play-by-play voice for the Tampa Bay Lightning from 1999-02. A 34-year broadcast veteran with 2,576 games behind the microphone (including 1,725 in the NHL), he also worked as host of the Lightning's television pre-game show and Lightning Weekly, a magazine format program aired on Florida's Sunshine Television Network.

Prior to his stint with Tampa Bay, Ahlers spent five seasons as the television and radio voice of the International Hockey League's Detroit Vipers. During that time, he also worked as broadcaster of the IHL Game of the Week and Turner Cup Finals for Fox Sports Net. While with the Vipers he received numerous awards, including the IHL Broadcaster of the Year in 1995 and Emmys for Best Sports Broadcasts in 1995 and 1998. With Anaheim, Ahlers won an Emmy in 2003 for Best Live Sports Broadcast during Game 4 against Detroit in the first round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

A graduate of Michigan State University, Ahlers has the call for NFL and NCAA college football games on Sports USA Radio Network for the 11th consecutive season in 2022. He has also served as the voice of the Salt Lake Golden Eagles (IHL) and the Louisville IceHawks (ECHL), as well as Michigan State and Colorado College hockey.

John and his wife, Cindi, were married in the summer of 2008. The couple resides in Trabuco Canyon.

BRIAN HAYWARD

Television Color Analyst

The original television analyst for the Anaheim Ducks, Brian Hayward is in his 29th season with the club. He has called 1,828 regular-season Ducks games since joining the team and celebrated his 1,000th Ducks broadcast on Jan. 16, 2011 vs. Edmonton. Over the past 29 years, he has earned a reputation as one of hockey's most articulate and informative analysts. Hayward has also been an active member of the Orange County community since joining the Ducks, participating in numerous charitable events on behalf of the club.

Hayward has previously called national games for NBC, ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and CBC. He appeared as an analyst for "NHL on NBC," which included work at the 2014 Stadium Series Game at Dodger Stadium and the 2006 Olympic Winter Games in Torino, Italy. He also served as color commentator for the 2004 World Cup of Hockey on ESPN's telecasts of the event. In 1998, he was a roving reporter during the Stanley Cup Final for ESPN, where he had the distinction of interviewing President Bill Clinton during a game in Washington.

After earning All-American honors as a goaltender at Cornell in 1982, Hayward went on to play 11 NHL seasons with the Winnipeg Jets, Montreal Canadiens, Minnesota North Stars and San Jose Sharks. In 1984-85, Hayward established a franchise record by winning 33 games with the Jets.

In Montreal, he teamed with Patrick Roy to win the William M. Jennings Trophy three consecutive years (1987-89) as the team allowing the fewest goals over the course of the regular season. Hayward also appeared in the Stanley Cup Final in 1986 with Montreal and 1991 with Minnesota.

A member of the inaugural San Jose Sharks in 1991-92, Hayward gained experience as an analyst on select Sharks games while sidelined with injuries. When a back injury forced a premature end to his playing career, he became a full-time broadcaster with the Ducks.

A native of Toronto, Ontario, Hayward holds a degree in business management from Cornell. He resides in Anaheim Hills with his wife, Angela. His daughter, Courtney, and her husband, Bobby, currently live in Manhattan Beach.

STEVE CARROLL

Radio Play-By-Play

Steve Carroll in the midst of his 24th season as the radio play-by-play voice of the Anaheim Ducks in 2022-23, having called 1,628 regular-season games since joining the club. A veteran of 47 years as a play-by-play announcer, Carroll joined the Ducks in 1999-00 and called his 1,000th regular-season broadcast with Anaheim on Mar. 2, 2013 vs. Phoenix. He also celebrated his 20th season with the franchise in 2018-19.

After landing his first play-by-play job as voice of the Mineral Area Junior College Men's Basketball Team (Flat River, Missouri) in 1976, Carroll has gone on to broadcast in several sports at both the college and professional levels. The long list of baseball teams includes the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, the Nashville Sounds (Triple-A), Huntsville Stars (Double-A) and Iowa Cubs (Triple-A). He has been employed in nine states and has called action in every state with the exception of Alaska and Idaho. At one point in the mid-1990s, Carroll was in Nashville broadcasting for five teams in three sports while freelancing for a newspaper. His work included covering the Nashville Knights of the ECHL and Vanderbilt University basketball and football (radio and television).

Carroll joined the Ducks after spending the previous two seasons handling the radio play-by-play duties for the New Orleans Brass of the ECHL, including serving in the communications, media relations and corporate sales departments. He also called games for the New Orleans Zephyrs, a Triple-A affiliate of the Houston Astros, from 1996-98. In addition, he handled play-by-play for the New Orleans Storm professional soccer team.

Carroll has previous NHL broadcasting experience with the Philadelphia Flyers, serving as radio play-by-play announcer for the 1995-96 season. He also called action for the New Haven Nighthawks of the AHL during the 1985-86 season and the Des Moines Buccaneers (USHL) from 1981-85.

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Carroll is also a contributor to AnaheimDucks.com, the club's official team website. On behalf of the team, he has served as an emcee at several charity events during the regular season and in the summer months. Along with his work with the Angels in 2011 as co-host of "Angels Today," Carroll also co-hosted "This Week in Angels Baseball" for two years on Adelphia Cable in Southern California.

Steve and his wife, Rhonda, reside in Ladera Ranch with their two dogs, Sam and Dixie.

DAN WOOD

Radio Color Analyst

Dan Wood is in his 14th season as radio color analyst for the Anaheim Ducks, having called 994 regular-season games. Wood, who was named to his position on Aug. 24, 2009, joins Steve Carroll in the Ducks radio broadcast booth for all preseason, regular season and postseason games.

An 18-year veteran writer of NHL hockey, Wood covered the Ducks for the Orange County Register from 2000-09, including the club's run to the 2007 Stanley Cup championship. Prior to joining the Register, Wood covered the San Jose Sharks for the Contra Costa Times from the team's inception in 1991 until 2000.

A professional sportswriter since June 1980, Wood previously covered Stanford University football, men's and women's basketball, Bay Area college baseball and St. Mary's College basketball, as well as high school and local sports.

Born in Ely, Nev. Wood grew up in Livermore, Calif. in the East Bay portion of the San Francisco Bay Area. He graduated from Livermore High School in 1976 and San Jose State University with a bachelor's degree in journalism and a sociology minor (1980). He currently resides in Anaheim with his wife, Kim. They were blessed with two children: Jennifer and Kenny.

ALEXIS DOWNIE

Host & Content Producer

Alexis Downie is in her first season as the Host & Content Producer for the Anaheim Ducks. In Downie's new role with Ducks Stream, she hosts numerous fan-centric shows, and provides news and various team information. She also conceptualizes, records and produces video and audio airing on the 24/7 audio channel and Ducks digital platforms.

Downie spent the previous three years as a reporter with Stadium, hosting and producing the National Hockey League (NHL) show, Ice Breakers. She covered the 2021 and 2022 Stanley Cup Finals, 2022 Winter Classic while also providing content for the Stadium/Bally Sports brand across various social and digital networks.

She also served as the rinkside reporter and analyst for the Chicago Steel of the United States Hockey League (USHL) for two seasons (2020-22). She also was a reporter for the BIG EAST Conference in 2021-22, providing live reports on FOX Sports and the BIG EAST Digital Network.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Downie earned a bachelor's degree in journalism and a minor in sports journalism at Michigan State University. Alexis now resides in Costa Mesa.

JOSH BREWSTER

Radio Postgame Host

Josh Brewster is in his 17th season as the postgame show host on Ducks Stream following Anaheim Ducks games. The call-in show offers fans an opportunity to discuss the game and converse with a wide variety of guests, including players, broadcasters, writers, and executives from the world of hockey.

In addition to his role with the Ducks, Brewster serves as correspondent for NHL Network Television and appears regularly on Sirius/XM NHL Network Radio.

Brewster is the first broadcaster to make the leap from web radio or podcasting to broadcast for an NHL club. Starting in 2000, he produced the first web radio series focusing solely on the game of hockey, "The Western Hockey Radio Show," as well as "Hockeytalk Audio Features."

On television, he provided color commentary for Team USA at the World University Games for Fox College Sports and has narrated programs on Animal Planet and USA Network. He has also been a playwright, actor, and public speaker.

He has written for NHL.com, The Hockey News, The Fourth Period and Hockey Digest. His career in hockey media is profiled in the book, "Living the Hockey Dream" by Brian Kennedy.

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., Brewster resides in Lake Balboa with his wife, Catherine, and sons, Brent and Shane.

HONDA CENTER

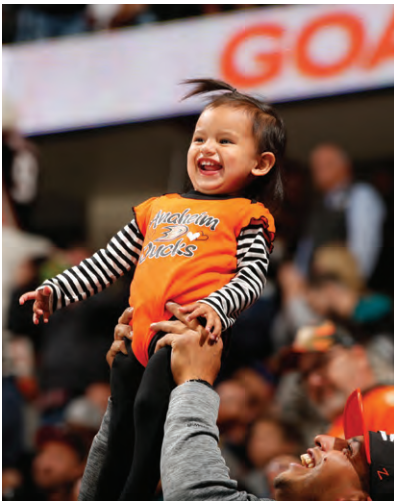

Celebrating over 29 years in the heart of Orange County, Honda Center stands as one of the country's premier entertainment and sports venues. Opening its doors in 1993, the venue is owned by the City of Anaheim and managed by Anaheim Arena Management, LLC. Home to the 2007 Stanley Cup champion Anaheim Ducks, the arena annually hosts top-name concerts, exciting sporting events, and family favorites such as the Harlem Globetrotters, Stars on Ice, and Disney on Ice. Throughout the years, capacity crowds have filled Honda Center for world-class acts, including performances by Elton John, Justin Timberlake, Journey, P!NK, Jay-Z, Post Malone, Kendrick Lamar, Backstreet Boys, Chris Stapleton, and BTS.

Since 2005, Ducks owners Henry and Susan Samueli have invested millions of dollars into facility upgrades to continually enhance the guest experience, including Honda Center's Brewery X Biergarten, the most extensive upgrade in venue history featuring a 15,000-square-foot indoor-outdoor entertainment space. Honda Center also added a new 6,000-square-foot Team Store in 2013, Cisco's StadiumVision platform throughout the arena with more than 500 HD monitors, and a new score-board in the fall of 2015 measuring 27 feet tall and 47 feet 10 inches wide. In 2020, a 19,570-square-foot state-of-the-art Ducks locker room was debuted. Prior to the start of the 2022-23 season, the arena completed the replacement of the in-bowl seating. Debuting for this hockey season is the Impact Club. This new 6,550-square-foot restaurant and lounge brings hockey fans closer to the team with their members-only hockey membership.

The arena has three levels of seating. Closest to the arena floor is the Plaza Level with 5,200 seats and 40 luxury suites. Just 21 rows above the ice, the exclusive Pacific Premier Bank Club Level is accessible only to Premium Seat Holders. It contains 1,750 seats, 44 luxury suites, Brewery X Biergarten, and the Jack Daniel's Old No. 7 Club. The third level, the Terrace Level, has 9,200 easily accessible seats.

The arena is located in Orange County, east of the 57 freeway on Katella Avenue. Five major freeways (57, 22, 5, 91, 55) are conveniently located within a five-mile radius of the facility.

THE RINKS

The Rinks Development Program consists of nine local hockey and skating facilities throughout Southern California, offering a variety of hockey, skating and community programs for participants of all ages and ability levels. The Rinks include six ice rinks (Great Park Ice and FivePoint Arena, The Rinks – Anaheim ICE, The Rinks – KHS ICE, The Rinks – Lakewood ICE, The Rinks - Poway ICE, The Rinks – Westminster ICE, The Rinks – Yorba Linda ICE), as well as two inline facilities (The Rinks – Corona Inline and The Rinks – Irvine Inline).

Launched Feb. 13, 2009, The Rinks offer a variety of hockey and skating programs for participants of all ages and ability levels, and are home to thousands of youth and adult hockey players as well as recreational skaters to competitive Olympic figure skaters. The eight facilities combined welcome more than two million participants and visitors annually.

Programs include daily public ice skating and roller skating sessions, youth and adult hockey programs and leagues, figure skating, Learn to Skate and Learn to Play programs, curling, birthdays, group events, and other local corporate and community events.

The Rinks have been the official practice facility of the Anaheim Ducks for 28 years, with Great Park Ice now serving as the team's practice facility.

Home to the Jr. Ducks and Lady Ducks, San Diego Jr. Gulls and Lady Gulls, and the Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League (ADHSHL), The Rinks have helped lead California to the fastest rate of youth hockey growth (40%) in the U.S. since 2015, while developing top hockey players and figure skaters. With the addition of The Rinks - KHS ICE, the Jr. Ice Dogs program, consisting of seven youth hockey teams from ages 8-18.

Athletes from The Rinks have become top NHL draft selections, Team USA Olympic Figure Skating gold medalists, USA Hockey Women's World Championship gold medalists, NCAA Women's Champions, USA Hockey Varsity High School hockey champions, (2013, 2018, 2019), U.S. Figure Skating Champions, Professional Skaters Association Hall of Fame coach and Coach of the Year.

The Ducks 'Learn to Play' program began at The Rinks in Orange County in 2011 with 330 skaters and has now grown to more than 4,600 annual participants (including expansion into San Diego in 2017). Since the program's debut, over 18,000 skaters have been introduced to the sport of hockey (13,500 youth/4,5000 adults).

In 2016, USA Hockey recognized The Rinks, Jr. Ducks and Lady Ducks as Model Club Associations dedicated to age-appropriate, age-specific skill development, in accordance with USA Hockey's American Development Model. It marked the first time USA Hockey has honored three programs within an organization, while the program became only the 21st in the nation to be honored as a Model Club.

Great Park Ice is a state-of-the-art public ice facility at the Great Park in Irvine, Calif. Opened Mar. 7, 2019 and located in the Orange County Great Park, the 280,000-square-foot facility is the largest in California and one of the nation's most expansive ice facilities.

The $115-million Great Park Ice facility welcomes one million participants and visitors annually. Financially supported by the Samueli Foundation with zero taxpayer dollars, the facility includes four sheets of ice along with a 7,000-square-foot dryland training center, including FivePoint Arena which features seating for 2,500 spectators and a video board above center ice.

Great Park Ice is home to a 20,000-square-foot practice facility for the Anaheim Ducks, where the club also hosts its annual training camp and prospect development camp. The facility is also home of the Jr. Ducks and Lady Ducks programs, and serves as a training facility for U.S. Figure Skating. Great Park Ice hosts youth and adult hockey programs, regional and national tournaments, Learn to Skate and Learn to Play programs, sled hockey, figure skating, speed skating, curling, broomball, public recreational skating, the Top Flight program designed for participants with special needs, the Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League and other local corporate and community events.

FivePoint Arena was the home of San Diego Gulls during the 2020-21 American Hockey League (AHL) season during the COVID-19 pandemic, hosting 22 games. The facility also hosted the AHL's 2021 Play-In Round of the Pacific Division playoff tournament, hosting three contests of a single-elimination play-in tournament.

The Anaheim Ducks hosted their first-ever Rookie Faceoff tournament at Great Park Ice, Sept. 7-10, 2019, a six-team rookie tournament featuring nine total games. The Rookie Faceoff featured the Ducks, Los Angeles Kings, Vegas Golden Knights, Arizona Coyotes, San Jose Sharks and Colorado Avalanche. Great Park Ice also hosted the SoCal Clash series between the Harvard Crimson and Arizona State University Sun Devils, Dec. 28-29, 2019, marking the first NCAA Division I games in California since 1999.

Additional elements for the state-of-the-art complex include administrative offices, 24 locker rooms, a full-service sports-themed restaurant overlooking two sheets of ice, one concessions stand, an 800-square-foot Team Store, a 1,900-square-foot Pro Shop and over 1,000 free parking spots available. In addition, the facility is LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Silver certified as part of the NHL Green initiative.

All proceeds generated from the Great Park complex go to further the growth of ice sports and activities locally.

How It All Began

On Oct. 2, 1992, Walt Disney Pictures released the hit movie "The Mighty Ducks" and created a new wave of excitement among the nation's youth and the ice hockey community. Starring Emilio Estevez and a band of kids who learn to play and win as a team, "The Mighty Ducks" grossed $51 million at the box office and served as the inspiration for the name of the Walt Disney Company's NHL club.

The original official team colors and logo were unveiled June 7, 1993, and Mighty Ducks merchandise immediately propelled into one of the top sellers in all of professional sports.

Purple, jade, silver and white were chosen as the team's colors while an attractive crest featuring a duck head-shaped hockey mask was chosen to give the club its own unique identity. As a testament to the logo's popularity, the original Ducks jersey was named the "most fashionable" uniform in all of sports at the inaugural ESPY Awards in 1997.

A New Look Unveiled

In the spring of 2005, Henry and Susan Samueli entered into an agreement with the Walt Disney Company to purchase the Ducks franchise. In the Samueli's first year of ownership, the Ducks set then-franchise records for overall wins (43) and standings points (98).

On June 22, 2006, a new era began for the franchise as the team became officially known as the Anaheim Ducks. In addition, a new logo and color scheme was unveiled. The new look and identity of the Ducks were a collaborative effort, mixing opinions of fans as well as Ducks players, ownership and management. All parties involved unanimously decided to go beyond simply altering the original concept of an aggressive duck character.

In shaping the design, the focus was sharpened to create an overall image that expressed excitement, speed and a competitive edge. In addition, a classic color palette of black and metallic gold was developed, with an accent of orange as a metaphorical link to the team's Orange County home.

The result was a strong, typographic mark anchored by a stylized "D" that echoed the image of a duck's foot or footprint. The custom typography had a powerful forward momentum and was made up of metallic gold letters with orange drop-shadows and a black holding shape. The uniforms were an evolution of the earlier sweater design but with gold, white and orange sweeping stripes influenced by the curves of the "D" in the Ducks logo. Set with a new look for the 2006-07 season, the Ducks made history and won the Stanley Cup.

Third Jerseys

Entering the 2020-21 season, the Ducks had appeared in six third jerseys (each pictured), beginning with a cartoon Duck breaking through a sheet of ice. The club moved to a more classic approach with its next two sweaters, using black with dark plum, silver and white accenting as its color palate for the alternate jersey worn during the 2003-04 and 2005-06 seasons.

The fourth third jersey debuted on Nov. 26, 2010. A black sweater with orange sleeves and side panels, it featured the "D" foot placed prominently on the chest. The shoulder patch integrated the original Mighty Ducks logo into a new oval mark, linking the team's past and present.

The fifth alternate jersey made its initial appearance on Oct. 16, 2015 and featured the original Mighty Ducks logo set on an orange colored jersey accented with gold, black and white trim. In a reversal of logos, the primary webbed "D" was displayed as a patch on both shoulders to represent the current Ducks team. The jersey was reintroduced on Oct. 5, 2019 following appearances from 2015-17.

Anaheim's third jersey in 2018-19 featured the original Mighty Ducks crest with eggplant and jade striping from the Ducks iconic look of the team's inaugural 1993-94 season. The sweater incorporated orange in the crossed hockey sticks of the team's original mark and featured silver as a primary accent color, paying tribute to the team's 25th anniversary season in 2018-19.

In 2020-21, the seventh alternate jersey will make its debut as part of the adidas and the NHL's Reverse Retro collection. Anchored in white with eggplant and jade stripping, the Ducks Reverse Retro jersey features the design from the team's iconic "Breakout" Jersey worn during the 1995-96 season. The Reverse Retro collection will return for the 2022-23.

Stadium Series

The Anaheim Ducks and Los Angeles Kings wore specially designed jerseys and uniforms for the 2014 Coors Light NHL Stadium Series™ contest at Dodger Stadium on Jan. 25, 2014. Anaheim's jersey featured a chrome-treated "D" logo, unique to the 2014 Coors Light NHL Stadium Series™ contest and inspired from the chrome details in the NHL shield. The Ducks Stadium Series jersey was orange, currently an accent color in the club's primary logo.

Anaheim's orange jersey for the game included enlarged player numbers for improved visibility in an outdoor venue, as well as a shoulder logo to signify the geographic rivalry between the Ducks and Kings. An interlocked "OC" logo appeared on the left shoulder of the Ducks' Stadium Series jersey. The NHL Stadium Series jersey was designed with creative input from the Ducks, Reebok and the NHL.

From Third to Primary

Beginning with the 2014-15 season, the club's 2010-14 third jersey was transformed into the new primary sweater. A white "road" version of the jersey was added. Both versions of the jersey now incorporate white laces and permanent integration with the "D" on both sweaters.

AGE: 21; turns 22 on March 20, 2023

BORN: March 20, 2001; Bedford, New York

DRAFTED: By Anaheim in the first round (ninth overall) of the 2019 NHL Draft

CONTRACT: Signed a three-year entry-level contract through 2022-23, Mar. 27, 2020

2021-22:

- In his second season with Anaheim, scored 23-38=61 points with 50 PIM in 75 games…led all NHL rookies in points per game (.81, min. 40 points), PPG (9), co-led in GWG (5)…ranked second in points, tied for second in goals and third in assists…led all NHL skaters with six shootout goals.
- Set Anaheim's all-time rookie scoring record with 61 points, surpassing Bobby Ryan's 31-26=57 points in 2008-09…his 38 assists are the most by a Ducks rookie, surpassing Cam Fowler's 30 in 2010-11….also became Anaheim's all-time rookie scorer with 26-48=74 career points.
- At 21 years and 41 days, became the youngest player in Ducks history to lead the club in assists…became the third Ducks rookie, first in 14 seasons, to score 20 goals in a single season (Bobby Ryan, 31 in 2008-09 and Dustin Penner, 29 in 2006-07).
- Became one of 15 NHL rookies the last 10 seasons (since 2012-13) to record 60 or more points, and the third American to do so (also Auston Matthews and Clayton Keller).
- Scored 12 go-ahead goals, five more than any other rookie (Tanner Jeannot, 7)…since 2005-06 (17 seasons), only eight other NHL rookies have scored more go-ahead goals: Alex Ovechkin (22 in 2005-06), Sidney Crosby (14 in 2005-06), Petr Prucha (14 in 2005-06), Evgeni Malkin (14 in 2005-06), Logan Couture (13 in 2010-11), Mark Stone (13 in 2014-15), Anders Lee (13 in 2014-15) and Matthews (20 in 2016-17).
- Led all rookies with 19 multi-point games, becoming only the eighth rookie to do so since 2005, joining Ovechkin, Crosby, Malkin, Artemi Panarin, Mathew Barzal, Patrik Laine and Paul Stastny. His 19 multi-point games are five more than any other rookie this season (Bunting, 14).
- Became the first Ducks rookie to record eight assists in a five-game stretch as part of a career-tying four-game point streak, Dec. 1-7 (0-8=8)…he also recorded multiple assists in three straight games, Dec. 6 @ WSH (2), Dec. 3 vs. CGY (2) and Dec. 1 vs. VGK (3), the fourth rookie in the last 25 years to record multiple assists in three straight games (0-7=7)…he joined M. Barzal (7 in 3 GP, 2017-18), A. Panarin (7 in 3 GP, 2015-16) and P. Kane (6 in 3 GP, 2007-08).
- Was named the NHL's Rookie of the Month for December, leading all rookies in scoring (2-9=11) and assists in nine games…is the third Duck to be named Rookie of the Month, joining John Gibson (December 2015) and Bobby Ryan (January 2009).

CAREER:

- In his rookie season in 2020-21, led Ducks rookies in scoring (3-10=13) and assists, and co-led in goals in 24 games.
- Scored his first career NHL goal (Adin Hill), Mar. 18 vs. ARI, becoming the third-youngest U.S.-born player at 19 years, 363 days to score a goal for Anaheim…recorded his first NHL point (assist), Mar. 3 vs. STL.
- Made his NHL debut at 19 years, 339 days, becoming the third-youngest U.S.-born player and eighth-youngest forward to appear in a game with Anaheim, Feb. 22 @ ARI.

- In 2020-21, scored 10-11=21 points with a +7 rating and 12 PIM…led San Diego in points per game (1.24) while ranking tied for second among club rookies in scoring and goals…among AHL leaders, ranked seventh in points per game while third among rookies (min. 10 games).
- Had 11-25=36 points with a +8 rating in 33 games in his freshman season at Boston University in 2019-20…ranked second on the Terriers in assists and third in points and plus/minus…also ranked tied for second among NCAA freshmen in assists and tied for third in points and points per-game (1.09).
- Was named to the 2019-20 Hockey East All-Rookie Team, named a Hockey East Third Team All-Star and was a finalist for Hockey East Rookie of the Year.
- Recorded 46-100=146 points in 116 career games with the USNTDP U-17 and U-18 teams…finished fourth in NTDP history in career assists, and sixth for assists in a single-season (61 in 2018-19)…is one of four players in program history to record 100 assists…had 26-61=87 points in 60 games with the NTDP club in 2018-19…ranked second among team leaders in assists, behind only Jack Hughes (78).
- Has represented the U.S. at several international tournaments, including two World Junior Championships (2020 and 2021), the 2019 U-18 World Championship (winning bronze) and a 2017 U-17 World Hockey Challenge (gold).
- Led Team USA to a gold medal at the 2021 World Junior Championship, scoring 7-11=18 points in seven tournament games…was named the tournament MVP, the fifth American and second Ducks prospect to earn the award (John Gibson, 2013).
- Tied the all-time Team USA WJC record for both points and assists (7-20=27), matching both marks held by Jordan Schroeder, who did so over three tournaments and 19 games (Zegras completed his second tournament, 12 career games)…finished his WJC career with the second-highest points-per-game total in U.S. history with 2.25 points per game (Doug Weight, 2.71 per game) and second in all-time assists with 1.67 per game (Weight, 2.0 per game).
- Became only the second player since 2004 to record nine primary assists in a single WJC (2020)…his nine assists (0-9=9) led the 2020 tournament and also ranked tied for the fourth-most by a U.S. player in a single WJC…became only the third U.S. player to have four primary assists in a WJC game since 2005 (Phil Kessel, Dec. 26, 2005 vs. Norway and Jason Robertson, Dec. 28, 2018 vs. Kazakhstan, Dec. 27, 2019 vs. Germany).

San Diego Gulls History

On Jan. 29, 2015, the Anaheim Ducks announced that the National Hockey League (NHL) club would purchase the Norfolk Admirals American Hockey League (AHL) franchise and relocate it from Norfolk, Va., to San Diego. The Ducks joined affiliates from the Los Angeles Kings (Ontario, Calif.), San Jose Sharks (San Jose, Calif.), Calgary Flames (Stockton, Calif.) and Edmonton Oilers (Bakersfield, Calif.) in the newly created AHL Pacific Division.

The official logo and team colors of blue, orange and black were unveiled at a free event Feb. 22, 2015. More than 8,500 eager hockey fans waited in a line, wrapping around Pechanga Arena San Diego for the opportunity to be a part of hockey's return to San Diego. Dallas Eakins was named the first Head Coach of the Gulls June 26, 2015.

The San Diego Gulls took the ice Oct. 10, 2015 to open their inaugural AHL season in front of a sellout crowd of 12,920 at Pechanga Arena San Diego. Nick Ritchie, selected by Anaheim in the first round (10th overall) of the 2014 NHL Draft, scored the first AHL goal in Gulls history en route to a 4-2 victory over the Grand Rapids Griffins.

In seven AHL seasons, San Diego has posted a record of 238-164-26-15, including 128-73-13-5 at home and 110-90-13-8 on the road, leading the Pacific Division in all-time wins, points (515) and points percentage (.584%, min. three seasons) since the division's inception in 2015-16. The Gulls are the only Pacific Division club to finish among the top four teams in the division in five of the division's seven AHL seasons.

San Diego is tied for the most playoff series among Pacific Division clubs since its inception in 2015 (4, also Bakersfield), surpassing the three by Texas and Ontario. San Diego also leads the Pacific Division with 18 all-time playoff wins. The Gulls (three times), Toronto Marlies (four times), Charlotte Checkers (three times), Chicago Wolves (three times) and Hershey Bears (three times) are the only AHL teams to advance to the Division Finals on three-or-more occasions since the inception of the current division format in 2015. San Diego was the first team

(also Bakersfield and Ontario) in the Pacific Division to advance beyond the First Round on multiple occasions.

San Diego concluded the inaugural 2015-16 regular season with a record of 39-23-4-2, earning second place in the Pacific Division and fifth in the Western Conference. The Gulls made their first appearance in the Calder Cup Playoffs Apr. 21, 2016 at the Texas Stars and won their first-ever playoff series (3-1) vs. Texas. The Gulls advanced to the Pacific Division Finals, eventually falling to the Ontario Reign in five games (4-1). In the inaugural season, San Diego ranked second among league leaders in average attendance (8,675), bringing nearly 300,000 fans to watch Gulls hockey at Pechanga Arena San Diego.

Following the 2016-17 season which saw the Gulls advance to the Pacific Division Finals after a 43-20-3-2 record in the regular season, San Diego was recognized as winners of the President's Award as the AHL Team of the Year, given to an AHL organization for overall excellence as voted on by all AHL team presidents.

One of the highlights of 2016-17 was the introduction of Gulls hockey to the masses, as the club televised its first AHL game Feb. 12, 2017 (a 4-0 win vs. Bakersfield), the highest level of San Diego hockey broadcast in the region on FOX 5 San Diego. The televised game was also the first TV broadcast by a club in the newly-created AHL Pacific Division.

San Diego finished its 2017-18 season with a 36-28-3-1 record and 76 points, tied for fourth in the Pacific Division. Off the ice, the Gulls led the AHL in attendance in 2017-18 (9,305 avg.), setting new club marks for a third consecutive season in average and overall attendance (316,368), in addition to a franchise record six sellouts. San Diego became the first team in 12 seasons to usurp the Hershey Bears atop the league's attendance charts. For a third consecutive season, San Diego was named the AHL's ticket sales department of the year.

The Gulls finished their fourth season in the AHL's Pacific Division with a 36-24-5-3 record for 80 points and third place in the division in 2018-19. San Diego led the AHL in attendance for the second straight season (9,021 avg. per game). The 2019 postseason marked San Diego's third appearance in the Calder Cup Playoffs. San Diego advanced to the Western Conference Finals for the first time in club history after eliminating the top seed in the Western Conference (Bakersfield) in six games. The Gulls also defeated San Jose in four games (3-1) in the First Round.

On July 15, 2019, Kevin Dineen was named the second Head Coach in Gulls franchise history after Eakins was named the 10th head coach in Anaheim Ducks history June 17, 2019. Dineen rejoined the Anaheim organization after coaching the club's primary development affiliate from 2005-08 in Portland, Maine (Portland Pirates, AHL).

The Gulls completed their fifth season in the AHL's Pacific Division with a 30-19-6-2 record in 57 games, with the May 11 cancellation of the 2019-20 regular season and 2020 Calder Cup Playoffs due to the COVID-19 outbreak.

San Diego finished their 2020-21 season with a 26-24-0-1 record for 53 points, ranking third in the Pacific Division, during a season that restricted the American Hockey League to interdivision play during the COVID-19 pandemic shortened. The Gulls earned a berth into the Pacific Division Playoffs, the only division in the AHL to hold a postseason format to determine a division champion, where San Diego fell to the Bakersfield Condors in three games in the opening round three-game series.

With a 15-6-1-0 record on home ice, the Gulls paced the AHL in home wins, home points (31) and goals scored at home (82). San Diego led the AHL in total goals scored (153) and total power-play goals (35). Gulls right wing Andrew Poturalski won the John B. Sollenberger trophy as the American Hockey League's top point-getter (9-34=43) becoming the first player in San Diego Gulls history to win an AHL season award and is the first Anaheim Ducks prospect to win the AHL scoring title.

On July 9, 2021, Joel Bouchard was named the third Head Coach in Gulls franchise history. Bouchard spent the previous three seasons as the head coach of the Montreal Canadiens' primary development affiliate in Laval where he guided the club to an 83-67-14-10 record, including a 23-9-3-1 record in 2020-21 to win the Frank S. Mathers Trophy as winners of the Canadian Division while posting the second-highest points percentage in the AHL (.694).

The Gulls concluded their 2021-22 season with a 28-33-4-3 record for 63 points, ranking seventh in the Pacific Division to earn their fifth appearance in the AHL Postseason, and mark the fifth time in the last six AHL postseasons since the Pacific Division's inception (the 2020 Calder Cup Playoffs were canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic). San Diego met the Ontario Reign in the first round of the Calder Cup Playoffs, falling in two games in the opening round three-game series. The season also brought the return of hockey to Pechanga Arena San Diego following the COVID-19 pandemic shortened season the previous year that saw the Gulls temporarily move operations to FivePoint Arena at Great Park Ice in Irvine, Calif. San Diego ranked fourth in AHL attendance and second in the Western Conference (6,992 avg. per game) in the league's return to full capacity arenas.

On May 3, 2022, the Anaheim Ducks named Rob DiMaio Assistant General Manager, who also serves as General Manager of the San Diego Gulls. DiMaio has spent 33 seasons in the NHL, 14 as an executive and 19 as a player. He spent the previous 13 seasons with the St. Louis Blues, most recently as Director of Player Personnel (2015-22). He also served as Director of Pro Scouting (2012-15) and a Professional Scout (2008-12) and played a key role in helping build the roster for the Blues Stanley Cup championship in 2019.

On July 12, 2022, DiMaio introduced Roy Sommer as the fourth Head Coach in Gulls franchise history. Sommer joins the Gulls as the AHL's all-time leader in wins (808) and games coached (1,736) after spending the last 26 consecutive seasons as a coach in the San Jose Sharks organization.

BOB FERGUSON

Assistant General Manager

Bob Ferguson enters his 15th season with the Anaheim Ducks organization and eighth in the San Diego Gulls Hockey Operations department. Ferguson is a hockey lifer, having been involved in either professional or amateur hockey for the past 42 years, either as a player, coach or member of a front office.

In his seven seasons with the Gulls, Ferguson helped build teams that have a combined 238-164-26-15 record to lead the Pacific Division in all-time wins, points (515) and points percentage (.584%, min. three seasons) since the division's inception in 2015. The Gulls are the only Pacific Division club to finish among the top four teams in five of the division's seven AHL seasons. Ferguson has also led San Diego to four Calder Cup Playoffs appearances, including the club's first appearance in the Western Conference Finals in 2019.

The Gulls (three times), Toronto Marlies (four times), Charlotte Checkers (three times), Chicago Wolves (three times) and Hershey Bears (three times) are the only AHL teams to advance to the Division Finals on three-or-more occasions since the inception of the current division format in 2015. Under Ferguson, San Diego owns the most playoff wins (18) and is tied for the most series wins (4) among Pacific Division teams.

Under Ferguson, San Diego completed the 2021-22 season with a 28-33-4-3 record for 63 points and finished seventh in the Pacific Division, earning the club's fourth Calder Cup Playoffs berth. In 2020-21, San Diego finished with a 26-17-1-0 record for 53 points and finished third in the Pacific Division based on points percentage (.602%), earning a spot in the Pacific Division Playoffs. In 2019-20, the Gulls posted a 30-19-6-2 record for 68 points and tied for third in the Pacific Division, sixth in the Western Conference, before the COVID-19 pandemic ended the season in March. The 2018-19 club compiled a 36-24-5-3 record for 80 points and third in the Pacific Division, while also representing the division in the Western Conference Finals for the first time. San Diego defeated San Jose (four games) and Bakersfield (six games), before falling to Chicago in six games.

The 2016-17 club went 43-20-3-2 for 91 points, second in the Western Conference and third in the AHL, while defeating Ontario in the first round of the postseason before falling in the Pacific Division Finals to San Jose (five games). The Gulls were named winners of the 2016-17 President's Award as the AHL Team of the Year, given to an AHL organization for overall excellence as voted on by AHL team presidents. In the club's inaugural season in 2015-16, the team finished with a 39-23-4-2 record for 84 points, earning second place in the Pacific Division and the club's first berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs. Under Ferguson's guidance, San Diego won its first-ever playoff series over the Texas Stars, 3-1, prior to falling to Ontario in the second round (five games).

Ferguson was the Assistant General Manager of the Norfolk Admirals for the previous three seasons (2012-2015) and prior to that manned the same position for the Ducks' prior AHL affiliates, the Syracuse Crunch (2010-12) and Iowa Chops (2008-09). He also spent one season as a college/amateur scout for the Ducks in 2009-10.

Before joining the Ducks organization, Ferguson spent 26 seasons on the bench as a head coach in the professional and junior ranks. He had head coaching stints with Augusta (ECHL, 2005-08), Florida (ECHL, 1998-2001) and Indianapolis (IHL, 1995-98). In his nine seasons as a professional head coach, Ferguson's teams never missed the playoffs. He is a two-time John Brophy Award winner as ECHL Coach of the Year, winning the honor in consecutive seasons with the Florida Everblades in 1998-99 and 1999-2000.

A native of Kingston, Ontario, Ferguson's illustrious 17-year career as a head coach in the United States Hockey League (USHL) with Sioux City (1981-90) and Des Moines (1990-95, 2001-04) garnered 517 career wins, the third-most in league history. Ferguson guided Sioux City to a pair of Clark Cup championships and won three Clark Cups with Des Moines. He is a three-time Gold Cup winner (U.S. Junior 'A' National Champion), five-time USHL Coach of the Year and five-time USHL General Manager of the Year.

Bob and his wife, Lisa, have two children: Brett and Kaylee. Brett and his wife, Amanda, have the family's three grandchildren: Caleb, Aidan and Reid. The family resides in San Diego.

ROY SOMMER

Head Coach, San Diego Gulls

Roy Sommer enters his first season as head coach of the San Diego Gulls, becoming the fourth head coach in Gulls AHL history.

Named to his current position on July 12, 2022, Sommer joins the Gulls as the AHL's all-time leader in wins (808) and games coached (1,742) after spending the last 26 consecutive seasons as a coach in the San Jose Sharks organization. Sommer collected an 808-721-48-168 (W-L-T-OTL/SOL) record as head coach with San Jose's primary affiliates in Kentucky (1998-01), Cleveland (2001-06), Worcester (2006-15) and San Jose (2015-22). He served as associate coach for the Sharks for part of the 2019-20 NHL season, before rejoining the Barracuda as head coach prior to the 2020-21 AHL season. He was also an assistant coach with the Sharks from 1996-98.

A native of Oakland, Calif., Sommer helped guide the Barracuda to five Calder Cup Playoff appearances in seven seasons following the AHL Pacific Division's creation in 2015. He was named the AHL Coach of the Year in 2016-17 (A.R. Pieri Memorial Award) after leading the Barracuda to a 43-16-9 record and an appearance in the Western Conference Final. Throughout his coaching career, Sommer helped develop more than 150 players from the AHL to the NHL, including Joe Pavelski, Logan Couture, Tomas Hertl, Timo Meier, Dan Boyle, Mikka Kiprusoff, Evgeni Nabokov and Jonathan Cheechoo.

As a head coach in the ECHL, Sommer compiled a 176-124-34 record in five seasons. He led the Richmond Renegades to a Kelly Cup Championship in 1995 and was named the ECHL Coach of the Year (John Brophy Award) in 1995-96 after leading the club to the top record (46-11-13) and a league-record 105 points.

Selected by Toronto in the sixth round (101st overall) of the 1977 NHL Draft, Sommer appeared in 741 professional games in the NHL, AHL, International Hockey League, Central Hockey League and West Coast Hockey League. He scored a goal in his NHL debut with Edmonton as a teammate of Wayne Gretzky in 1981. Sommer won a Calder Cup championship with the Maine Mariners in 1984 and helped lead Muskegon to an IHL Turner Cup championship in 1985-86. He also represented Team USA at the World Junior Championships in 1976-77 while playing junior hockey for the Calgary Centennials of the Western Canada Hockey League (WCHL). He helped the Spruce Grove Mets to a Centennial Cup as Alberta Junior Hockey League (AJHL) champions in 1975.

JILLIAN REDDIN

Director, Hockey Operations

Jillian Reddin, daughter of Susan and Henry Samueli, enters her 14th season with the Anaheim Ducks organization, her eighth with the San Diego Gulls. Primarily responsible for player contracts, transactions, immigration, travel and the Collective Bargaining Agreement, Reddin regularly coordinates with the Anaheim Ducks Hockey Operations department. She is also an Alternate Governor for the AHL Board of Governors.

Reddin previously spent three seasons in the same role with the Norfolk Admirals (2012-14) and two with the Syracuse Crunch (2010-12). Prior to her stint with Anaheim's AHL affiliates, Reddin spent a year in the Ducks front office.

A native of Newport Beach, Calif., Reddin received a degree in Merchandise Marketing from the Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandising (Los Angeles).

Jillian and her husband, Colin, reside in Encinitas.

JASON CLARKE

Assistant Coach

Jason Clarke enters his first season as Assistant Coach for the Gulls. Clarke joins the Anaheim Ducks organization after splitting the 2021-22 season between the Shawinigan Cataractes and Acadie-Bathurst Titan of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League (QMJHL), serving as head coach for the Titan for the majority of the season. Clarke guided Acadie-Bathurst to a 40-22-3-3 record, finishing fourth in the Eastern Conference and third in the Maritimes Division.

A native of Carleton Place, Ontario, Clarke was the head coach and general manager of the Carleton Place Canadians of the Central Canada Hockey League (CCHL) from 2009-21 and led the club to four consecutive Art Bogart Cups as CCHL champions from 2014-2017 and three Fred Page Cups as Canadian Junior Hockey League (CJHL) tournament champions from 2014-16 to earn berths into the Canadian Junior A national championship. He was also named CCHL Coach of the Year three times (2014, 2015, 2020), CCHL General Manager of Year three times (2017, 2018, 2020) and to the CCHL First All-Star Team in 2020.

Clarke began his coaching career as head coach for the Ottawa Jr. Senators for three seasons (2002-05) before joining the Carleton Place Kings of the Eastern Ontario Junior Hockey League (EOJHL) as head coach from 2006-09.

KRIS SPARRE

Assistant Coach

Kris Sparre begins his first season as Assistant Coach for the Gulls. Sparre joins the Anaheim Ducks organization after serving as associate coach for the Flint Firebirds of the Ontario Hockey League (OHL) in 2021-22, helping the club to a franchise best 42-21-1-4 record and their first Western Conference Finals appearance.

Prior to joining Flint, Sparre was an assistant coach for Salzburg of the Champions Hockey League (ICEHL) from 2019-21, assisting the club to a 43-23-11 record and a berth in the ICEHL semifinals in 2021. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach for the OHL's Niagara IceDogs from 2016-19, helping guide the club to postseason appearances in each of his three seasons behind the bench. With Sparre on staff, the IceDogs posted a combined record of 102-75-20-7 and won the Emms Trophy as Central Division champions in 2019.

A native of Mississauga, Ontario, Sparre played nine professional seasons from 2008-16. He earned 32-43=75 points and 187 penalty minutes (PIM) in 257 DEL games with Iserlohn, Ingolstadt, Berlin and Dusseldorfer. Sparre also appeared in 65 ECHL games with the Idaho Steelheads and Columbia Inferno, collecting 17-22=39 points with a +6 rating and 105 PIM.

JEFF GLASS

Goaltending Coach

Jeff Glass enters his first season as Goaltending Coach with the San Diego Gulls. Glass joins the organization after a 17-year professional goaltending career, concluding with a two-year stint with the Gulls.

Glass appeared in 15 NHL contests with the Chicago Blackhawks in 2017-18, going 3-7-3 with a .898 save percentage (SV%) and a 3.36 goals-against average (GAA). He spent parts of nine seasons in the AHL, posting a 78-98-13 record with a 3.26 GAA, .900 SV% and six shutouts in 218 career AHL games with San Diego (2018-19 & 2020-22), Toronto Marlies (2016-17 and 2018-19), Rockford IceHogs (2016-17 & 2017-18) and Binghamton Senators (2005-09).

A native of Calgary, Alberta, Glass also earned a 6-4 record with a 2.43 GAA and .912 SV% in 11 Calder Cup Playoff games with San Diego. During the 2019 Calder Cup Playoffs, Glass stopped a club record 51-of-53 shots to win the longest game in Gulls playoff history and fifth longest in AHL history in Game 1 of the Pacific Division Finals, May 3, 2019 at Bakersfield.

Originally selected by Ottawa in the third round (89th overall) of the 2004 NHL Draft, Glass spent seven seasons internationally in the KHL with Barys Astana (Kazakhstan), Sibir Novosibirsk (Russia), Spartak Moskva (Russia), CSKA Moskva (Russia), Lada Togliatti (Russia) and Dinamo Minsk (Belarus). He posted a record of 81-87-30 with a .916 SV%, 2.64 GAA, and 16 shutouts in 218 career KHL games.

Glass and his wife, Allie, and his daughter, Lucy, reside in San Diego.

LUCAS HURTT

Video Coordinator

Lucas Hurtt begins his first season as Video Coordinator with the San Diego Gulls. Hurtt joins the organization after serving as Assistant Video Coach for the New Jersey Devils for two seasons from 2021-22.

A native of Niagara Falls, N.Y., Hurtt served in various hockey operations roles with Boston College men's ice hockey (Hockey East) from 2015-2020 and helped the Eagles to Hockey East Regular Season Championships in 2018 and 2020. He earned a bachelor's degree in Political Science and English and a master's degree in Sports Administration from Boston College.

Team History

The Tulsa Oilers have existed on and off since 1928, with the first installment of the team playing in the American Hockey Association. The original Oilers played in the state-of-the-art Tulsa Coliseum, ceasing operations in 1942 as a result of World War II.

The second Oilers franchise was the shortest to date, participating in the original USHL from 1945-51.

The team returned in 1964, joining the Central Professional Hockey League, which would later become the CHL – a league owned and operated by the NHL. The Oilers were three-time Adams Cup champions during their time in the CHL, lasting until the league's final season in 1984. Several NHL alumni and five members of the Miracle on Ice team played for the Oilers during this era. Some alumni include John Vanbiesbrouck, Don Cherry, Pat Quinn and Rick Bowness.

Tulsa would be without hockey from 1984 until 1992, when the current iteration of the team was reborn. The Oilers began play in the newly-formed CHL, winning the Ray Miron President's Cup in its first season. The Oilers continued to play in the CHL until the CHL, ECHL merger in 2014. Tulsa won its first Mountain Division Championship in 2018-19, finishing atop the Mountain Division in the regular season and reaching game seven of the ECHL's Western Conference Finals.

The Oilers own an all-time record of 233-203-37-22 in 495 games since joining the ECHL prior to the 2014-15 season. Head coach Rob Murray will enter his fifth season behind the bench in Tulsa with the start of the 2021-22 ECHL campaign.

The Ducks and Tulsa Oilers began a multi-year affiliation agreement beginning in the 2020-21 season.

THE 2021-22 SEASON:

Anaheim completed the 2021-22 season with a 31-37-14 record for 76 points. The Ducks season included an eight-game win streak (Oct. 31-Nov. 16), several landmark moments in his final season from Ryan Getzlaf, a breakout season from Troy Terry (37 goals) and multiple "viral" goals from Trevor Zegras, who set several rookie club records. Anaheim's special teams improved from last season, with the power play climbing 17 places and penalty kill improving to 10th among NHL clubs. The Ducks power play scored 48 goals (48-242, 21.9%), the second-highest mark by the club the last 11 seasons (2015-16, 56 goals and 23.1%).

GETZLAF'S GOODBYE:

Ducks captain Ryan Getzlaf appeared in his final career NHL game on Sunday, April 24 vs. St. Louis. Getzlaf retires as Anaheim's all-time leading scorer in both the regular season (282-737=1,019) and playoffs (37-83=120). He is one of 12 players in NHL history to have captained the same team for 10 years and scored 1,000 career points. He is one of 13 players in hockey history to win two Olympic gold medals and a Stanley Cup championship, and one of 46 NHL players to record 1,000 points with a single franchise (more than 7,400 players have played in the NHL to date). Getzlaf retires ranked in the top 100 on the NHL's all-time points (88th) and assists (49th) lists, and is one of 58 players in NHL history with 700 assists.

TERRY TIME:

Troy Terry set career highs in points (37-30=67), goals, assists, PPG (8) and GWG (7), leading Anaheim in scoring, goals and GWG. He became the fifth Ducks player to score 35 goals in a season, joining Teemu Selanne (five times), Paul Kariya (four times), Corey Perry (three times) and Bobby Ryan (once), and the first since 2013-14 (Perry, 43). He is also the ninth player in Ducks history to record 60 points and ninth to score 30 goals and add 30 assists (last: Rakell, 34-35=69 in 2017-18). He recorded a career-best 16-game point streak from Oct. 18-Nov. 18 (12-10=22), the third longest in Ducks history and the longest since Corey Perry's club record of 19 games in 2009-10 (10-16=26). The point streak was also the third longest in the NHL this season behind Edmonton's Connor McDavid and St. Louis' Robert Thomas (each 17 games).

CALDER CANDIDATE:

Trevor Zegras was named a finalist for the 2021-22 Calder Trophy, awarded "to the player selected as the most proficient in his first year of competition" on May 11. He is the third player in franchise history to be named a Calder Trophy finalist (no Duck has won the trophy), joining Bobby Ryan in 2008-09 (finished second in voting) and Paul Kariya in 1994-95 (finished third in voting). Zegras completed the regular season leading all NHL rookies in points per game (.81, minimum 40 points), power-play goals (9), co-leading in game-winning goals (5), while ranking second in points, tied for second in goals and third in assists. He also led all NHL skaters with six shootout goals. He is one of 15 NHL rookies the last 10 seasons (since 2012-13) to record 60 or more points, and the third American to do so (also Auston Matthews and Clayton Keller). At 21 years and 41 days, Zegras became the youngest player in Anaheim history to lead the club in assists.

VIRAL MOMENTS:

Trevor Zegras scored two lacrosse-style goals, Apr. 1 at Arizona and Jan. 27, 2022 at Montreal, one of two players in NHL history to score two such goals (also Carolina's Andrei Svechnikov: Oct. 29, 2019 vs. Calgary and Dec. 19, 2019 at Colorado). His goal Apr. 1 marked the fifth lacrosse-style goal all-time in the NHL, with Zegras (twice), Svechnikov (twice) and Nashville's Filip Forsberg (Jan. 14, 2020 vs. Columbus) the only three NHL players to pull off "The Michigan" goal. On Dec. 7 at Buffalo, Zegras assisted on Sonny Milano's goal with a lacrosse-style "alley-oop" pass, lifting the puck onto his stick and flipping it over the net, with Milano batting the puck out of mid-air to score. It is one the only instance in NHL history a goal has been scored with a lacrosse-style pass from behind the net. The Zegras- Milano "alley-oop" goal was viewed more than 50 million times over a 48-hour span across various social and digital media platforms from Dec. 7-9.

ROOKIE RECORD SETTER:

Zegras recorded 23-38=61 points in 75 games, setting Ducks single-season rookie records in scoring and assists, surpassing Bobby Ryan (31-26=57 in 2008-09) for points and Cam Fowler (30 assists in 2010-11) in helpers. He is also Anaheim's all-time leading rookie scorer with and 26-48=74 points all-time.

ANAHEIM'S ACQUISITIONS:

The Ducks named Pat Verbeek the sixth General Manager in franchise history on Feb. 3. Prior to the 2022 Trade Deadline, Verbeek made his first transactions leading the club. The Ducks acquired six picks in the first three rounds of the next three NHL Drafts and seven players. Anaheim draft picks include a 2022 first (Boston), 2022 second (Pittsburgh), two 2023 seconds (Boston & Colorado), one 2024 second (Colorado) and a 2023 third (Minnesota). Players joining the Ducks organization are 23-year-old D Urho Vaakanainen, 20-year-old D prospect Drew Helleson, 19-year old G prospect Calle Clang and three NHL veterans: LW Zack Aston-Reese and C Dominik Simon and RW Gerry Mayhew (waivers).

MORE ON GETZLAF:

Getzlaf passed Teemu Selanne for Anaheim's all-time points record with an assist on the GWG Oct. 31 vs. MTL, marking his 989th career point with the Ducks (279-710=989). In 2007, he led the Ducks to their first Stanley Cup in 2007 as the leading scorer during the championship run (7-10=17) while he set a franchise record for the most points in a single postseason in 2015 (2-18=20). Getzlaf led the Ducks in assists for 13 straight seasons (2007-20), one of two players in NHL history to do so with a single club (also Anze Kopitar), and one of four players to lead their respective team in assists for 13 seasons. Getzlaf (13 seasons), Kopitar (14 seasons), Wayne Gretzky (1979-92) and Joe Thornton (2002-16). Getzlaf also led the Ducks in scoring in seven of his 17 seasons, while he recorded 30-or-more assists in 14 seasons. Getzlaf's 1,019 career points have contributed to 43% of Anaheim's all-time 2,343 goals scored in franchise history, while the captain appeared in more than half of the club's 2,191 all-time games (1,158 games by Getzlaf, 53%).

MR. 1,000:

Ryan Getzlaf became the 92nd player all-time to record 1,000 points (280-720=1000) with a primary assist Nov. 16 vs. WSH. At the time of his 1,000th point, he became the 39th player (seventh active) in NHL history to record his first 1,000 points all with the same club and the 45th player all-time to record 1,000 points with a single franchise. Of the 29 retired players to record their first 1,000 points with a single franchise, 26 have been elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame (an additional 11 players, including Getzlaf, are not yet eligible).

ALL-STARS:

John Gibson and Troy Terry represented Anaheim at the 2022 Honda NHL All-Star Weekend in Las Vegas from Feb. 4-5. Gibson and Terry marked the 11th time Anaheim had multiple All-Star representatives. Trevor Zegras was invited by the NHL to participate in the Breakaway Challenge at the NHL All-Star Skills Feb. 4, creating a viral moment as he dressed as a character from Dodgeball the movie and scored a goal while dodging balls thrown by league mascots.

WIN 1,000:

The Ducks won the 1,000th game in franchise history Nov. 16, a 3-2 OT win over Washington at Honda Center. Anaheim's 1,000th win came in the 2,127th game in franchise history, with only five teams in NHL history needing fewer games to reach 1,000 wins: Philadelphia (2,018), Montreal

(2,064), San Jose (2,112), Edmonton (2,115) and Buffalo (2,118).

WWWWWWWWIN STREAK:

Anaheim recorded a season-high best eight straight wins from Oct. 31-Nov. 16, the club's first eight-game win streak since Feb. 13-Mar. 5, 2016 (11-0-0). The win streak was tied for the third-longest in club history (also 8-0-0, Dec. 31, 2013-Jan. 15, 2014). During the win streak, Anaheim outscored opponents 33-14 (4.1 goals per game), leading the NHL in goals (33) and PPG (9-of-29, 31.0%), while killing 15-of-16 penalties (93.8%). John Gibson and Anthony Stolarz combined to post a league-best 1.63 GAA and .945 SV% in the eight games.

FIRST DRAFT:

Jacob Perreault (27th overall in 2020) and Brayden Tracey (29th overall in 2019) made their NHL debuts on back-to-back nights, Jan. 8 vs. NYR and Jan. 9 vs. DET, respectively. Tracey became the fifth Ducks first-round draft selection from the last three drafts (2019, 2020 and 2021) to appear in an NHL game, joining Trevor Zegras (ninth overall in 2019), Jamie Drysdale (sixth overall in 2020), Perreault and Mason McTavish (third overall in 2021). Anaheim led all NHL clubs with five players selected in the first round since 2019 to play in the NHL (NJD, LAK &COL: 3). Each of Anaheim's last 17 first round picks have now made their NHL debut with the club (13 drafts, since 2009). Altogether, seven Ducks made their NHL debuts in 2021-22: Lukas Dostal, Hunter Drew, Bo Groulx, Bryce Kindopp, Mason McTavish, Jacob Perreault and Brayden Tracey.

DYNAMIC DEBUT:

Mason McTavish became the youngest Duck to score a goal at 18 years, 256 days in Anaheim's season opener Oct. 13 vs. WPG, surpassing the previous mark set by Oleg Tverdovsky (18 years, 259 days) on Feb. 1, 1995 at DAL. Among all NHL players, McTavish was the youngest to score in his debut in five years exactly (Patrik Laine of WPG vs. CAR, Oct. 13, 2016) and the seventh youngest in 25 years (Laine, Jesse Puljujarvi, Aleksander Barkov, Rick Nash, Nikita Filatov, Marian Gaborik). In addition, McTavish is the second youngest player to score within 15 minutes of his NHL debut (scored at 13:20 of the first period) in over 25 years (Filatov, Oct. 17, 2008 of CBJ vs. NSH) and the sixth youngest to do so in NHL history. McTavish also added an assist, becoming the sixth player in Ducks history to record multiple points in his NHL debut (last: Jamie Drysdale, Mar. 18, 2020 vs. ARI; 1-1=2).

THE 2020-21 SEASON:

The Ducks concluded the 2020-21 season with a 17-30-9 record and 43 points…the season was condensed to 56 games due to the COVID-19 pandemic, with Anaheim playing in the seven-team West Division (Arizona, Colorado, Los Angeles, Minnesota, San Jose, St. Louis and Vegas).

LEADING THE WAY:

Max Comtois (16-17=33) led Anaheim in scoring and goals, and ranked second in assists...Comtois became the second-youngest player in Ducks history at 21 years and 120 days to lead the team in scoring, behind only Paul Kariya's 18-21=39 points in 1994-95 (20 years, 199 days)….he was also the second-youngest NHL player to lead his team in scoring and goals, behind only Brady Tkachuk in scoring (OTT: 17-19=36) and Joel Farabee in goals (PHI: 20).

ONE-GOAL GAMES:

Anaheim played in a league-high 29 one-goal games (51.8%), Anaheim's highest percentage of one-goal games since and 2016-17 and 2010-11 (53.7%, 44-of-82)…the Ducks tied a club record, playing in eight straight one-goal from Feb. 22-Mar. 8, 2021, matching the previous mark set Feb. 28-Mar. 19, 2009...only St. Louis had a longer streak of nine straight one-goal games in 2020-21 (Feb. 13-Mar. 12)…seventeen of Anaheim's 28 road games in 2020-21 were decided by one goal (60.7%), the most among all NHL clubs...Anaheim also played in a club record seven straight one-goal road games from Feb. 9-Mar. 6, surpassing the prior mark of six set on three prior occasions (last: Mar. 20-Apr. 7,2016).

MILLER'S TIME:

Ryan Miller announced his retirement from the NHL at the conclusion of the 2020-21 season on Apr. 29...he retired as the all-time leader among American-born goaltenders in wins (391), second in shutouts (44) and games played (795), and is one of six goalies in NHL history to win 30 games in seven straight seasons (2006-12)...Miller is the only player in hockey history to be named the top goaltender in the NCAA, American Hockey League, Winter Olympics and the NHL...Miller won the 2010 Vezina Trophy as the NHL's top goaltender, was named the MVP and Best Goaltender in the 2010 Olympics, the 2005 AHL Baz Bastien Memorial Award as the AHL's best goaltender, and the 2001 Hobey Baker Award as the NCAA's top collegiate player...Miller appeared in 18 NHL seasons with Anaheim, Vancouver, St. Louis and Buffalo from 2002-21, posting a 391-289-88 record with a 2.64 GAA and .914 SV% in 796 career NHL games.

MR. 700 AND 1,100:

Ryan Getzlaf recorded his 700th career assist Mar. 18 vs. ARI, becoming the 55th player in NHL history and the fourth active player to record 700 assists, joining Joe Thornton, Sidney Crosby and Nicklas Backstrom...Getzlaf leads Anaheim in career assists (703) and became the first member of the 2003 NHL Draft to reach 700 assists...Getzlaf also became the 14th active player and the first in Ducks history to reach 1,100 career games May 5 @ STL.

TEENAGE DREAM:

Rookies Jamie Drysdale (18 years, 344 days) and Trevor Zegras (19 years, 363 days) scored their first NHL goals 2:29 apart Mar. 18 vs. ARI...the two goals made Drysdale and Zegras the youngest set of teammates in NHL history to each score their first NHL goals less than 2:30 apart...Drysdale and Zegras are the second Ducks teammates 19 or younger to score in the same game, joining Oleg Tverdovsky (19) and Chad Kilger (18) Nov. 5, 1995 vs. NJD...Drysdale's goal came in his NHL debut, and he added an assist on Zegras' goal to become the third defensemen in NHL history to record multiple points in his NHL debut at age 18-or-younger (Petr Svoboda, MTL; Oct. 11, 1984 @ BUF & Ray Bourque, BOS; Oct. 11, 1979 @ WPG)…Drysdale's goal marked only the fourth time in NHL history an 18-year-old scored a goal in his NHL debut (Bourque in the aforementioned game, Scott Stevens, WSH; Oct. 6, 1982 @ NYR & Jason Doig, WPG; Oct. 7, 1995 vs. DAL)…at 18 years, 344 days, Drysdale became the youngest Ducks player in 25 years and the second-youngest player in franchise history to score a goal in his NHL debut (Chad Kilger, Oct. 9, 1995 @ WPG; 18 years, 316 days).

THE 2018-19 SEASON:

The Ducks concluded the 2019-20 season with a 29-33-9 record and 67 points. Anaheim had played 71 games until the regular season was paused Mar. 12 and eventually deemed completed May 26 due to the COVID-19 pandemic… going into Mar. 12, the Ducks had won three of their last five games and earned points in four of those contests (3-1-1, 7 pts).

TEAM LEADERS:

Adam Henrique led the club in points (26-17=43) and goals for the first time since joining the Ducks… Henrique's 26 goals marked his fifth 20-goal season and fell just four shy of his career high…Ryan Getzlaf paced the Ducks with 29 assists in a season he became the club's all-time leader in games played, the first player to appear in 1,000 games with Ducks and the NHL's all-time leader in overtime assists (24).

FINAL GAME POSTPONED GAME:

Anaheim's final game of the shortened season also represented the continuation of the postponed contest between the Blues and Ducks, originally set for Feb. 11 but rescheduled by the NHL due to a medical emergency that occurred at 12:10 of the first period involving defenseman Jay Bouwmeester…the contest followed the same 60-minute format of regular-season games and began with the score tied, 1-1, as it was at the time of the postponement…Adam Henrique (Anaheim) and Ivan Barbashev (St. Louis) provided the original goals, which carried over to the Mar. 11 rescheduled date..

FRANCHISE BEST:

Ryan Getzlaf became the franchise's all-time leader in games played Oct. 11 @ CBJ, surpassing Corey Perry (988) with his 989th career appearance…Getzlaf also became the first player in club history to play 1,000 games with Anaheim on Nov. 3 vs. CHI (see note below)…of his 1,053 career games, Getzlaf has served 700 of those as Anaheim's captain, the most in franchise history… he also passed Henrik Sedin (23) for the NHL's all-time lead in overtime assists following a 4-3 OT victory Feb. 25 vs. EDM.

CAPTAIN 1,000:

Ducks captain Ryan Getzlaf became the first Duck in franchise history to reach 1,000 games Nov. 3 vs. CHI… Getzlaf became the sixth NHL player in the last 40 NHL seasons to play their first 1,000 games with one franchise and win 548 (or more) of them (now at 568-362-127)…Getzlaf also became the eighth active player to appear in his first 1,000 career games with the same team, and the 53rd all-time (19th as a center)… with his appearance Nov. 3, Getzlaf was the 20th active skater and the 336th player in NHL history to reach the milestone…he also was the 12th player all-time to appear in his 1,000th game while a member of the Ducks.

TEAM 1,000:

& 2,000 The Ducks played their 1,000th all-time regular-season game in Anaheim Nov. 14 vs. San Jose at Honda Center…after the NHL awarded Anaheim and the Walt Disney Company a franchise on Dec. 10, 1992, the Ducks have posted a 547-341-136 all-time record (excluding "home" neutral site games)…the Ducks played their 2,000th game in franchise history Nov. 3 vs. Chicago, a 3-2 overtime loss.

LEADERBOARD CHECK:

Cam Fowler surpassed Scott Niedermayer for the franchise's all-time lead among defensemen in several categories during 2019-20…Fowler scored his 61st career goal Oct. 29 vs. WPG to become the club's all-time leader in goals by a defenseman…he started the season Oct. 3 vs. ARI by assuming the all-time franchise lead in GWG by a defenseman with his 14th game winner in a 2-1 victory…Fowler quickly followed up by becoming the first Anaheim defenseman to reach 1,000 career shots, Oct. 11 @ CBJ…he also earned his 300th career NHL point Feb. 7 @ TOR to become the first Ducks blueliner to reach the milestone.

IN NET:

John Gibson wrapped up the season tied for the 10th-highest career SV% (.918) among all-time NHL goaltenders with at least 200 games played…Gibson also finished 2019-20 tied for fifth among active goaltenders.

MILLER'S MOVES:

Ryan Miller earned his 386th career NHL win and surpassed Mike Vernon (385) for sole possession of 15th place on the NHL's all-time wins list in a 4-3 overtime win Mar. 4 @ COL…Mar. 6 vs. Toronto, Miller moved past Tom Barrasso (777) for sole possession of second place on the NHL's all-time games played list for U.S.-born goaltenders and on Feb. 17 in Calgary, Miller made 37 saves to surpass Gilles Meloche (21,138) for sole possession of 13th place on the NHL's all-time saves list.

THE 2018-19 SEASON:

The Ducks finished the season with a 35-37-10 record for 80 points…Anaheim went 5-1-1 in its last seven games, earning points in six of those seven contests (11 pts.)…only Columbus (6-1-0) had a better record in its final seven games of 2018-19…Anaheim also went 11-5-1 for 23 points in its last 17 games, which ranked tied for third among NHL teams in points during that stretch…the Ducks scored 57 goals in those final 17 games (tied for fifth in the NHL) and went 11-for-43 on the PP (25.6%, fourth in NHL).

YOUTHFUL IMPACT:

Young players made an impact at both the start and at the end of the season.

Troy Terry co-led NHL rookies in points (2-8=10) and assists from Mar. 5 until the night he was injured Mar. 29 at Calgary…Terry was named the NHL's Third Star of the Week for the period ending Mar. 10 after collecting 2-5=7 with a +5 rating in four games…Terry finished the week ranked third among NHL leaders in points, tied for third in assists, and tied for second in plus/minus.

Sam Steel led NHL rookies in goals (5-1=6) from the date of his Mar. 26 hat trick through the end of the regular season (see hat trick note below).

Max Comtois became the first Ducks player to score in his first two career NHL games from the start of a season and also became the second rookie in franchise history to record at least one point in each of his first three career NHL games…Comtois' goal 49 seconds into the season-opening game Oct. 3 at San Jose was the fastest to start an NHL career since 1989, when Buffalo's Alexander Mogilny scored 20 seconds into the first period Oct. 5, 1989 vs. Quebec…Comtois' goal, four seconds into his first shift, was the sixth-fastest goal to open an NHL career in NHL modern-era history (since 1943-44).

Six rookies made their NHL debuts with Anaheim in 2018-19, including Sam Steel, Max Comtois, Max Jones, Josh Mahura, Isac Lundestrom and Kiefer Sherwood.

ON THE BLUELINE:

During the 2018-19 NHL season, the Ducks led the NHL in games played by drafted defensemen (418)…Anaheim also ranked second in most rookies (16), games played by rookies (325) and games played by defensemen aged 27-or-younger (449).

SIGNED & DELIVERED:

Jakob Silfverberg averaged over a point-per-game after he signed his five-year contract extension Mar. 2…in his final 17 games, Silfverberg recorded 8-11=19 points with a +10 rating to help the Ducks to a 11-5-1 record…Silfverberg finished the season leading the Ducks with a career-high 24 goals and ranked tied for second in points (24-19=43)…on Mar. 12 vs. Nashville, Silfverberg scored his 103rd career goal as a Duck to surpass Andrew Cogliano (102) for sole possession of eighth on the all-time franchise goals list.

NET PRESENCE:

John Gibson went 26-22-8 with two shutouts, a 2.84 GAA and .917 SV% in 58 games…Gibson led the NHL in shorthanded saves (285), ranked sixth in saves (1,685) and shots against (1,838), and 10th in appearances…Gibson, who was also tied for fourth among goaltenders in March wins (8-3-0), tied for ninth in most appearances with two goals-or-less allowed (29) during the 2018-19 campaign…Gibson collected his 100th career NHL win in Anaheim's 4-3 victory over Vancouver Nov. 21 to become the fourth Ducks goaltender to reach the milestone, joining Jean-Sebastien Giguere (206), Guy Hebert (173) and Jonas Hiller (162)…Gibson also became the fastest to 100 wins with Anaheim in 196 games, besting Hiller (214 games), Giguere (248) and Hebert (254).

RECORD-SETTING PERFORMANCE:

Ryan Miller surpassed John Vanbiesbrouck (374) for the all-time lead among U.S.-born goaltenders in wins (375) Feb. 17 vs. Washington…Vanbiesbrouck had been the all-time leader since Jan. 6, 2000, when he passed Tom Barrasso with his 349th career win…both goalies remained active yet Vanbiesbrouck did not relinquish the lead until Miller tied him Dec. 2, 2018…Miller concluded the 2018-19 season ranked 16th on the all-time wins list for NHL goaltenders…on Feb. 19 at Minnesota, Miller stopped all 31 shots to post his 44th career shutout, second among U.S.-born goaltenders all-time…that night Miller also became the fourth goaltender since 2013-14 to record a shutout at the age of 38 or older.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2017-18 SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks completed the regular season 44-25-13 for 101 points, finishing second in the Pacific Division, tied for fourth in the Western Conference and tied for eighth in the NHL (MIN)… with 101 points, Anaheim became the only NHL team to post 100+ points in each season from 2013-18.

THE FINISH:

The Ducks finished the regular season as one of the NHL's top teams, winning their last five regular-season games (tying with WPG for the longest active streak to end the season) and their last seven home games (second longest to WPG, 9)….the Ducks also went 10-1-1 with a .875 points percentage (second in the NHL to WPG) in their final 12 games…Anaheim also went 17-5-2 over the last 24 games (fourth in NHL) and 25-10-4 after the bye week (Jan. 13, tied for fourth in NHL)…over the last 47 regular-season games, the Ducks went 30-12-5 (also tied for fourth in NHL).

ON DEFENSE:

The Ducks finished the season allowing only 209 goals, third-best in the NHL…Anaheim was the NHL's top defensive team after the All-Star break, allowing only 73 goals in 32 games (league-leading 2.28 GAA), eight fewer than anyone else in the NHL (LA, 81 goals)…the Ducks got even stingier down the stretch, allowing only 49 goals in the last 24 games (leading-leading 2.04 GAA), 12 fewer than anyone else in the NHL (ARI, 61).

CLINCHED:

The Ducks clinched their sixth consecutive trip to the Stanley Cup Playoffs Apr. 4, equaling the second-longest streak in the NHL…only Pittsburgh had a longer streak with 12 (Minnesota also has six consecutive)…the Ducks entered 2018 playoffs with the most postseason wins in the Western Conference since 2014 (31-22) and rank tied for second in the NHL (Pittsburgh 40, New York Rangers 31).

RECORD-SETTING SEASON:

The Ducks established a franchise record with a .923 SV%, which co-led all NHL teams (NSH)…the previous team record for SV% in a single season was .921, set during the 1998-99 campaign…both Ryan Miller (.928) and John Gibson (.926) surpassed the individual single-season franchise record for SV% (.924, Jonas Hiller in 2010-11, Gibson in 2016-17)…Miller ranked fifth among NHL goaltenders in SV%, while Gibson ranked eighth in SV%, 10th in wins (31) and tied for ninth in shutouts (4)…from the All-Star break through the end of the regular season, Gibson led league netminders in GAA (1.95; min. 20 games) and SV% (.937; min. 20 games) to go along with a 14-4-2 record…Gibson concluded the regular season with a 21-7-3 record in his last 31 decisions.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2016-17 SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks clinched the 2016-17 Pacific Division for the fifth straight season with a 46-23-13 record and 105 points…the Ducks were the seventh different team in NHL history to win five consecutive division titles, joining the Colorado/Quebec franchise (9 straight from 1995-03), Montreal (8 from 1975-82), Detroit (8 from 2001-09), Edmonton (6 from 1982-87), Dallas (5 from 1997-01) and Vancouver (5 from 2009-13)…Anaheim was also the only team to win the Pacific Division five consecutive years since its creation in 1993-94…the Ducks won the division after falling nine points back of first place on three separate occasions, most recently being nine points behind San Jose on March 15 (91 San Jose points to 82 Anaheim points)…the Ducks eclipsed 100 points for the fourth consecutive season, joining the Chicago Blackhawks as the only teams to accomplish the feat.

DOWN THE STRETCH:

The Ducks went 29-11-7 for 65 points after the Holiday Break (games resumed Dec. 27), the second-best record in the NHL (WSH had 74 points)…the Ducks also allowed only 99 goals over that stretch, 12 fewer than anyone else in the NHL (WSH, 111 allowed)…the Ducks' penalty killing also led the NHL at 88.1% over that stretch…Anaheim also went 14-2-3 for 31 points from the end of its bye week on Mar. 3 through the remainder of the schedule, ranking second the NHL in points and wins (STL, 15 wins and 32 points).

STRONG FINISH:

Anaheim became the fifth team in league history to conclude the regular season on a 14-game (11-0-3) point streak…the Ducks were the first team to accomplish the feat since Pittsburgh finished the 1992-93 season with points in 18 straight games…the other three teams included Montreal (21-game point streak in 1979-80), Philadelphia (14 in 1974-75) and Buffalo (14 in 1979-80)…the 11-0-3 run was the third-longest standings point streak in club history and tied for the second longest in the NHL this season (Columbus 16, Washington also had 14).

AT HONDA CENTER:

Anaheim's 29-8-4 record and 62 points at Honda Center tied franchise records in both categories…in addition, the club allowed the fewest goals at Honda Center in club history (82)…the Ducks won their final six home games (6-0-0) and closed the season with a 10-game point streak (9-0-1) at Honda Center.

CLINCHED:

Anaheim was one of six NHL teams and the only Pacific Division club that has qualified for the postseason in the previous five consecutive seasons, joining Pittsburgh (11 straight), Chicago (9), New York Rangers (7), St. Louis (6) and Minnesota (5)…during the five-year stretch, the Ducks posted a 227-104-45 record, leading the NHL in point percentage (.664) and points (499) and tied for second in wins.

ON THE LEADERBOARD:

The Ducks ranked third among NHL teams in goals against per game (2.40) and fewest goals allowed (197), and fourth in PK% (84.7%) in 2016-17…the Ducks also led the league in fewest goals allowed in the third period (55)…at Honda Center, Anaheim ranked third among NHL clubs in home standings points (62) and home wins (29-8-4) and second overall in fewest home goals allowed (82).

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2015-16 SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks finished the 2015-16 regular season 46-25-11 for 103 points, ranking first in the Pacific Division, fourth in the Western Conference and sixth in the NHL...it marked the third consecutive year the club posted 100+ points, joining St. Louis and Chicago as the only NHL teams to do so from 2013-16...Anaheim went 6-2-2 in the last 10 games, 21-6-4 in the last 31 and 34-10-5 over the last 49 contests.

DUCKS WIN PACIFIC:

The Ducks won their fourth consecutive division title on the last day of the season with a 2-0 victory over Washington...Anaheim became the first NHL team to win four division titles in a row since Vancouver won five straight (Northwest Division) from 2009-2013...the Ducks joined San Jose (2007-11) as the only two franchises to win the Pacific Division title four years in a row since the division's creation in 1993-94...the Ducks won the division after trailing by 16 points at the halfway point of the season (41 games on Jan. 12), becoming the first team to erase such a deficit at the halfway point since New Jersey in 2005-06 (trailed Philadelphia by 19 points through 41 games).

AFTER THE HOLIDAY BREAK:

After the Christmas break, the Ducks went 34-10-5 for the best record in the NHL (.745 points percentage)...the Ducks led the league in wins (34), standings points (73), PP% (27.5%), PPG (42), fewest goals allowed (104), goals allowed per game (2.1) and goal differential (+50); ranked second in goals (154) and goals per game (3.1) and third in PK% (86.9%) following the break...the Ducks were the first team since 2010 and just the fourth since 2005 to post a .745+ win (73 points) percentage after the Christmas break in a full season (34-10-5)...the others being the 2007 Canucks (32-8-6, .761), 2010 Capitals (37-7-7, .767) and 2006 Red Wings (34-7-5, .793).

DUCKS CAPTURE FIRST JENNINGS TROPHY:

Allowing a league-low 192 goals, goaltenders John Gibson and Frederik Andersen won the 2015-16 Jennings Trophy and became the first Anaheim goaltenders to win the award in franchise history...Gibson finished 21-13-4 with a 2.07 GAA and .920 SV% in 40 games, with Andersen going 22-9-7 with a 2.30 GAA and .919 SV% in 43 contests...Gibson ranked tied for second among league leaders with a 2.07 GAA, which was also the lowest among qualified rookie goaltenders (min. 25 games played) since 2009-10 (Tuukka Rask w/ BOS, 1.97).

FIRST IN 3+ DECADES:

Anaheim was the first team since the 1984-85 New York Islanders to finish the regular season with the league's best PP% (23.2%) and PK% (87.2%)...the Ducks led the league in PP% after ranking tied for 19th on Jan. 13 (17.9%, 27-for-151)...the club scored power-play goals in 19 of its last 28 games (in which it had an opportunity), going 29-for-91 with the man advantage (31.9%, best in the NHL)...Anaheim went undefeated in regulation in 23 consecutive games (22-0-1) when scoring a PPG from Nov. 30-Mar. 5.

SITUATIONALLY:

The Ducks were one of two NHL teams with only one regulation loss when tied after two periods (9-1-5; third with a .767 points %)…Anaheim was also one of five teams that did not lose in regulation when leading after two (29-0-2)…in addition, the Ducks were 37-2-4 when allowing two goals-or-less in 2014-15 (18-0-2 at home, 19-2-2 on the road).

THE GAME OF ONE:

Anaheim set an all-time NHL record with 33 wins in one-goal games (33-1-7)…the Ducks also led the NHL in winning percentage (.805) in one-goal games and were the only NHL team with fewer than four one-goal losses in regulation… Anaheim established an NHL single-season record for most consecutive one-goal games without a regulation loss (33), going 26-0-7 from Oct. 11-Feb. 23…the Ducks also set an NHL record for most consecutive home wins by a one-goal margin (discounting losses or ties), with 11 in a row (five regulation, two overtime and four shootouts) from Nov. 12-Jan. 11.

IN THE BEGINNING:

Frederik Andersen joined Montreal's Bill Durnan as the fastest goaltenders in NHL history to 50 wins, accomplishing the feat in 68 career decisions on Mar. 3 at Arizona…Durnan also won 50 in 68 decisions on Dec. 16, 1944…Andersen finished the season with a 35-12-5 record with three shutouts, a 2.38 GAA and .914 SV% in 54 games, marking the second-most single-season wins in franchise history (J.S. Giguere with 36 in 2006-07).

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2013-14 SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks concluded the 2013-14 regular season with a record of 54-20-8, the best mark in club history…the Ducks finished with the top record in the Western Conference for the first time in franchise history and set season records for standings points (116), wins (54) and win/points percentage (.707)…the Ducks led the league in goals (263) for the first time in club history (excludes shootout tallies)…Anaheim established season bests for goals (263; previously 254 in 2006-07), wins (54; previously 48, 2006-07), home wins (29; previously 28, 2007-08), road wins (25; previously 22, 2008-09 and 2006-07), home points (62; previously 61, 2006-07) and road points (54; previously 49, 2006-07).

EXCLUSIVE COMPANY:

Of the Ducks' 54 wins, 51 came in regulation/overtime (ROW)… Anaheim and Boston (also 51 wins in 2013-14) are the only two NHL teams to record as many ROWs since 2005-06 (Detroit, 54).

COMEBACKS COMMON:

Anaheim posted 26 comeback wins in 2013-14, the most in the NHL since 2005-06 (Detroit and Nashville, 26)…the Ducks went 23-15-2 (.575 points percentage) when the opponent scored first, the most wins and best points percentage of any team in such situations in 2013-14.

HISTORIC STREAK:

Anaheim won 18 of 19 games (18-1-0) from Dec. 6-Jan. 15 to join Montreal (18-1-0, 1967-68) as the only two NHL teams to win 18+ games in a 19-game span.

HOME/ROAD:

The Ducks went a franchise-best 29-8-4 at Honda Center, setting a club record for home wins and home standings points (62) in a single season…Anaheim became the fourth team in 40 NHL seasons (since 1973-74) to record points in each of its first 22-plus home games (20-0-2) from Oct. 13-Jan. 15, joining PHI (19-0-7, 1979-80), NYI (19-0-4, 1978-79) and SJ (20-0-2, 2008-09) in that category…the Ducks, who were the last NHL team to suffer a home loss in regulation (Jan. 21 vs. WPG), established a club record with eight straight home wins to open a season…away from Honda Center, the Ducks concluded their road schedule setting franchise records for wins (25; previously 22, 2008-09 and 2006-07), points (54; previously 49, 2006-07), and goals (123; previously 115, 2008-09).

THE FINAL SEASON:

The NHL's oldest active player and oldest to ever compete in a Ducks uniform at 43 years and 92 days at the start of 2013-14, Teemu Selanne finished his regular-season career ranked 11th among all-time leaders in goals, tied for 37th in all-time assists, 15th in all-time scoring, third in all-time PPG, tied for third with Brett Hull in all-time GWG (110) and 22nd in all-time games…Selanne is the club's all-time leader in scoring (988), goals (457), assists (531), games (966), plus/minus (+120), PPG (182), PPP (410), GWG (77), shots (2,964) and OT goals (6).

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

A RECORD-BREAKING SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks won their second Pacific Division title with a 30-12-6 record for 66 points, marking their best winning percentage in club history (.688 over 2007's .671)…the 2012-13 Ducks also had the best points percentage in club history on the road with a 14-5-5 (.688) mark, also ahead of the 2007 team (.598)…the Ducks finished second in the Western Conference and third overall in the NHL, behind only Chicago and Pittsburgh…the club's third-place finish in the overall league standings was the highest in club history.

COMEBACKS:

The Ducks rallied from deficits 15 times to win a game, including a 12-10-2 record when opponents scored first…Anaheim, Pittsburgh (11-6-0) and Chicago (10-5-4) were the first NHL teams since 2009-10 to have a record over .500 in such situations…the last team prior to 2012-13 was Bruce Boudreau's Washington Capitals (16-8-6 in 2009-10)…the Ducks lost only two games in regulation when scoring the first goal (18-2-4).

HOME SWEET HOME:

Anaheim won 13 consecutive games at Honda Center from Jan. 26-Mar. 20, 2013, the longest home streak in franchise history…the consecutive wins matched the NHL's second-longest home win streak since 2009-10 (also Washington at 13 games in 2010-11 under Boudreau…Detroit had an NHL-record 23-game streak in 2011-12)…Ryan Getzlaf's 9-21=30 points earned at home ranked tied for third in the NHL.

HERE TO STAY:

On Mar. 8 and Mar. 18, 2013, Ryan Getzlaf and Corey Perry signed respective eight-year contract extensions through the 2020-21 season…Getzlaf led Anaheim in points, goals and assists (15-34=49), while ranking tied for 10th among NHL leaders in scoring and tied for eighth in assists…Getzlaf had a career-high 12-game scoring streak at Honda Center from Feb. 1-Mar. 20, 2013, scoring 7-15=22 points (+12)…Perry ranked second among team leaders with 36 points, led in PPG (5) and co-led in goals (15) and GWG (5)…his five GWG ranked tied for sixth in the NHL.

#8:

Teemu Selanne recorded two four-point games in 2012-13, just the third and fourth time an NHL player 42 years or older accomplished the feat…Selanne scored 1-3=4 points on Feb. 9, 2013 at St. Louis (at 42 years, 326 days) and 2-2=4 points on Jan. 19, 2013 at Vancouver, joining Gordie Howe (42 years, 326 days) with 1-3=4 points for Detroit on Feb. 20, 1971 vs. Buffalo, and Tim Horton (42 years, 3 days) with 0-4=4 points for Pittsburgh on Jan. 15, 1972 vs. Philadelphia.

2011-12:

The Anaheim Ducks finished the 2011-12 season with a 34-36-12 mark for 80 points…the club had the fifth-best record in the Western Conference with 54 points (24-15-6) from Jan. 1 to the end of the season…the club went 14-6-1 in its last 21 contests played at Honda Center (.690 win percentage)…over the last 44 games overall, Anaheim went 24-14-6…from the start of 2012, Corey Perry ranked fourth in goals with 23 (PIT's Malkin had 35, TB's Stamkos had 34 and NJ's Kovalchuk had 24)…in addition, Jonas Hiller co-led the league in starts and appearances (41), and ranked sixth in wins (20) and GAA (2.11).

BREAKING RECORDS

Teemu Selanne (41 years old) completed his 20th NHL season and 13th with the Ducks, scoring 26-40=66 points in 82 games…his 26 goals made him the second-oldest player in NHL history to have 26+ goals in a single season…Selanne joined Gordie Howe as the oldest two players to have at least 60 points in one season… in addition, Selanne's 17, 20+goal seasons tied for the fifth-most in NHL history (many players)…his 82 games played made him the oldest player in NHL history (41 yrs, 279 days) to have appeared in all 82 games in a single season…only Nicklas Lidstrom (40 yrs, 347 days in 2010-11), Dave Andreychuk (40 yrs, 187 days in 2003-04), Mark Messier (40 yrs, 79 days in 2000-01) and Ron Francis (40 yrs, 36 days in 2002-03) appeared in all 82 games above the age 40.

BOUDREAU TAKES THE REINS

Bruce Boudreau was named the eighth head coach of the Anaheim Ducks on Nov. 30…the Ducks were 27-23-8 under his leadership…he finished the 2011-12 season with a 228-111-48 record in 387 career NHL games with both Anaheim and Washington for a .651 win percentage.

ANOTHER BIG YEAR

Corey Perry led the Ducks with 37 goals, leading all Western Conference players and ranking tied for sixth in the NHL…the 2010-11 Hart Trophy Winner had 15 goals in his last 32 games (post All-Star break)…Perry also ranked tied for third in the NHL in PPG (14).

MORE SELANNE

Teemu Selanne surpassed Luc Robitaille on Mar. 25 vs. Boston for sole possession of fourth in all-time PPG at 248…in addition, his GWG on Mar. 14 vs. Detroit accounted for his 1,400th career point, as he became just the third European-born player to reach the milestone (Jaromir Jagr 1,653 and Stan Mikita, 1,467)…on Mar. 12, Selanne's goal moved him past childhood idol and fellow Finn Jari Kurri (1,398 career points) for sole possession of 19th in all-time points (second among active players behind Jagr)…at the close of the season, Selanne ranked 12th on the NHL's all-time goal scoring list (second among active players behind Jagr), 42nd in assists (fourth among active players) and sixth in career GWG (second among active players behind Jagr).

THE 2010-11 REGULAR SEASON

The Ducks finished the regular season with a record of 47-30-5 for 99 points, ranking second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference…the club's 47 wins were tied for the second-most in franchise history (48 in 2006-07 and 47 in 2007-08).

ANOTHER STRONG FINISH

With 20 games left, the Ducks were 32-25-5 with 69 points and ranked 11th in the Western Conference…the Ducks went 15-5-0 over the last 20 games, climbing to fourth in the West…during that stretch, Corey Perry led the NHL in goals and points (19-12=31 with a +12)…the Ducks also won their last two games, 10 of their last 13 (10-3-0), and went 29-13-1 over the last 43 contests.

PERRY WINS THE HART

Corey Perry won the 2010-11 Hart Memorial Trophy as "the player adjudged to be the most valuable to his team"…Perry was the first player from a Southern California team to win the Hart Trophy since Hall-of-Famer Wayne Gretzky earned the honor with Los Angeles in 1989…Perry was also just the third player from a California team to win the Hart, joining Gretzky and San Jose's Joe Thornton (2006)…his 50 goals also won him the Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy as the league's top goal scorer…he tied for the league lead in GWG (11, also Ovechkin), finished third in points (98), and tied for fifth in PPG (14) and SHG (4)

MORE PERRY

Perry's 50 goals were the most by a Ducks player since Teemu Selanne scored 52 during the 1997-98 season…he became the third player in franchise history to reach the 50-goal mark and the first in the Western Conference to score 50-or-more since Calgary's Jarome Iginla in 2007-08 (50)…Perry established numerous franchise records in 2010-11, including game-winning goals, third-period goals, and shorthanded goals.

BETTER WITH AGE

Teemu Selanne (40 years old in 2010-11) recorded 31-49=80 points in 73 games…25 of Selanne's 31 goals came in a tied game or a one-goal contest…he was one of 15 NHL players to average over one point-per-game (eighth with 1.10)…the second-oldest player on that list was Tampa Bay's Martin St. Louis (35 yrs.) who averaged 1.21 points-per-game…Selanne ranked third in the NHL with 16 PPG and tied for eighth in overall scoring…only two players in NHL history age 40+ have recorded more points: (Gordie Howe (DET), 1968-98, 103 pts., 40 yrs, 276 days; Johnny Bucyk (BOS), 1975-76, 83 pts., 40 yrs, 234 days…on Mar. 28 vs. Colorado, he became the first player in history age 40+ to record three goals and five points (3-2=5) in a single game and the fourth-oldest player in NHL history to record a 3+ goal game (also Howe, Bucyk & Lidstrom).

VISNOVSKY LEADS THE PACK

Lubomir Visnovsky led NHL defensemen in scoring (68), assists (50) and points-per-game (.84), and ranked second in goals (18).

HILLER SHINES BEFORE SEASON CUT SHORT

Jonas Hiller went 26-16-5 with five shutouts, a 2.56 GAA and .924 SV% before having his season cut short due to vertigo symptoms…he made only three appearances following the All-Star break, missing a total of 27 games during the second half of the season…Hiller finished tied for fifth among NHL goaltenders in SV% (.924)…he was named to the NHL 2010-11 All-Star team, the lone goaltender to represent the Western Conference…he was the second Swiss-born player to appear in an NHL All-Star Game (also Mark Streit in 2009).

THE SEASON:

The Ducks finished the season with a 39-32-11 record for 89 points (11th in Western Conference)…the club went 23-14-4 for 50 points in the second half of the season (41 games), which equaled the eighth-best record in the league…Anaheim also finished with points in eight of the last nine games (5-1-3) and went 9-3-3 over the last 15 contests…the Ducks concluded the 2009-10 season with a 6-0-2 record in the last eight games at Honda Center and were 17-3-3 in the last 23 contests at home.

BY THE NUMBERS:

Right wing Corey Perry led the club in scoring with a career-high 27-49=76 points and was the only player to appear in all 82 regular season games for Anaheim…center Ryan Getzlaf led the team in assists (50) despite missing 16 games due to injury…defenseman Scott Niedermayer, who ranked tied for 11th in league defensemen scoring, led all Anaheim players in ice time (26:30) and paced all team blueliners in assists and points (10-38=48)…right wing Bobby Ryan had a career-high 35 goals in 81 games, leading the team in goals and ranking second in the NHL (behind only New Jersey's Zach Parise) among U.S.-born players…right wing Teemu Selanne finished the season ranked tied for third in the NHL in power play goals (14) and tied for eighth in goals-per game (.50), his highest mark since 2006-07 (.59)…with 27 goals on the year (27-21=48), 2009-10 marked Selanne's 14th season with 25 goals or more… Selanne had six goals in his last five games (6-2=8), 8-9=17 points in his last 13 and 9-12=21 points in his final 18 contests…center Saku Koivu earned 4-7=11 points with a +6 rating in his last five games… he also had 7-11=18 points in his last 13 and 8-12=20 in 19…Koivu, who scored the game-tying goal in two of his last three games (and the shootout winner on Apr. 3 at Los Angeles), ranked tied for 10th in the NHL in game-winning goals (6)…Koivu also eclipsed the 50-point mark for seventh consecutive season in 2009-10 (19-33=52)…defenseman Lubomir Visnovsky ranked tied for fourth in goals among NHL defensemen (with San Jose's Dan Boyle)…his five goals after his acquisition by Anaheim on Mar. 3 (did not play until Mar. 6) co-led all NHL defensemen (with Washington's Mike Green and Los Angeles' Drew Doughty).

TAKING THE REINS:

The Ducks were 23-13-4 in their last 40 games dating back to Jan. 5, which equaled the eighth-best record in the NHL…that stretch began with Jonas Hiller starting 31 of the final 40 games, including 19 straight from Jan. 5-Mar. 24…prior to that, Hiller started 26 of the first 42 games of the season, alternating starts with J.S. Giguere (the Ducks were 16-19-7 at that point of the season)…Hiller himself was 18-11-1 (2.58 GAA, .923 SV%) in his last 32 games from Jan. 5 to the end of the season.

After reaching the historic 600-goal plateau on Mar. 21 vs. Colorado and matching childhood idol and longtime friend Jari Kurri with 601 on Mar. 31 at Colorado, right wing Teemu Selanne scored two goals on Apr. 2 vs. Vancouver to grab sole possession of 17th place in all-time goals with his 602nd and 603rd goals…finishing the season with 606 career goals, Selanne became one of only 18 players in NHL history to score 600 goals and one of only three Europeans, following Jaromir Jagr (CZE) and Kurri (FIN).

RECORD STREAK:

The Ducks had a franchise-record 11-game home winning streak from Dec. 8-Feb. 10…the 11-game winning streak at Honda Center was the second-longest in the NHL in 2009-10, behind only Washington's 14-game streak at Verizon Center.

2010 OLYMPICS:

Anaheim Ducks players combined for seven medals at the 2010 Olympic Winter Games, the most in the NHL (San Jose was second with five)… the seven medals also tied the most ever by an NHL team…the only other NHL teams to have as many as seven medal winners were the 1998 Pittsburgh Penguins and the 2002 Detroit Red Wings…Anaheim Ducks players combined for three gold (Scott Niedermayer, Ryan Getzlaf, Corey Perry for Canada), two silver (Bobby Ryan, Ryan Whitney for USA), and two bronze medals (Saku Koivu and Teemu Selanne for Finland) in Vancouver.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE SEASON:

The Ducks finished the 2008-09 regular season with a record of 42-33-7 for 91 points, ranking second in the Pacific Division and eighth in the Western Conference…Anaheim went 20-18-3 at home and 22-15-4 on the road in the regular season…the Ducks qualified for the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year and seventh time in club history (1997, 1999, 2003, 2006-2009).

THE STANDINGS CLIMB:

After 69 games, the Ducks were 32-31-6, 12th in the Western Conference standings (13th by winning percentage)…Anaheim rallied to make the playoffs by posting the best record in the NHL (by points and winning percentage) over the last 13 games, going 10-2-1 (21 points, .808 win%)…the Ducks joined only the 1996-97 Ottawa Senators and 2006-07 New York Rangers as teams to rally from as low as 12th place to make the playoffs with 13 games-or-less remaining in the season…the 1996-97 Senators were 12th through 69 games and finished seventh, while the 2006-07 Rangers were 12th through 72 games and finished sixth.

STRONG FINISH:

The Ducks finished the 2008-09 regular season winning five of the last seven games (5-1-1), 10 of 13 games (10-2-1) and were 11-3-1 in the last 15 overall…the Ducks scored at least one power play goal in eight of the last nine games (13-for-35, 37.1%) and went 20-for-48 (41.7%) over the final 13…in the last five contests, the Ducks were 9-for-16 on the power play for a 56.3% success rate…in addition, the club recorded 55 goals over the last 13 games (4.2 per game), scoring at least five goals in five of those contests.

ROAD SUCCESS:

Anaheim finished the 2008-09 regular season by recording points in a team-record nine consecutive road games (7-0-2; 16 points), besting the previous mark of eight games set earlier in the year (7-0-1; Oct. 21-Nov. 30)…the Ducks won six straight road games before losing in a shootout in the season finale on Apr. 11 at Phoenix, falling just one win shy of tying a club-record seven-game road winning streak from Nov. 28-Dec. 13, 2006…with a 22-15-4 road record, the Ducks tied a franchise record for most road wins in a single season (22-14-5, 2006-07).

LEADING THE WAY:

Center Ryan Getzlaf concluded the 2008-09 campaign ranked tied for third among NHL leaders in assists, tied for sixth in scoring (25-66=91) and tied for fourth in power play assists (28)…in addition to leading the club in assists and scoring, Getzlaf broke the Ducks single-season assist record (previously Kariya, 62) on his third helper of the night as part of a four-assist effort on Apr. 4 at San Jose…with two assists (0-2=2) on Apr. 2 at Vancouver, he set a single-season career high in assists (60), one game after establishing a personal best for points in a season on Mar. 31 at Edmonton (83).

HILLER STRONG IN NET:

Goaltender Jonas Hiller concluded the regular season ranked tied for seventh among NHL goaltenders in GAA (2.39) and tied for sixth in SV% (.919)…over his last 12 games, Hiller went 8-2-0 with a 2.44 GAA and .919 SV%, stopping 319-of-347 shots…prior to a 3-2 loss to San Jose on Apr. 5 at Honda Center, Hiller won seven consecutive decisions to tie Guy Hebert for the longest winning streak in franchise history (Hebert won seven straight games from Feb. 25-Mar. 22, 1995).

THE CAPTAIN LEADS THE WAY, AGAIN:

Scott Niedermayer concluded the regular season ranked second among all defensemen in scoring starting Jan. 1 (9-31=40, Mike Green of WSH had 23-27=50 points)…for the season, he ranked tied for third in the NHL in scoring and assists among defensemen…Niedermayer became Anaheim's all-time goal scorer among defensemen by surpassing Oleg Tverdovsky with his 46th goal as a Duck on Mar. 8 vs. Minnesota…Niedermayer recorded his third three-point night of the season (1-2=3) on Mar. 31 at EDM, tying a single-game career high.

MOVING ON UP:

Right wing Teemu Selanne scored his 1,200th career NHL point with his overtime goal on Mar. 18 vs. Nashville…Selanne became the 45th player in NHL history to reach the milestone and only the sixth player born outside North America to reach the mark, joining Jaromir Jagr, Stan Mikita, Jari Kurri, Mats Sundin and Paul Stastny…he became the franchise's all-time games played leader with his 617th game as a Duck on Jan. 31 at Colorado…with his appearance that afternoon at Pepsi Center, Selanne surpassed former teammate Steve Rucchin for sole possession of first in all-time Ducks appearances.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE SEASON:

The Ducks completed the 2007-08 regular season with a mark of 47-27-8 record for 102 points, finishing second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference…Anaheim eclipsed the 100-point mark for the second consecutive year, while setting new season club records for the fewest goals allowed (184) and most home wins (28)…Anaheim finished the year winning eight of its last 10 (8-2-0) and 15 of the last 20 games (15-4-1)…at Honda Center, the club went 12-1-0 in the last 13 games and 19-3-1 over the final 23 home contests…the club clinched a playoff berth for the third consecutive year and sixth time in franchise history on Mar. 26 vs. Los Angeles in a 2-1 shootout triumph.

DUCKS SELL OUT THE SEASON:

The Ducks' sellout vs. Phoenix on Apr. 6 (17,269) marked the club's 40th in 40 games at Honda Center in 2007-08, a complete sellout for the regular season…it was just the second time a local NHL team (Southern California market) had sold out a full (non-lockout) regular season…the 1991-92 Los Angeles Kings were the only other such team to do so at the 16,005-seat Forum…the Ducks set franchise attendance records last season for sellouts (40), average attendance (17,195) and percent capacity (100.12%)…the Ducks broke the team record for consecutive regular season sellouts on Feb. 22 against the St. Louis Blues when they surpassed the previous record of 51 straight regular season sellouts set from Dec. 22, 1993-Oct. 20, 1995…the Ducks finished the regular season with a sellout streak of 74 games, the third-longest active regular season sellout streak among U.S.-based NHL teams (behind only Minnesota and the NY Rangers).

WINNING AT HONDA CENTER:

The Ducks finished 28-9-4 at Honda Center in 2007-08, establishing a new franchise record for home wins in the regular season…the previous team record of 26 home wins was established during the 2005-06 season (26-10-5) and matched in the 2006-07 campaign (26-6-9)…the Ducks won a franchise-record 10 consecutive games at Honda Center from Feb. 17-Mar. 26, marking the longest home winning streak in the NHL in 2007-08.

THE TOP 10 LIST:

J.S. Giguere was one of only three goaltenders in the NHL in 2007-08 to rank among the top 10 in wins, goals-against average and save percentage…Giguere ranked second in GAA (2.12), third in SV% (.922) and tied for seventh in wins (35)…the only other two goaltenders who ranked among the top 10 in all three categories were New Jersey's Martin Brodeur and Minnesota's Niklas Backstrom.

HILLER SHINES:

Ducks goaltender Jonas Hiller closed the regular season on a strong note…from Mar. 1 through the end of the regular season, Hiller ranked second in the NHL with a .952 SV% (stopping 217-of-228 shots) and 1.55 GAA (11 GA/426 MIN) among goaltenders that played in at least five games (Hiller was 4-3-0 in those games).

WINNING WAYS:

Randy Carlyle (138-74-34) became Anaheim's winningest head coach in franchise history with a 2-1 victory over the New Jersey Devils on Feb. 8 at Prudential Center…Carlyle surpassed Ron Wilson's club record of 120 wins as a Ducks head coach with win No. 121 in his 223rd game behind the bench with Anaheim.

LEADERS BY ADDITION:

The Ducks went 20-5-1 after the return of right wing Teemu Selanne on Feb. 5 against the New York Islanders at Nassau Coliseum…the Ducks also had similar success when they welcomed the return of defenseman Scott Niedermayer and arrival of center Doug Weight…the Ducks owned the best winning percentage in the NHL after Selanne's return on Feb. 5 (.788) and the best winning percentage following Niedermayer's return on Dec. 16 (.708)…below is a closer look:

2005-06	Dallas Stars	Third (five-team division)
2006-07	Anaheim Ducks	First (five-team division)

*The Pacific Division was realigned to today's format prior to the 1998-99 season

RECORD-BREAKING SEASON:

After breaking nearly all major club records in 2005-2006, the Ducks followed suit with another record-breaking season…With a 48-20-14 record, the Ducks set new franchise records for wins (48) and standings points (110), reaching the 100-point mark for the first time in club history…Anaheim also set new club highs in goals (254 – does not include goals awarded for shootout wins), PP goals (89) and PP% (22.4%, 89-for-398).

STRONG FINISH:

The Ducks closed out the season earning standings points in six straight (4-0-2) and 17 of their last 20 games (13-3-4)…the club earned points in 12 of their last 13 home contests (8-1-4)…in addition, Anaheim recorded points in the last five consecutive (4-0-1) and seven of their last nine road games (5-2-2)…the Ducks recorded points in 62 of 82 games (110 of a possible 164).

HOT TICKET IN TOWN:

The Ducks finished the regular season having sold out 22 consecutive home contests (longest streak since 1998) and 24 of the last 25…the club recorded 25 total sellouts on the season, 13 more than it had in 2005-2006…the 25 sellouts matches the most since the 1997-98 season…the Ducks averaged 16,377 fans per game, an 8.2% increase over last year (15,131)…the club's average attendance and percent capacity (95.4%) were also the highest since the 1997-98 season.

WEST COAST WINNERS:

The Ducks recorded 106 points with their win Mar. 31 @ STL, breaking Los Angeles' 32-year record for most points by a West Coast team in NHL history…below is a look at the top nine West Coast teams in NHL history to eclipse 100 points:

TOP POINTS IN NHL HISTORY BY WEST COAST TEAMS

Team	Year	GP	Pts
Anaheim	2006-07	82	110 (48-20-14)
San Jose	2006-07	82	107 (51-26-5)
Los Angeles	1974-75	80	105 (42-17-21)
San Jose	2003-04	82	104 (43-21-18)
Vancouver	2002-03	82	104 (45-23-14)
Vancouver	2006-07	82	105 (49-26-7)
Los Angeles	1990-91	80	102 (46-25-10)
Vancouver	2003-04	82	101 (43-24-15)
Vancouver	1992-93	84	101 (46-29-9)

*The California/Oakland Seals' best finish was in 1968-69 with 69 points

TOUGH TO BEAT:

Anaheim netminder J.S. Giguere finished the season with a record of 36-10-8...his GAA (2.26) was his lowest since the 2001-02 season (2.13) and his SV% (.918) was his best since 2002-03 (.920)…in 28 home starts, Giguere posted a 21-2-5 record with a 2.17 GAA (60 GA/1,660 min.) and .917 SV% (659-of-719 shots), having earned the Ducks points in 26 of those games... for the season, he ranked 10th in the NHL in wins, 5th in GAA and T-7th in SV%...in addition, with a win March 29 @ CBJ, Giguere broke his previous career-high and established a new franchise record for wins in a season (previous mark was 34 wins, set in 2002-03).

BETTER WITH AGE:

With a goal March 29 @ CBJ, Teemu Selanne became the oldest player in NHL history to score 45-plus goals in one season (finished with 48)...Selanne was born on July 3, 1970...Selanne was also the first player in NHL history age 35-or-older to record consecutive 40+ goal seasons (had 40 in 2005-06)...it marked the 7th time in his career he hit the 40 goal plateau, the most among active NHL players...among league leaders, Selanne finished 3rd in the NHL (1st in the Western Conference) in goals and T-11th in the NHL in points (94),...he finished 1st in the NHL in power play goals (25) and T-1st in game-winning goals (10), which include two overtime winners.

SPECIAL TEAMS TOP THE CHARTS:

The Ducks were the only team in the NHL this season to have a top-5 ranking in both power play and penalty killing percentage…the Ducks set a new club record for highest PP% in one season, finishing third in the NHL with a 22.4% success rate (89-for-398)…Anaheim finished fourth overall in PK%, killing 349-of-410 penalties on the campaign (85.1%)…the Ducks killed the last 22 consecutive opponent power play to end the season, going back to Mar. 28 @ CHI (did not allow a PP goal in the last five games).

LIGHTING THE LAMP:

The Ducks scored three-or-more goals in 54 of 82 contests in 2006-2007…during the final stretch, the Ducks scored three-or-more goals in 10 of their last 14 and 15 of their last 20 contests...Anaheim recorded 258 team goals, T-3rd in the Western Conference.

CLAMPING DOWN:

The Ducks were especially tough to score against during the third period in 2006-2007...Anaheim allowed only 64 goals in the final period of regulation, the second-least in the NHL...below is a look at the top five teams in the NHL who allowed the least amount of goals in the third period:

Team	Goals Allowed
Minnesota	55
Anaheim	64
Dallas	64
Detroit	64
New Jersey	67

NORRIS FINALISTS:

Ducks defensemen Scott Niedermayer and Chris Pronger were both Norris Trophy finalists...Niedermayer (15-54=69) and Pronger (13-46=59) both finished the season with 50-plus points, marking the first time in club history two defensemen hit that plateau (prior to the 2006-07 season, no pair of Ducks defensemen had each recorded 40-or-more points):

- Captain Scott Niedermayer led all NHL defensemen in scoring, becoming the first Anaheim blue-liner to do so…he was also tied for first in assists among defensemen.
- Despite missing 16 games due to injury, defenseman Chris Pronger finished the season tied for sixth in points, sixth in assists among NHL defensemen and fourth overall in avg. TOI...Pronger led the Ducks in plus/minus...in addition, he ranked first in points-per-game (.89) among NHL defensemen.

IRONMAN:

Samuel Pahlsson became the Ducks' all-time Ironman with 275 consecutive games played...on Jan. 9 @ NSH, he passed Oleg Tverdovsky to move into first place on the Ducks' all-time consecutive games played list...Pahlsson played in all 82 games in each of the last three seasons and has not missed a game since being a healthy scratch on Feb. 5, 2003 @ Edmonton...in addition, Pahlsson is currently 7th in the NHL on the active games played list...Andy McDonald is now in 2nd place on the Ducks all-time consecutive games played list, having played in 243 consecutive games...below is a list of most consecutive games played list in Ducks history and the longest "Iron Man" streaks NHL:

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

PLAYOFF BOUND

The Ducks finished the regular season with a record of 43-27-12, good for 98 standings points and a sixth place finish in the Western Conference…the club clinched a playoff spot on Apr. 10 @ VAN, the fourth post-season berth in club history.

A RECORD-BREAKING SEASON

The Ducks set club-records in wins (43) and points (98), eclipsing the previous marks of 40 and 95, respectively, set in 2002-2003…Anaheim's 26 wins at HOME (26-10-5) also set a club-record, breaking the record of 23 in 1996-97 (23-12-6)…the Ducks also set club-records for goals scored with 251 (not including team goals awarded in shootouts) and power play goals with 87…all of these marks were broken again the next season (2006-2007).

STEADY CLIMB

On Jan. 13, the Ducks were 10th in the Western Conference (19-16-7, 45 points) and eight points out of the last playoff spot (occupied at the time by Colorado)...from that point on, Anaheim had a record of 24-11-5 for 53 points…the Ducks became just the fourth NHL team to qualify for the playoffs when trailing the 8th place position by 8 points-or-more anytime after Jan. 1…the first three teams to do so were the NY Islanders (1993-94 – finished 7th) , Ottawa Senators (1996-97 – finished 7th) & Vancouver Canucks (2001-2002 – finished 8th)…the San Jose Sharks followed suit by becoming the fifth such team to accomplish the feat…the NHL standings switched to the current format in 1992-93.

ANOTHER GREAT SEASON

Ducks Captain Scott Niedermayer established then career highs in points, assists and games played with 13-50=63 points in 82 games in 2005-2006...his assist and point totals were new franchise records for a defenseman (records he broke again the following season)... Niedermayer finished the season ranked 6th in the NHL in points and T-4th in assists by a defenseman...in his Norris Trophy winning season of 2003-04, Niedermayer scored 14-40=54 points in 81 games...in January, he was named to Canada's Olympic Team but elected not to play so he could have arthroscopic knee surgery during the Olympic Break...after the Olympic Break, he scored 4-17=21 points in 25 games in leading the Ducks to a 16-8-1 record...he was one of four Ducks' players to play in every game, marking the first time in his career he played all 82 games.

FLASHY FINN

Ducks right wing Teemu Selanne scored 40-50=90 points in 80 games with a +28 rating…he led the Ducks in goals, points, plus/minus, power play goals (18) and shooting percentage (15.0%)…after leading Finland to the Silver Medal at the 2006 Winter Olympics (was named best forward in the tournament), Selanne had 14-22=36 points with a +8 rating in his last 25 games (only Thornton and Cheechoo of SJ had more points)…his 40 goals are the most he scored in one season since 1998-1999, when he scored 47...he finished the season ranked T-13th in the NHL in points, T-10th in goals.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

DUCKS COMPLETE BEST SEASON IN TEAM HISTORY:

The Mighty Ducks finished the 2002-2003 season with a record of 40-27-9-6 for 95 points, good for 2nd in the Pacific Division and 7th in the Western Conference (tied in points with Minnesota, who earned the #6 seed by virtue of two more wins)…Anaheim set club records for wins and points in one season, surpassing the old records held by the 1996-97 Ducks (36-33-13 for 85 points)...the Ducks also finished 13 games over .500, after never being more that five games over .500 at any point during a season until this year (high-water mark was 14 games over, 40-26-9-5 after winning Apr. 1 @ NSH)…the Ducks clinched their third playoff berth in team history (also '97 & '99) on Mar. 24, when Calgary defeated Phoenix at the Saddledome...about 90 minutes later that evening the Ducks made the Phoenix loss moot, completing a 5-0 shutout vs. Columbus at -the Pond.

THESE CLUB RECORDS ALSO FELL:

The Ducks had their most successful season both at home and on the road…Anaheim finished 18-17-2-4 for 42 points on the road this season, the first season at or above .500 in team history away from home…the Ducks broke the mark for road points by earning their 42nd on Apr. 1 @ Nashville (1993-94 team had 41 points with a 19-20-3 record)…Anaheim finished just one win short of the road win record, also held by the 1993-94 team...at home, the Ducks broke the team record for points with 53, going 22-10-7-2...Anaheim finished one win shy of tying the club record for home victories (both HOME records were set in 1996-97, 23-12-6 for 52 points)...the Ducks also broke club records for lowest GAA (2.32, previous record was 2.39 set 2001-2002), fewest goals allowed (193, record was 198 set 2001-2002), power play goals allowed (42, record was 46 set 2001-2002) and penalty killing percentage (87.4%, record was 86.1% set 2001-2002).

QUITE A TURNAROUND STORY IN ANAHEIM:

The Mighty Ducks finished the regular season posting the largest improvement in the NHL…the Ducks improved by 26 points from 01-02 to 02-03…below is a closer look:

2001-02 SEASON:

The Ducks finished the season 29-42-8-3 for 69 points…Anaheim went 15-13-2-0 in the last 30 contests...the Ducks had the best defensive season in franchise history...they had a team GAA of 2.39 (ranking ninth in the NHL) allowing just 198 goals the entire season…the previous club records were 206 goals allowed for a 2.48 GAA set in 1998-99.…Anaheim also had the best penalty kill in club history...the PK unit killed 284-of-330 (86.1%) penalties, bettering the club record of 84.5% set in 1998-99...the fewest PP goals the club had allowed in a season was also set in 98-99, when it gave up 60 power play markers...in 2001-2002, the team shattered that record by allowing just 46 power play goals...Goaltender J.S. Giguere finished 2001-2002 with the fifth-best goals against average (2.13) and tied (with Burke & Khabibulin) for the fifth-best save percentage (.920) in the NHL...he shattered the club record for lowest goals-against average, well ahead of Guy Hebert's 2.45 GAA in 1998-99…Paul Kariya finished the 2001-2002 regular season as the Ducks leader in goals (32), points (57), power play goals (11), game-winning goals (8) and shots (289)…defenseman Keith Carney led the team with a +14 rating in his first season with the Ducks…Head Coach Bryan Murray finished the 2001-2002 regular season ranked seventh in all-time coaching wins…he moved into seventh place with his 501st win on Jan. 26 @ Nashville (3-1 final)...his historic 500th NHL coaching win came the previous night on Jan. 25 @ Dallas in a 6-1 triumph (eighth coach in NHL history with 500 wins)…Murray also became the eighth coach in NHL history to coach 1,000 games on Nov. 28 vs. Edmonton.

Jean-Sebastien Giguere

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

1998-99 SEASON:

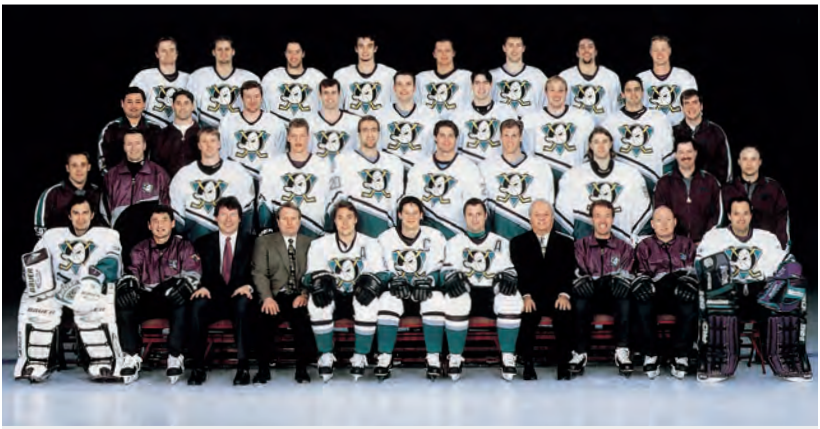

The Mighty Ducks finished the season with a mark of 35-34-13 for 83 points, good for sixth in the Western Conference…the Ducks were a franchise-high five games over .500 five times (latest being a 34-29-12 record after a 2-2 tie @ the NYI on Apr. 3)…the club's 83 points were 18 more than they had in 1997-98 (65 points), the third largest increase in the NHL…Anaheim lost only 12 of its last 34 games (18-12-4) and finished one win shy of equaling the club-record for wins in one season…the club led the league in power play percentage with a 22.0% mark (83-for-378)…the Ducks' 79 PPG's from Nov. 1 through the end of the regular season were 15 more than anyone else in the NHL…Anaheim was 28-3-7 when leading after two periods…home record was 21-14-6 (7-3-2 in last 12)…the Ducks established a club-record seven-game winning streak from Feb. 20-Mar. 7…Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne combined to average 2.66 points-per-game, leading the league…Teemu Selanne's 47 goals earned him the first-ever Maurice "The Rocket" Richard Trophy, awarded to the NHL's highest goal scorer…Paul Kariya's 429 shots were the second-highest total in NHL history…Fredrik Olausson set club-records for defensemen in goals (16), assists (40) & points (56)…Guy Hebert and Dominic Roussel combined for a .921 SV%, the second-highest in the league…Hebert received most of the workload, ranking second in the NHL in games (68), and second in minutes (4083), while also ranking eighth in wins (31), and tied-for-fourth in shutouts (6)…Kevin Haller and Paul Kariya were the only two players to appear in all 82 regular season games.

1997-98 SEASON:

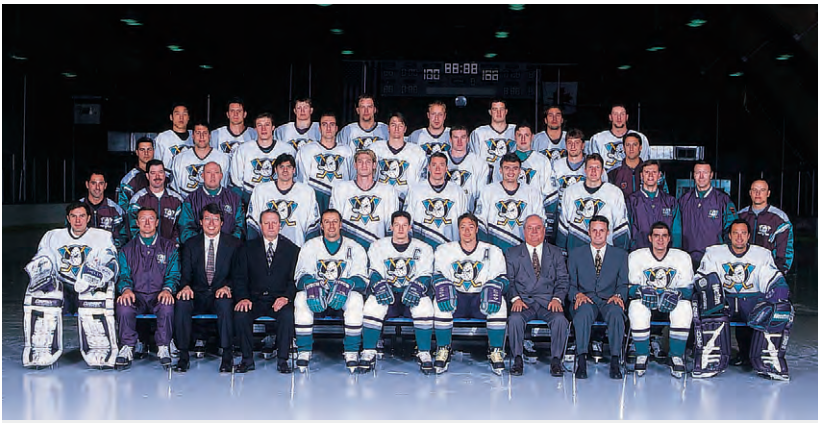

The Ducks finished the season 26-43-13 for 65 points…the club went 6-7-4 over the last 17 games…Anaheim enjoyed the most success vs. the Atlantic Division, going 7-3-4 (.643 winning percentage) - marking the second best winning percentage vs. any division in franchise history (record is 66.7%, set in 1995-96 when the Ducks went 8-4-0 vs. the Northeast)…Anaheim had three players that ranked among NHL league leaders (including rookie leaders) in several categories (Selanne, Rucchin & Cullen)…the Mighty Ducks and Vancouver Canucks opened up their '97-98 NHL regular seasons with a two-game set in Tokyo on Oct. 3-4. The games marked the first NHL regular season contests outside of North America…Teemu Selanne's sensational season included an 11-game goal scoring streak, three hat tricks, 10 game-winning` goals, a club-record 13 goals in a month (November), a hat trick in the All-Star game, a Bronze Medal at the Winter Olympics, and a league-leading 52 goals (tied with Peter Bondra)…Selanne also became just the fourth player in NHL history to record at least 25% of his teams goals in one season…Paul Kariya suffered a season-ending concussion on Feb. 1 vs. Chicago and appeared in only 22 games on the season.

1995-96 SEASON:

Final Record: 35-39-8, 78 points (fourth, Pacific)... nearly qualified for a Western Conference playoff spot (the Ducks actually finished tied-for-8th in the conference with Winnipeg, but lost the tie breaker because the Jets had more wins)...Anaheim's 35 wins and 78 points marked new club records for one season...the Mighty Ducks finished out the season strong, going 6-1-1 in their last eight games and 12-3-2 in their last 17 games...the Ducks did a lot of their late-season damage at home, going 11-1-2 in their last 14 home games...Anaheim also had a 15-6-3 record in the last 24 contests and a 17-8-3 record in the last 28...the Ducks went 33-31-8 over the last 72 games after starting the season 2-8-0...the Mighty Ducks' home record was 22-15-4 (22 home wins was a franchise record for one season)...Anaheim ended the season with a club-record nine-game home unbeaten streak (8-0-1)...the Ducks went 11-1-2 in their last 14 at the Arrowhead Pond and 13-5-3 in their last 21...road record was 13-23-4...Anaheim had one of the best records in the NHL since March 1 (12-4-3); the second-best in the Western Conference... the Mighty Ducks earned 34.6% of their points on the season in the team's 19 games after March 1... Paul Kariya became the first Mighty Duck to make First Team NHL All Star, earning a spot on the 1995-96 squad at left wing. He also won the Lady Byng Trophy for the first time in his career...Here are a few facts of how Anaheim's acquisition of Teemu Selanne affected the Mighty Ducks...after Feb. 7, the day the trade went down: Anaheim earned a record of 17-9-3 (11-1-2 at home, 6-8-1 on the road)... the team earned club-records in overall winning streak (six games, Mar. 8-22), home winning streak (five games, Mar. 8-Apr. 3), home unbeaten streak (Mar. 8-Apr. 14, 8-0-1) and overall unbeaten streak (seven games, 6-0-1, Mar. 10-24)...the Ducks' power play went 29-145 for a .200 success rate (team had only gone 31-281 for .110 before trade)...Anaheim had three hat tricks (two by Selanne, one by Garry Valk). The Ducks had only one in their history before the arrival of Selanne (Terry Yake - Oct. 19, 1993 @ NYR)...Selanne's offensive numbers with Anaheim were 16-20=36 points in 28 appearances (1.29 points-per-game)...Paul Kariya's offensive numbers were 21-23=44 points in 29 appearances (1.52 points-per-game) after Selanne joined Anaheim...The Mighty Ducks were one of only three NHL clubs (also Colorado and Pittsburgh) to finish with two players in the top eight scoring leaders in 1995-96 (Paul Kariya, 50-58=108 pts. and Teemu Selanne, 40-68=108 pts.)...Anaheim was one of only eight teams in the NHL with a .900-plus team save percentage (.906) and a team goals-against-average (GAA) below 3.00 (2.97)...Anaheim finished tied-for-fifth in the league in save percentage and 10th in the league in GAA...Anaheim goaltending combined for a .952 save percentage and 2.08 GAA in 19 games from March 1 to the end of the season...Individually, Guy Hebert finished fourth in the league in save percentage with .914 on the season and tied-for-fifth in the league in shutouts with four (three of which came in his last 14 games).

TEEMU SELANNE

BORN:	JULY 3, 1970, HELSINKI, FINLAND
SEASONS WITH ANAHEIM:	1995-2001 & 2005-2014
HOCKEY HALL OF FAME INDUCTION:	NOV. 13, 2017
HONORED BY DUCKS:	JAN. 11, 2015

Teemu Selanne finished his Ducks career as the franchise's all-time leader in almost every offensive category, including goals (457), assists (531), points (988), plus/minus (+120), games (966), power-play goals (182), game-winning goals (77), overtime goals (6) and shots (2,964). He is also the club playoff leader in goals (35), power-play goals (15), game-winning goals (8), shots (274) and games (96).

Selanne helped lead Anaheim to California's first Stanley Cup championship in 2007, was named the inaugural Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy winner in 1998-99 and won the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy Winner in 2005-06, all as a member of the Ducks.

Selanne ranks in the top-15 among all-time NHL leaders in goals (11th with 684), points (15th with 1,457), power-play goals (third with 255), and game-winning goals (tied for third with 110). In 22 NHL seasons, Selanne recorded 22 regular season hat tricks (13 with Anaheim, plus one playoff hat trick with Winnipeg). As a member of the Jets, he won the 1992-93 Calder Memorial Trophy after breaking the single-season rookie record for goals with 76, shattering Mike Bossy's previous record of 53. A 10-time NHL All-Star, Selanne was also a two-time First Team All-Star, a two-time Second Team All-Star (1997-98, 1998-99) and also named to the 1992-93 NHL All-Rookie Team.

Selanne was a six-time Olympian for Finland, tying the record for the most appearances by a men's hockey player. He won a medal in four of his six trips to the Olympic Winter Games, matching the all-time Olympic record. Named the 2014 Olympic MVP, a 2014 and 2006 Olympic All-Star, and the Best Forward at the 2006 Olympic Games, Selanne holds the record for the most points by an Olympian in men's hockey with 24-19=43 points.

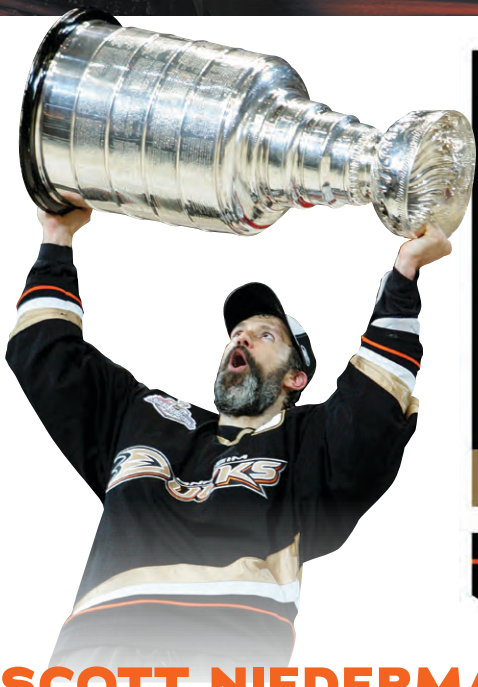

PAUL KARIYA

BORN:	OCTOBER 16, 1974, VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA
SEASONS WITH ANAHEIM:	1994-2003
HOCKEY HALL OF FAME INDUCTION:	NOV. 13, 2017
HONORED BY DUCKS:	OCT. 21, 2018

Paul Kariya was Anaheim's first-ever selection (fourth overall) in the 1993 NHL Draft. He scored 300-369=669 points with a +52 rating and 213 PIM in 606 career games with the Mighty Ducks. Among franchise leaders, Kariya leads in points-per-game (1.10), co-leads in shorthanded goals (16), ranks second in power play goals (107), third in goals, and fourth in scoring and assists.

The club's captain from 1996-2003 and a two-time Lady Byng Memorial Trophy winner in 1996 and 1997, he went on to lead Anaheim to Game 7 of the 2003 Stanley Cup Final against New Jersey, recorded 100-point seasons in 1995-96 and 1998-98 and recorded the first 50-goal season in club history in 1995-96. Kariya led in Anaheim in numerous offensive categories in his nine season, including scoring (six times), power-play goals (six times), goals (five times) and assists (four times).

Over a 15-year NHL career, Kariya collected 402-587=989 points with a +31 rating and 399 PIM in 989 games with Anaheim, Colorado, Nashville and St. Louis. Kariya was named to the NHL's First All-Star Team three times (1996, 1997, 1999) and Second All-Star Team two times (2000, 2003), while also earning a spot on the NHL's All-Rookie Team in 1995. At the international level, Kariya represented Canada at the Olympic Winter Games in 2002 (gold) and 1994 (silver), World Championships in 1996 (silver) and 1994 (gold) and World Junior Championship in 1993 (gold).

SCOTT NIEDERMAYER

BORN:	AUGUST 31, 1973, EDMONTON, ALBERTA
SEASONS WITH ANAHEIM:	2005-2010
HOCKEY HALL OF FAME INDUCTION:	NOV. 11, 2013
HONORED BY DUCKS:	FEB. 17, 2019

Scott Niedermayer spent five seasons with the Ducks from 2005-10, and was the captain of the Stanley Cup championship team in 2007 when he won the Conn Smythe Trophy as playoff MVP. He scored 60-204=264 points in 371 regular-season games with Anaheim, most among Ducks defensemen all-time, and had 34 points (eight goals, 26 assists) in 56 playoff games. In 2006-07, he set the Ducks franchise record for most points (69) and assists (54) by a defenseman.

In 18 seasons with Anaheim and New Jersey, Niedermayer scored 172-568=740 points in 1,263 NHL games. He is a four-time Stanley Cup champion, winning one Cup with Anaheim (2007) and three with New Jersey (1995, 2000 & 2003). He is the 2004 James Norris Memorial Trophy winner, a three-time First Team All-Star (2004, 2006, 2007), six-time NHL All-Star (1998, 2001, 2004, 2007, 2008, 2009), and 1993 NHL All-Rookie Team member. His 13 regular-season overtime goals are the most by a defenseman in NHL history.

The first player in hockey history to have won a Stanley Cup, Olympic gold medal, World Championship, World Cup, Memorial Cup and World Junior Championship, Niedermayer is also the only player in hockey history to win four Stanley Cups and two Olympic gold medals.

Niedermayer helped lead Canada to gold medals at the 2002 and 2010 Olympic Winter Games, serving as captain in 2010. He won a 2004 World Championship, 2004 World Cup title and 1991 World Junior Championship. He also won the 1992 Memorial Cup with Kamloops (WHL) and was named Memorial Cup MVP.

Niedermayer, who had his No. 27 retired by the New Jersey Devils on Dec. 16, 2011, became the eighth player in NHL history to have his number retired by two NHL teams.

Henry & Susan Samueli, Michael Schulman, Brian Burke, Tim Ryan, Bob Wagner, Bob Murray, David McNab, Al Coates, Randy Carlyle, Dave Farrish, Newell Brown, Francois Allaire, Sean Skahan, Joe Trotta, Tim Clark, Mark O'Neill, John Allway, James Partida, Rick Paterson, Alain Chainey

Scott Niedermayer (Captain), Rob Niedermayer, Chris Pronger, Teemu Selanne, Sean O'Donnell, Brad May, Todd Marchant, J.S. Giguere, Andy McDonald, Samuel Pahlsson, Shawn Thornton, Ric Jackman, Joe DiPenta, Kent Huskins, Chris Kunitz, George Parros, Joe Motzko, Ilya Bryzgalov, Francois Beauchemin, Travis Moen, Ryan Carter, Drew Miller, Ryan Shannon, Dustin Penner, Ryan Getzlaf, Corey Perry

By securing their first Stanley Cup championship in franchise history on June 6, 2007, the Anaheim Ducks also became the first team from California to win the Stanley Cup. Their appearance in the Final marked just the fifth time since 1926 that a West Coast team competed for the Stanley Cup (also Vancouver (1982 & 1994), Los Angeles (1993) & Anaheim (2003)). The Ducks were the first West Coast team to win the Stanley Cup since the 1925 Victoria Cougars and the first U.S. team to win it since the 1917 Seattle Metropolitans.

The Anaheim Ducks secured the Stanley Cup in just 21 games, posting a 16-5 record. With the 1992 Pittsburgh Penguins, the Ducks were the 5th (tied) fastest run to winning the Stanley Cup in NHL history since the best-of-seven series was implemented in 1987.

The Ducks posted a 12-2 record in games decided by one goal…the club tied the NHL playoff record for the most one-goal victories in one postseason. The 2003 Mighty Ducks of Anaheim had 12 one-goal victories during their Stanley Cup Final run and the 1993 Montreal Canadiens also accomplished this feat as they went on to win the Stanley Cup…in addition, the Ducks were tied for second in lead-changing, game-winning goals that occurred in the third period or overtime.

The 2007 Champions had the largest contingency of players (11) in their first or second NHL year on one Stanley Cup roster. The 1986 Montreal Canadiens are the only team that comes close to the Ducks number of first or second year players on a Stanley Cup winning roster with 10. Below is a list of Ducks that were in their first or second NHL season that played in at least one game with the club during their playoff run: Ilya Bryzgalov, Francois Beauchemin, Ryan Carter, Ryan Getzlaf, Kent Huskins, Chris Kunitz, Drew Miller, Dustin Penner, Corey Perry, Aaron Rome and Ryan Shannon.

The Anaheim Ducks ended the regular season riding a 14-game point streak (11-0-3) en route to clinching the Pacific Division for the fifth consecutive season. Anaheim became the seventh team in NHL history to win five consecutive division titles and the first to do so in the Pacific Division. The Ducks faced the Calgary Flames in the First Round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs and completed the fifth series sweep in franchise history. The Ducks went on to face the Edmonton Oilers in the Second Round, overcoming a 2-0 series deficit with three consecutive wins and a Game 7 win at Honda Center. The Second Round series win included a historic Game 5 comeback at Honda Center, where the Ducks completed the latest postseason rally in NHL history. That night Anaheim scored three goals in the final four minutes of regulation before Corey Perry ended the game in overtime. The game also featured the club's latest playoff game-tying goal when Rickard Rakell scored with 15 seconds remaining in the third period. The Ducks advanced to the Western Conference Final for the second time in the last three years, where they would face the Nashville Predators for a second consecutive postseason (2016 First Round). Anaheim would eventually fall in a decisive Game 6 at Bridgestone Arena. The Ducks wrapped up the 2017 playoffs with four multi-goal comeback victories, becoming the second team in the last 30 years to do so and falling one shy of the NHL record (5) set by the Philadelphia Flyers in 1987. Ryan Getzlaf ranked fifth among playoff leaders in scoring (8-11=19) and assists, and tied for fifth in goals (career high). Jakob Silfverberg ranked tied for third among postseason leaders in goals and tied for 10th in scoring (9-5=14). John Gibson started 16 games for the Ducks, going 9-5 with a .918 SV% and 2.59 GAA. Among NHL rookies, Brandon Montour ranked second in assists (7) while leading all rookies and ranking tied for second among NHL defensemen in plus/minus (+12).

*=ROOKIE

The Anaheim Ducks entered the 2016 Stanley Cup Playoffs as Pacific Division Champions for the fourth straight year and faced Nashville in the First Round for the second time in franchise history. After dropping Games 1 and 2 on home ice, the Ducks rallied to win three consecutive games to take a 3-2 series lead. It marked the third Stanley Cup Playoff series since 2007 in which the road team won the first four games, with the Ducks being part of two of those series. Nashville responded with a win in Game 6 before taking the decisive Game 7 at Honda Center, 2-1, to advance to the Second Round. Ryan Getzlaf (2-3=5) and Jakob Silfverberg (0-5=5) co-led the Ducks in scoring, while Ryan Kesler paced Anaheim in goals (4). Kesler's 80.0 faceoff win percentage (24-of-30) in Game 5 marked the best playoff performance since Rod Brind'Amour won 28-of-34 (82.4%) in Game 1 of the 2006 SCF on June 5 vs. EDM (min. 30 attempts). Hampus Lindholm posted a career-high +6 rating and added 0-3=3 points from the blueline. Frederik Andersen (3-2) started Games 3-7 for the Ducks, allowing just seven goals (1.41 GAA) with a .947 SV% and one shutout (Game 3). Andersen also posted a career-high 91:26 postseason shutout sequence between Games 3 and 4.

The Anaheim Ducks went 11-5 in the 2015 Stanley Cup Playoffs, falling one win shy of an appearance in the Stanley Cup Final. The Ducks opened the postseason with a First Round sweep of the Winnipeg Jets, the club's fourth sweep in team history and first since the 2006 CSF vs. Colorado. Anaheim became the first team to win four straight postseason games via comeback (trailing at any point in game) since 2012 when New Jersey did so vs. Philadelphia in the CSF. The Ducks were also the first team in NHL history to win three consecutive playoff games when trailing at any point in the third period of all three games during Games 1-3. Anaheim faced the Calgary Flames in the Second Round, earning a 4-1 series victory. The Ducks tied a club playoff record for goals in a 6-1 win in Game 1 and matched a franchise record with their sixth straight postseason win in Game 2. Anaheim reached the Western Conference Final for the first time since 2007, facing the Chicago Blackhawks. The Conference Final was tied on three different occasions and featured three games to go to overtime, including a triple-OT contest in Game 2. Reaching Game 7, the Blackhawks eventually prevailed with a 5-3 win. Ryan Getzlaf co-led the Stanley Cup Playoffs in assists (18) and ranked sixth in scoring (2-18=20), while Jakob Silfverberg ranked third (14) in assists and tied for seventh in points (4-14=18). Corey Perry finished the postseason tied for third among league leaders in goals (10) and tied for seventh in points (10-8=18). Among NHL goaltenders, Frederik Andersen ranked tied for third in playoff wins (11).

The Anaheim Ducks earned their franchise-record fourth consecutive trip to the Stanley Cup Playoffs in 2008-09, finishing second in the Pacific Division and eighth in the Western Conference with a 42-33-7 record for 91 points. The Ducks opened the postseason against the NHL's top team in the regular season, the San Jose Sharks. The series marked just the second NHL playoff meeting between two California teams and the first since the 1969 Western Conference Quarterfinals when the Los Angeles Kings beat the Oakland Seals in seven games. With a 4-2 series win over San Jose, the Ducks became the fifth team to upset the NHL's best regular season team (by standings points) in the first round since the Expansion Era began (1967-68). The Ducks were also just the 11th team in NHL history to defeat a team who earned 110-or-more standings points during the regular season in the first round. With the series victory, Anaheim advanced to the second round to face Detroit for the fifth time in franchise history. The Ducks stretched the Western Conference Semifinals to seven games before falling short in Game 7 at Detroit. Center Ryan Getzlaf led the team in postseason scoring with 4-14=18 points while goaltender Jonas Hiller posted a 7-6 record with two shutouts, a 2.23 GAA and .943 SV% in his Stanley Cup Playoff debut.

WESTERN CONFERENCE QUARTERFINALS

GAME 1 (APRIL 16, 2009) - ANAHEIM 2 @ SAN JOSE 0

The Ducks were able to shut down the Sharks' potent power play (stopping all six attempts) and scored an extra-man marker of their own en route to 2-0 shutout in Game 1...it was the club's first postseason shutout since May 30, 2007 in Game 2 of the Stanley Cup Final vs. Ottawa (1-0)...it was also the club's first road shutout in the Stanley Cup Playoffs since May 3, 2006 in the series deciding Game 7 of the Conference Quarterfinal Series at Calgary (3-0)... defenseman Scott Niedermayer broke the scoreless tie at 5:18 of the third period on the club's third power play attempt of the game... center Ryan Getzlaf and defenseman Ryan Whitney (first playoff point as a Duck) picked up the assists...it was Niedermayer's seventh career postseason game-winning goal and his fourth with Anaheim...after coming out of the penalty box for elbowing, Getzlaf scored a goal on a pass from right wing Mike Brown to provide an insurance goal for the Ducks, making the score 2-0...it was Brown's first career postseason point...in his Stanley Cup Playoffs debut, goaltender Jonas Hiller stopped all 35 shots he faced for the shutout...he was first goalie in over five years to post a shutout in his postseason debut.

2008 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

The Anaheim Ducks completed the 2007-08 regular season with a mark of 47-27-8 record for 102 points, finishing second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference. The Ducks advanced to the NHL Playoffs for a franchise-record third consecutive season and faced the fifth-seed Dallas Stars for the second time in club postseason history. Holding home ice advantage, Anaheim lost Games 1 and 2 at Honda Center before earning its first win in Game 3 at American Airlines Center. A Game 4 loss in Dallas forced the Ducks into a must-win situation for the remainder of the series. Anaheim responded with a convincing victory in Game 5 before the 77th consecutive sellout at Honda Center but was eventually eliminated with a Game 6 loss in Dallas. It was just the second first-round exit in six NHL Playoffs for the Ducks and the first since the 1999 postseason. Center Ryan Getzlaf and defenseman Chris Pronger finished tied for the team scoring lead with 2-3=5 points each while right wing Teemu Selanne finished third with 2-2=4 points.

2007 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

CUP IN CALIFORNIA

By securing their first Stanley Cup championship in franchise history, the Anaheim Ducks also became the first team from California to win the Stanley Cup…their appearance in the Final marked just the fifth time since 1926 that a West Coast team competed for the Stanley Cup (also Vancouver (1982 & 1994), Los Angeles (1993) & Anaheim (2003))…the Ducks were the first West Coast team to win the Stanley Cup since the 1925 Victoria Cougars and the first U.S. team to win it since the 1917 Seattle Metropolitans.

KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY

Rob and Scott Niedermayer were the first set of brothers to win the Stanley Cup together since Brent and Duane Sutter won with the 1983 New York Islanders (they also won Cup with Islanders in 1982)…they were the first set of brothers to compete on the same team in the Stanley Cup Final since Rich and Ron Sutter played for the Philadelphia Flyers in the 1985 Final vs. the Edmonton Oilers (lost)...the Niedermayers were also the first brother combination on opposing clubs to appear in the Stanley Cup Final since 1946 when they met in the 2003 Stanley Cup Final.

YOUTH RAISE THE CUP

The 2007 Champions had the largest contingency of players (11) in their first or second NHL year on one Stanley Cup roster…the 1986 Montreal Canadiens are the only team that comes close to the Ducks number of first or second year players on a Stanley Cup winning roster with 10…below is a list of Ducks that were in their first or second NHL season that played in at least one game with the club during their playoff run:

Ilya Bryzgalov
Francois Beauchemin
Ryan Carter
Ryan Getzlaf
Kent Huskins
Chris Kunitz
Drew Miller
Dustin Penner
Corey Perry
Aaron Rome
Ryan Shannon

FOUR SCORE:

The Ducks were the first team since the 1989 Calgary Flames to have one player or fewer to have previously won the Stanley Cup…Scott Niedermayer was the only Ducks player who has previously won the Cup with the 1995, 2000 and 2003 New Jersey Devils…the 1989 Flames entered the Stanley Cup Final without a single player who had previously won a Cup.

ROOKIES CHIP IN

The Ducks had five rookie players on their roster who competed in at least three 2007 playoff games…the last Stanley Cup championship team to have more than five rookies compete in at least three playoff games during a postseason run were the 1986 Montreal Canadiens, who had eight…below is a list of the rookies on the Ducks Stanley Cup winning roster that competed in at least three playoff games in 2007:

Ryan Carter
Kent Huskins
Drew Miller
Dustin Penner
Ryan Shannon

WASTING LITTLE TIME

The Anaheim Ducks secured the Stanley Cup in just 21 games…with the 1992 Pittsburgh Penguins, the Ducks were the 5th (tied) fastest run to winning the Stanley Cup in NHL history since the best-of-seven series was implemented in 1987.

Year	Team	Record	Win Percentage
1988	Edmonton Oilers	16-2	.889
1993	Montreal Canadiens	16-4	.800
1997	Detroit Red Wings	16-4	.800
1995	New Jersey Devils	16-4	.800
2007	Anaheim Ducks	16-5	.762
1992	Pittsburgh Penguins	16-5	.762

TOP FLIGHT OVER LAST FOUR YEARS

The Ducks advanced to the Conference Finals for the third time in the last four NHL seasons...no other team has advanced to the Conference Finals more than once over that span (since 2003 playoffs)...the Sabres and Senators advanced to the Conference Finals for the second time in four years...the Ducks were the ONLY team in the NHL to advance to the Stanley Cup Final twice in the previous four years.

	EASTERN CONFERENCE FINALS		WESTERN CONFERENCE FINALS		STANLEY CUP FINAL

FEELING AT HOME IN THE FINAL

The Ducks remain undefeated at home (7-0) in Stanley Cup Final contests and are 8-0 at home in series-clinching games (4-0 in 2007, 3-0 in 2003 and 1-0 in 1997).

DUCKS IN THE POSTSEASON

For the first time in franchise history, the Ducks qualified for the Stanley Cup Playoffs in consecutive seasons... the club also qualified in 2006, 2003, 1999 and 1997...the Ducks have a win percentage of .603 in the Stanley Cup Playoffs with a 44-29 overall record.

WINNING THE CLOSE ONES

The Ducks posted a 12-2 record in games decided by one goal…the club tied the NHL playoff record for the most one-goal victories in one postseason…the 2003 Mighty Ducks of Anaheim had 12 one-goal victories during their Stanley Cup Final run…the 1993 Montreal Canadiens also accomplished this feat as they went on to win the Stanley Cup…in addition, the Ducks were T-2nd in lead-changing, game-winning goals that occurred in the third period or overtime:

GAME-WINNING GOALS IN THE THIRD PERIOD OR OVERTIME

Year	Team	3rd Period/OT Wins
1993	Montreal Canadiens	12
2007	Anaheim Ducks	10
1994	Vancouver Canucks	10
1999	Dallas Stars	10
2003	Mighty Ducks of Anaheim	10

GETTING IT DONE AT HOME:

With their win vs. OTT in Game Five of the Stanley Cup Final, the Ducks won their 10th (10-2) game at home in the postseason and have an overall home record of 23-7 since the start of the 2003 Stanley Cup Playoffs...in addition, Anaheim is 8-0 in series-clinching games at home, including 4-0 in 2007 (3-0 in 2003, 1-0 in 1997).

DUCKS AT PEAK PLAYOFF SPOT SINCE 2003

The Ducks have the most playoff wins (40) AND best playoff winning percentage (.690) in the NHL since the start of the 2003 post-season...below is a look at the top 10 playoff win totals in the NHL since 2003:

	GP	W	L	Win %
Anaheim Ducks	58	40	18	.690
Ottawa Senators	53	30	23	.566

Carolina Hurricanes	25	16	9	.640

OVERTIME ON DUCKS SIDE

Since the 2003 Stanley Cup Playoffs, the Ducks have appeared in 15 postseason contests that have been decided in overtime...the club is 13-2 in those games, the most by any team since 2003...below is a look at the top six teams in the NHL with the most overtime playoff wins:

Team	GP	W	L	Win %
Anaheim	15	13	2	.867
Ottawa	11	7	4	.636

GIGUERE OUTSTANDING IN OVERTIME

With the Ducks' overtime loss April 27 vs. VAN in Game Two of the Western Conference Semifinals, J.S. Giguere snapped his OT shutout streak at 197:52, which is the longest OT playoff minute shutout streak in NHL history... Giguere's streak began on April 10, 2003 in the CQF vs. DET when the Ducks edged the Red Wings, 2-1 in triple overtime...in 250:47 career postseason OT minutes, Giguere has a 0.24 GAA and .990 SV% (101-for-102)...with two OT wins in the CSF vs. VAN (May 1 and May 3) and two in the WCF vs. DET (May 13 and May 20), he is now 12-1 in his career in overtime (7-0 in 2003, 1-0 in 2006 and 4-1 in 2007)...Giguere is the only player to post a 12-1 record in OT in his first 13 career playoff OT games...in addition, Giguere's OT winning percentage (.923) is the highest for any goaltender with 10-plus OT decisions:

2007 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

GIGUERE TOUGH TO BEAT

J.S. Giguere allowed two goals or less in 13 of his 18 appearances in the 2007 Stanley Cup Playoffs...he recorded a shutout on May 30 vs. OTT in Game Two of the SCF when he stopped all 16 shots he faced...it was his sixth career postseason shutout, with the previous five coming in the 2003 playoff campaign (most recent: June 2, 2003 vs. NJ in Game Four of the SCF, also a 1-0 victory)...he finished the postseason 4th in the NHL with a 1.97 GAA and T-5th in the NHL with a .922 SV%, stopping 416-of-451 shots…in addition, he successfully stopped the only penalty shot he faced during the 2007 postseason on June 6 vs. OTT (A. Vermette @ 7:23 of the third period)…he won 13 of his 17 starts, including four OT victories (May 3 vs. VAN, May 1 @ VAN, May 13 @ DET and May 20 @ DET) and stopped all shots he faced coming on in relief of Ilya Bryzgalov on April 17 @ MIN...Giguere has appeared in 45 career postseason contests, posting a 31-13 record, with a 1.96 GAA and .929 SV%.

SWEDE SUCCESS FOR PAHLSSON

Center Samuel Pahlsson, not usually known as a scorer (8-18=26 in 2006-07 regular season) became a major contributor to the Ducks offense during the postseason…Pahlsson recorded 3-9=12 points in 21 playoff games and was T-6th on the team in scoring...he recorded the GWG in two of the Ducks last five wins of the postseason...he scored the lone goal for the Ducks in their Game Two victory of the SCF on May 30 vs. OTT...in addition, Pahlsson scored the game-winner in the Ducks' series-clinching Game Six of the WCF vs. DET on May 22...he also led the league in postseason faceoff wins (249) and hits (79).

GETZLAF BREAKS THROUGH:

In just his second season, center Ryan Getzlaf was one of the more prolific scorers throughout the Ducks postseason run...he earned 7-10=17 points in 21 postseason contests, eclipsing his point total in the 2006 Stanley Cup Playoffs by 10 points (3-4=7)...Getzlaf led the club in scoring, was 2nd in goal scoring and 5th in the NHL in postseason scoring...in addition, he was T-2nd in the NHL in game-winning goals (3) and short-handed goals (1)...he also had a two-game goal streak (2-0=2) May 22-28 and scored three goals in the last six games (3-3=6)...Getzlaf collected 4-4=8 points in the last eight playoff games and 4-6=10 points in the last 11 games.

S. NIEDERMAYER SHINES IN OT

On May 3 in the CSF, defenseman Scott Niedermayer scored the series-clinching OT goal against the Vancouver Canucks in the CSF...it was the first OT goal of his postseason career, while also holding the all-time regular season OT goal record among defensemen with 10...he added a second postseason OT goal, just 10 days after the first, on May 13 at Detroit in Game Two of the WCF (4-3 victory)...in addition, on May 20 in Game 5 of the WCF at Detroit, Niedermayer scored the game-tying goal with 48 seconds left before Teemu Selanne scored in OT to give the Ducks a crucial 2-1 victory...Niedermayer tied the record for most OT goals by a defenseman in one playoff year:

MOST OVERTIME GOALS BY DEFENSEMAN IN ONE PLAYOFF YEAR

Year	Player	Team	Goals
2007	Scott Niedermayer	Anaheim	2
2002	Niclas Wallin	Carolina	2
1995	Chris Chelios	Chicago	2
1950	Leo Reise, Jr.	Detroit	2

CHECKING LINE BECOMES SCORING LINE

The Ducks line combination of Samuel Pahlsson-Rob Niedermayer-Travis Moen was the Ducks checking line all season, but in addition to their defensive responsibilities, all three became prolific scorers in the postseason...the line combined for 15-19=31 points in 21 postseason games, including six GWGs...Moen recorded the game-winner in Game Five of the SCF on June 6 vs. OTT (also recorded the first two-goal game of his postseason career) and the OT goal in Game Four of the CSF on May 1 @ VAN…in addition, he also scored the game-winner in Game One of the SCF vs. OTT...Pahlsson had two game-winners (May 30 vs. OTT in Game Two of the SCF, 1-0 victory and May 22 vs. DET in Game Six of the WCF, 5-3 victory) and R. Niedermayer had one game-winner (Apr. 15 vs. MIN in Game Three of the CQF)...the trio recorded a combined +24 rating throughout the 2007 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

PRONGER AT THE TOP OF HIS GAME

In 19 postseason contests, Chris Pronger scored 3-11=14 points, which tied for 2nd on the team and 2nd in the NHL among defensemen…he was also T-7th in overall scoring, T-4th in overall assists and T-3rd in power play assists…the 2007 Stanley Cup Playoffs marked the 11th year he appeared in the postseason and recorded his second-highest career point total (5-16=21 points with EDM in 2005-06)…in addition, he was 4th in the NHL in avg. TOI with 30:11/g.

BATTLING BACK

On May 1 @ VAN, the Ducks rallied from a 2-0 deficit in the third period, to eventually take the game in overtime...it marked the first time the club had successfully battled back from a two-goal deficit to win in postseason history... Travis Moen scored the game-winner, just over two minutes into the first overtime, marking his first career OT goal in the playoffs...with the Ducks' OT win, teams in the 2007 playoffs with a two-goal lead at any point in the game went 42-4...the only teams to come back from a two-goal deficit in the postseason are Detroit and Ottawa…Detroit rallied from two goals down twice to eventually beat San Jose 3-2 on both occasions (April 28 @ DET and May 2 @ SJ)…Ottawa came back from a two-goal deficit to win in double OT, 4-3 against Buffalo (May 12 @ BUF).

BROTHERS TEAMING UP WHEN IT COUNTS

Brothers Scott and Rob Niedermayer both had vital roles in three of the Ducks' playoff victories...on May 3 in their series-clinching game vs. Vancouver in the CSF, Rob's hit on Jannik Hansen helped to turn the puck over for Scott's OT goal against Roberto Luongo...on May 13 at Detroit in the WCF, Rob had the first assist on Scott's second OT goal in as many games...in Game One of the Stanley Cup Final on May 28 vs. Ottawa, both Rob and Scott assisted on Travis Moen's game-winning goal as the Ducks held onto a 3-2 victory.

DEFENSE FIRST

The Ducks allowed just 45 goals in 21 2007 Stanley Cup Playoff games…the club allowed an average of 2.14 goals-per-game, good for 3rd in the NHL in the postseason.

SHUTTING THE DOOR

The Ducks 2007 Stanley Cup Playoff record when…

Category	Record
When scoring two or more goals in a game	15-1
When opponents are held to less than 35 shots	14-3
When not allowing a power play goal	9-1
When scoring first	10-2

SHARING THE LOAD

Defensemen Francois Beauchemin (30:33/g), Chris Pronger (30:11/g) and Scott Niedermayer (29:50/g) were 3rd, 4th and 5th, respectively, in the NHL in avg. TOI... the only other playoff team that had three players in the top 10 in avg. TOI was Vancouver (Ohlund, 6th; Bieksa, 9th; Kesler, 10th), which was eliminated by Anaheim in the CSF on May 3.

MAC'S BIG NIGHT

On April 25 vs. VAN, Ducks center Andy McDonald recorded his first career hat trick (regular or postseason)...in addition, it was the club's second playoff hat trick in franchise history...McDonald also added an assist for 3-1=4 points, tying the most points recorded by a Duck in playoff history...Joffrey Lupul scored 4-0=4 points on May 9, 2006 in the CSF vs. COL, recording the club's first-ever postseason hat trick and four-point game.

KUNITZ PROVIDES SUPPORT

On April 25 vs. VAN, the Ducks scored three goals in the first period, the most in the opening session by the club in the 2007 postseason...left wing Chris Kunitz provided the assists on all three goals (0-3=3), marking the first time in club history a player has collected three assists in a single period in the playoffs.

SELANNE BREAKS YET ANOTHER CLUB RECORD

On April 13 vs. MIN in Game Two of the CQF, Teemu Selanne's assist broke Paul Kariya's franchise record for career points in the postseason...he broke the club's playoff goals record May 23, 2006 @ EDM, scoring his 15th career postseason goal as a Duck.

BEAUCHEMIN REPEATS FEAT

Francois Beauchemin's two goals April 13 vs. MIN marked the third time in club history a Ducks defenseman had scored two goals in a playoff game...Beauchemin has done it twice, also scoring two goals on April 25, 2006 vs. CGY (Game 3)...the only other Ducks defenseman to score two goals in a playoff game was J.J. Daigneault, who did so in Game Two of the CQF on April 18, 1997 vs. PHX.

NIGHT OWLS

The Ducks' double-overtime, series-clinching win on May 3 vs. VAN in Game Five of the CSF was the club's seventh multiple-overtime game in club history...the Ducks have gone 4-3 in those seven games...the club's last multiple overtime game before May 3 came on April 27 in Game Two of the CSF vs. VAN (3-2, Cowan GWG).

HATCHING HEAD COACHES IN ANAHEIM

Of the four teams that competed in the Western Conference Semifinals, three were led by coaches who received their NHL head coaching start in Anaheim...Ron Wilson (SJ) served as Anaheim's head coach from 1993-97, while Mike Babcock made his head coaching debut with the Ducks from 2002-04...Randy Carlyle has coached the Ducks for the past two seasons, helping the team advance to the Stanley Cup Playoffs in consecutive seasons for the first time in franchise history...Vancouver's head coach, Alain Vigneault, the only CSF coach to have not served in Anaheim, succeeded Carlyle as the head coach of the Manitoba Moose (AHL) in 2005…in addition, another Anaheim connection existed in the Stanley Cup Final…Ottawa head coach Bryan Murray was the head coach of the Ducks in 2001-2002, before taking over as GM of the club (2002-2004).

PLAYOFF DEBUTS

On April 11 vs. MIN in Game 1 of the CQF, three Ducks made their career postseason debuts...Mark Hartigan, George Parros and Kent Huskins all took the ice for the first time in NHL postseason competition...the three players recorded a combined 17:42 of TOI and maintained an even plus/minus rating...Ryan Shannon made his postseason debut on April 13 vs. MIN...after two games as a healthy scratch, Shawn Thornton played in a postseason contest for the first time on April 15 @ MIN and went on to play in 15 games going scoreless with 19 PIM...after his recall on April 8, Aaron Rome made his postseason debut on April 17 @ MIN, logging 11:01 of ice time...Drew Miller appeared in his first playoff contest April 19 vs. MIN (2:15 TOI), which also happened to be his NHL debut, in addition, Miller played in Games One and Two of the SCF, going scoreless with a +1 rating and two PIM....Ryan Carter made his NHL career debut on May 17 vs. DET in Game Four of the WCF…he also appeared in Game Four of the SCF...Joe Motzko logged 6:16 of ice time and recorded three hits in his first career NHL playoff game on May 20 @ DET.

2006 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

DUCKS SET PLAYOFF TEAM MARKS

The Ducks set a club record for goals in a playoff season, scoring 46 times in 2006…other notable team records set in 2006, were most goals in a playoff game (6 @ EDM on 5/25), goals in a period (4, twice in 2006), penalty minutes in a playoff season (267) and penalty minutes in a series (vs. CGY)…the club also tied the mark for playoff goals in a series (17, vs. CGY; also vs. PHX in 1997).

ROOKIES MAKE THEIR MARK

Of the 128 team points (48-80=128) the Ducks scored during the postseason, Anaheim rookies accounted for 12-25=37 of them (28.9%)...the 37 rookie points were the most in one playoff year since the 1993 Los Angeles Kings had 40 rookie points...of the 16 goals the Ducks scored in the Western Conference Semifinals series versus Colorado, three were scored by rookies and all but three figured a rookie on the score sheet...the last time a team had six rookies play a game in the Conference Finals was the 1991 Boston Bruins (although only one, Jeff Lazaro, played all six games of the series).

TWO STILL PLAYING

Anaheim was the only NHL organization to have both their NHL team and AHL affiliate reach each respective league's conference final...The Portland Pirates clinched the Atlantic Division Final Series, defeating the Hartford Wolfpack four games to two to advance to the Eastern Conference Final, where they fell to the Hershey Bears 4-3.

SIX IN A ROW

With their Western Conference Semifinal series-clinching win in Game 4 (May 11) versus COL, the Ducks tied the franchise record for consecutive playoff victories with six...the record was set during the 2003 postseason from 4/10/03-4/26/03...the Ducks swept Detroit in the conference quarterfinals and won their first two games at Dallas in the conference semifinals.

13 UNANSWERED

The Ducks scored 13 unanswered goals, from Game 6 (May 1) versus Calgary in the Western Conference Quarterfinals to Game 3 (May 9) versus Colorado in the Western Conference Semifinals...the Flames scored at 10:18 of the first period and the Ducks scored 13 goals without allowing a goal against until Dan Hinote scored at 19:33 of the first period in Game 3...The last team to score 13 or more unanswered goals in the postseason was Detroit with 14 from 5/15/95-5/23/95.

MARCHANT TIES RECORD

Ducks center Todd Marchant tied the club record for most assists in a playoff game with three in Game 4 (May 25) of the Western Conference Finals at Edmonton...the feat had been accomplished three times previously (Dustin Penner, 5/9/06 @ COL, Steve Rucchin, 4/21/99 @ DET and Petr Sykora, 4/26/03 @ DAL).

NOBODY BEATS THE BRYZ

Ilya Bryzgalov tied an NHL record with three consecutive shutouts (done five times previously) in Game 7 of the Conference Quarterfinals versus Calgary (May 3), Game 1 (May 5) and Game 2 (May 7) of the Conference Semifinal versus Colorado... In addition Bryzgalov's shutout sequence of 249:15, is the second-longest in NHL postseason history and is the longest ever by a rookie. Gerry McNeil previously held the rookie record at 218:42...Bryzgalov stopped 98 consecutive shots.

LONGEST SHUTOUT SEQUENCE BY A GOALTENDER IN ONE PLAYOFF YEAR

Streak	Goaltender	Team	Dates
270:08	George Hainsworth	Canadiens	3/28-4/3, 1930
249:15	Ilya Bryzgalov	Ducks	5/3-5/7, 2006
248:35	Dave Kerr	Rangers	3/25-4/6, 1937
248:32	Normie Smith	Red Wings	3/24-28, 1936
218:42	Gerry McNeil	Canadiens	3/27-31, 1951
217:54	J.S. Giguere	Ducks	5/5-16, 2003

FIRST IN 61 YEARS

In Game 1 (May 5) versus COL, Ducks goaltender Ilya Bryzgalov became the first rookie to record consecutive shutouts in the playoffs since 1945...the last rookie goaltender to post consecutive shutouts in the postseason was Toronto's Frank McCool in April of 1945…McCool had three consecutive shutouts versus Detroit on April 6, 8 and 12...Bryzgalov tied him for the rookie record.

ANOTHER ONE FOR BRYZ

Ilya Bryzgalov is only the fourth rookie goaltender to win all four games of a playoff series sweep...the others are Chicago's Tony Esposito in 1970 vs. Detroit; Montreal's Jacques Plante in 1954 vs. Boston; Montreal's Bill Durnan in the 1944 Stanley Cup Finals versus Chicago.

2006 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

BRYZ SHUTS THE DOOR

Ilya Bryzgalov's shutout in Game 7 (May 3) of the Western Conference Quarterfinals at Calgary was the first shutout by a rookie in a Game 7 since May 15, 1993, when Felix Potvin of Toronto shutout St. Louis...in addition, it was only the third shutout in a Game 7 by a rookie in NHL history as the New York Islanders' Chico Resch was the first goalie to do so in 1975 at Pittsburgh...Bryzgalov led the NHL in GAA (1.46), SV% (.944) and shutouts (3).

SELANNE WITH ANOTHER DUCK RECORD

Ducks right wing Teemu Selanne had points in seven straight playoff games (Apr. 23-May 5), scoring 4-5=9 points, tying a club record for longest playoff point streak (also, Dmitri Mironov (0-8=8 points), Apr. 24-May 8, 1997).

PENNER IN THE FRANCHISE RECORD BOOK

With three assists in Game 3 (May 9) of the Conference Semifinals versus Colorado, Ducks left wing Dustin Penner tied the franchise record for most assists in a playoff game (done twice previously, Steve Rucchin, 4/21/99 @ DET and Petr Sykora, 4/26/03 @ DAL)...his three assists are the first ever recorded by a rookie in a single playoff game in team history.

RALLY

Anaheim's Western Conference Quarterfinal win versus Calgary marked the second time the club has ever rallied from a series deficit to win (also 1997, down 3-2 vs. PHX, won series 4-3).

DECIDING RECORD

With their 3-0 victory in Game 7 (May 3) of the Western Conference Quarterfinal at Calgary, the Ducks improved their record in Game 7s to 2-1...the win at Calgary was the Ducks' first series clinching game on the road...in their first ever Game 7 (April 29) versus Phoenix in the 1997 Conference Quarterfinals, the Ducks won 3-0...in Game 7 (June 9) of the 2003 Stanley Cup Finals, the Ducks dropped a 3-0 decision to the New Jersey Devils.

PERFECT IN GAME 6

With a 2-1 victory in Game 6 (May 1) in Anaheim, the Ducks extended their perfect record in Game 6s to four games...below is a list:

Date	Series	Opponent Score
May 1, 2006	CQF vs. CGY	W, 2-1
June 7, 2003	SCF vs. NJ	W, 5-2
May 5, 2003	CSF vs. DAL	W, 4-3
April 27, 1997	CQF @ PHX	W, 3-2 (OT)

TWO FOR THE ROOKIES

Mighty Ducks defenseman Francois Beauchemin's two goals (both PPGs) in Game 3 of the Western Conference Quarterfinals set a club record for goals in a playoff game by a rookie...in addition, he tied the club record for most goals in a playoff game (eight times previously), most goals by a defenseman in a playoff game (J.J. Daigneault, Game 2 of CQF, April 18, 1997) and most power play goals in a playoff game (Adam Oates, Game 4 of WCF, May 16, 2003)...Dustin Penner tied the record with two goals in Game 4 (May 25) of the Western Conference Finals.

OH WHAT A NIGHT

In Game 3 (May 9) at Colorado in the Western Conference Semifinals, Joffrey Lupul scored all four of the Ducks goals, including the game-winner in overtime...in doing so, he became the first player in NHL playoff history to score four goals, including the overtime winner...the four-goal game was the first ever by a Ducks player in the postseason or regular season...he's the first player to account for all four of his team's goals in a win since Maurice "Rocket" Richard did so on March 23, 1944...the feat had been accomplished twice previously...prior to Lupul's four goals, the last player to score four goals in a playoff game was Theo Fleury on May 13, 1995 for the Flames in a 6-4 win over San Jose...below is a list of players to account for all four of their teams goals:

PLAYERS TO SCORE 4+ GOALS, ACCOUNTING FOR ALL HIS TEAM'S GOALS (NHL PLAYOFF HISTORY)

Date	Teams	Goals
05/09/2006	ANA 4 vs COL 3	Joffrey Lupul 4 (win)
04/26/1993	NYI 4 at WAS 6	Ray Ferraro 4 (loss)
04/10/1986	CHI 4 vs TOR 6	Denis Savard 4 (loss)
03/23/1944	MTL 5 vs TOR 1	Rocket Richard 5 (win)
03/22/1919	MTL 4 at SEA 2	Newsy Lalonde 4 (win)

LUPUL'S BIG NIGHT

Ducks right wing Joffrey Lupul became the first Ducks player to score four goals in a playoff or regular season game...in addition, Lupul broke the playoff record for goals in a series; he had six in four games in the Western Conference Semifinal series versus Colorado (Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne each had five goals in the 1997 Conference Quarterfinals versus Phoenix, seven games)...he has also eclipsed the record for goals in a playoff season with nine (seven was the previous record, done three times: Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne in 1997, 11 games; and Steve Rucchin, 2003, 21 games)...his three-game goal streak (6-0=6) from May 7-11, is the longest goal streak in club playoff history.

2003 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

DUCKS CAPTURE FIRST WESTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Ducks finished the 2003 playoffs with a record of 15-6, recording the highest winning percentage in the NHL (.714)…the Ducks had a 9-1 record at home during the playoffs, second only to New Jersey's 12-1 mark…Anaheim swept the Minnesota Wild to win the Western Conference Championship, advancing to the Stanley Cup Finals for the first time in club history…the Ducks became the second post 1990's expansion team to reach the Finals, following the Florida Panthers in 1996 (vs. Colorado)…since the NHL assumed control of the Stanley Cup Finals after the 1926 season, the Ducks were only the fourth team in league history from the Pacific Time Zone to reach the Finals (Vancouver in 1994 and 1982, Los Angeles in 1993).

TEAM DEFENSE LEADS TO NHL RECORD

The Ducks set an NHL record in their Western Conference Finals series vs. Minnesota, allowing the fewest goals against in a best-of-7 series by allowing just a single marker to the Wild...Andrew Brunette scored at 4:37 of the first period in Game Four to notch the first Minnesota goal...the 1935 Toronto Maple Leafs and 1952 Detroit Red Wings each surrendered two goals in four-game series.

OVERTIME MAGIC FOR DUCKS IN 2003

The Ducks went 7-0 in overtime in the 2003 playoffs, becoming the first team in NHL playoff history to go undefeated in OT when playing in at least six such contests…the seven consecutive overtime wins was second only to the 1993 Canadiens (10) for consecutive OT wins during one playoff season (Montreal finished 10-1 in OT)… Anaheim was the first team in NHL history to win four games in overtime in their first six postseason contests (Ducks were also the sixth team in NHL history to PLAY in four OT games in the first six playoff contests...the Ducks also became the first team since the 1994 Vancouver Canucks (April 26-30) to win three straight playoff games in overtime (no team has ever won four straight)...the Ducks won three straight spanning Game 4 of the conference Quarter-Finals (Apr. 16) and Games 1 & 2 of the conference Semi-Finals (Apr. 24-26)…the Ducks had six different goal scorers in the seven overtime games (Sykora had two; Kariya, Rucchin, Leclerc, Thomas and Salei had one).

DUCKS TAKE CARE OF BUSINESS AT HOME:

The Ducks finished 9-1 at home in the playoffs, including seven-straight home wins to end the postseason (second longest of '03 playoffs, behind New Jersey's eight)…the club's only loss was a 2-1 setback to Dallas in Game 3 of the Conf. Semifinals…the Ducks earned a record of 3-1 in Game 3, 4-0 in Game Four and 2-0 in Game 6…the club out-scored the opposition 26-to-13 at home this postseason…the Ducks allowed one-goal-or-fewer on five occasions.

WINNING THE CLOSE ONES

The Ducks had a remarkable 12-1 record in the 2003 playoffs in games decided by one goal-or-less…the 12 one-goal wins tied the most in league history during one playoff year (also 1993 Canadiens)... The Ducks two-goal win in Game 1 of the Western Conference Finals broke a string of nine consecutive wins by a one-goal margin (4/10/03 - 5/10/03), which broke the record for one playoff year...the previous record was seven, done twice before (1989 Canadiens and 2001 Kings)...five of the games needed overtime to be decided… the Ducks eight consecutive one-goal decisions to start the playoffs tied the record for one playoff year (1989 Canadiens).

MOST 1-GOAL WINS IN A SINGLE POST SEASON

2003 Mighty Ducks of Anaheim	12	1
2000 Dallas Stars	10	4
2000 New Jersey Devils	9	5
2002 Carolina Hurricanes	9	4

PLAYOFF SPECIAL TEAMS

The Ducks went 8-for-70 (11.4%) overall on the power play in the postseason (ranking 13th)...the club was 61-for-70 (87.1%) on the penalty kill (ranking fifth)…Anaheim scored its first-ever shorthanded goal in a playoff game in Game 1 @ DAL (4/24/03 - Rob Niedermayer) and had three in the playoffs (tied for most in NHL with Ottawa).

OFF AND RUNNING

The Ducks began the playoffs on a six-game winning streak, which was the longest of the 2003 playoffs….by going 6-0 vs. Detroit and Dallas, Anaheim became the first team in NHL history to win six-straight games to start the playoffs vs. teams that had over 100+ points in the regular season...in addition, the Ducks joined the former Minnesota North Stars (now Dallas Stars) as the only teams in NHL history to start the postseason as a road team and win six-straight...the North Stars won six straight from April 8-19, 1981.

5	Toronto Maple Leafs	4/13/01 - 4/26/01

GIGUERE MAKES HISTORY IN OT

J.S. Giguere owns the longest scoreless OT minutes streak in NHL playoff history...he surpassed Patrick Roy to set an NHL record in Game 3 vs. New Jersey and has a current streak of 168:27... with three shutouts vs. Minnesota in the Conference Finals, Giguere was the sixth netminder in NHL history to record three consecutive playoff shutouts and the first to do so in the Conference Finals or NHL Semifinals...Giguere joined Clint Benedict (Montreal Maroons, 1926), John Ross Roach (New York Rangers, 1929), Frank McCool (Toronto, 1945), Brent Johnson (St. Louis, 2002) and Patrick Lalime (Ottawa, 2002) for that record...he also tied an NHL Playoff Record for most shutouts in a series, set eight times previously, including twice last season by Brent Johnson (St. Louis) and Patrick Lalime (Ottawa)...below is a closer look:

1999 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

The Mighty Ducks finished the regular season with a 35-34-13 mark for 83 points, finishing sixth in the Western Conference. The Detroit Red Wings finished 43-32-7 for 93 points in the regular season, finishing third in the Western Conference. The two clubs met in the first round of the 1999 NHL Playoffs; the Ducks' second appearance in the post-season and the second playoff meeting in three years between Anaheim and Detroit. The Red Wings won the series four games to none, ending the Ducks' season with a 3-0 win @ Anaheim on Apr. 27. Teemu Selanne (2-2=4) and Paul Kariya (1-3=4) led Anaheim in playoff scoring. Marty McInnis co-led the team in goals with two power play tallies (tying with Selanne). Steve Yzerman led the Red Wings with 5-2=7 points in the series, including three power play goals. Brendan Shanahan (3-3=6), Sergei Fedorov (1-5=6) and Nicklas Lidstrom (0-6=6) all had six points in the four games. Chris Osgood was 4-0 with a 1.50 GAA in the series.

PLAYOFF SPECIAL TEAMS

Anaheim went 4-20 (.200) on the power play in the series vs. Detroit and 16-23 (.696) on the penalty kill…the Ducks scored a power play goal in three-of-four games vs. Detroit in '99… Anaheim has never scored a shorthanded goal in a playoff game.

WESTERN CONFERENCE QUARTERFINALS

GAME ONE @ DETROIT (APRIL 21, 1999), RED WINGS 5, MIGHTY DUCKS 3

Steve Yzerman scored three goals (Anaheim's first-ever opponent hat trick in the playoffs) while Paul Kariya (1-2=3) and Steve Rucchin (0-3=3) earned three-point games each for the Ducks in a 5-3 Detroit win. Marty McInnis (first career playoff goal) scored the first goal of the game on the power play and Teemu Selanne netted a goal in the third. Rucchin's three assists were a Ducks playoff record. Wendel Clark and Doug Brown scored the other goals for Detroit. Guy Hebert left the game midway through the second period after getting hit in the head and was relieved by Tom Askey, who stopped nine-of-11 shots in his NHL playoff debut.

GAME TWO @ DETROIT (APRIL 23, 1999), RED WINGS 5, MIGHTY DUCKS 1

Brendan Shanahan scored 2-1=3 points in the first period to lead Detroit to a 4-0 lead at the first intermission and eventually a 5-1 win. Teemu Selanne scored Anaheim's lone goal on the power play from Paul Kariya and Fredrik Olausson. Three of Detroit's five scores came with the man-advantage, going 3-of-9 on the evening. Guy Hebert stopped 31-of-36 shots.

GAME THREE @ ANAHEIM (APRIL 25, 1999), RED WINGS 4, MIGHTY DUCKS 2

Steve Yzerman scored the game-winning goal on a 5-on-3 power play early in the second period and Detroit went on to a 4-2 win. Sergei Fedorov scored the first goal of the game early in the first period before Marty McInnis and Jason Marshall (first career playoff goal) scored to put the Ducks ahead by a 2-1 score. Tomas Holmstrom tied the game early in the second period before Yzerman's game-winner. Both clubs went 2-for-6 on the power play and finished with 24 shots on goal.

GAME FOUR @ ANAHEIM (APRIL 27, 1999), RED WINGS 3, MIGHTY DUCKS: 0

Chris Osgood stopped all 31 shots he faced in a 3-0 win, clinching the series for the Red Wings. Tomas Holmstrom scored late in the second period on the power play to put the Wings ahead 1-0. Brendan Shanahan and Vyacheslav Kozlov added third period goals for Detroit to seal the win. The Red Wings went 1-for-2 on the power play, while the Ducks were 0-for-4. Detroit outshot Anaheim 38-31. Paul Kariya missed the contest with a broken left foot, suffered late in Game Three.

1997 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

FRANCHISE FIRSTS

A few of the Mighty Ducks playoff "firsts" from the club's first-ever playoff game on April 16, 1997 vs. Phoenix: 1st Playoff Goal - Teemu Selanne (8:57 of 1st - pp); 1st Assists - J.J. Daigneault & Paul Kariya; 1st Win - Guy Hebert; 1st Penalty - Warren Rychel (cross-check)... Guy Hebert recorded the club's first-ever playoff shutout in Game 7 (Apr. 29, 1997), giving Anaheim its first-ever playoff series win.

PLAYOFF LEAGUE LEADERS

Paul Kariya ranked T-12th in playoff scoring and T-12th in goals with 7-6=13 pts. Kariya also ranked T-2nd in power play goals with 4; Dmitri Mironov ranked T-3rd among defensemen scoring with 1-10=11 pts. Mironov's 10 assists ranked T-9th in overall assists; J.J. Daigneault ranked T-8th among defensemen scoring with 2-7=9 pts; Teemu Selanne ranked T-12th in goals with 7.

PLAYING THE EVENTUAL CHAMPS TOUGH

Anaheim was eliminated from the 1997 Playoffs by the eventual Stanley Cup Champion Detroit Red Wings in the Western Conference Semifinals, 4-0. The Mighty Ducks extended the Red Wings to overtime in three of those contests, including one double overtime game and one triple overtime game. Two of those overtime games came at Detroit. Guy Hebert and Mikhail Shtalenkov combined for a 2.45 GAA and .942 SV%. Only St. Louis had a better GAA (2.18) vs. Detroit in the postseason, while Anaheim was tops in save percentage vs. the Wings. The Mighty Ducks converted 36.4% of their power plays in the series - highest vs. Detroit in the playoffs.

PLAYOFF SPECIAL TEAMS

The Ducks finished 10-40 on the power play in the 1997 playoffs (.250)...Anaheim finished the Phoenix series with a 6-29 conversion on the power play (.207), scoring a pp goal in all but two of the seven games...Anaheim was 4-for-11 on the power play vs. Detroit (.364) and recorded a pp goal in eight of its 11 total playoff games...Anaheim gave up only six power play goals in 44 situations in the playoffs (.864)...Anaheim held Phoenix to only three goals in 25 shorthanded situations (.880) in their first round playoff series, including stopping 16-of-17 over the last five games of the series...The Mighty Ducks stopped Detroit on 16-of-19 shorthanded situations in the series (.842) and stopped 32 of the last 36 shorthanded situations in the playoffs (.889).

PLAYOFF OVERTIME

Anaheim finished 1-3 in overtime playoff games, including a 3-2 win @ Phoenix in Game Six on Apr. 27, 1997 (Paul Kariya)...the Mighty Ducks' 2-1 overtime loss on May 2, 1997 @ Detroit marked the club's first OT loss since Dec. 17, 1995 vs. Toronto, a span of 26 OT games without a loss, including playoffs (8-0-18 in that streak). That game also represented Anaheim's first-ever road overtime loss (Ducks were 8-0-15 all-time in road overtime games prior to Game One's 2-1 loss @ Detroit on May 2).

1997 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

The Mighty Ducks became just the seventh team in NHL history to win its inaugural playoff series, defeating the Coyotes, four games to three. Anaheim came back from a 3-2 deficit in the series, becoming only the 29th of 82 teams (35.4%) to win a series after being down 3-2 since 1968...Anaheim jumped out to a 2-0 series lead, winning the first two games at the Arrowhead Pond by identical 4-2 scores. Teemu Selanne (3-2=5) and J.J. Daigneault (3-2=5) led the Ducks' attack, helping Anaheim to a two-game lead in the series...Phoenix won the next two games at America West Arena to even the series at 2-2. The series shifted back to Anaheim for Game Five where Phoenix won its third-straight game to take a 3-2 series lead... In Game Six, the Mighty Ducks defeated Phoenix at America West Arena, 3-2, in overtime to even the series at 3-3. Paul Kariya scored two goals, including the game-winner in OT...The Mighty Ducks won their first-ever playoff series, defeating Phoenix, 3-0, in Game Seven. David Karpa scored the series-winning goal early in the first period of Game Seven. Guy Hebert stopped all 31 shots faced to earn his first career playoff shutout...Paul Kariya finished as the leading scorer in the series (5-4=9). Teemu Selanne (5-3=8), Dmitri Mironov (1-6=7), and J.J. Daigneault (2-5=7) finished among the top scorers versus Phoenix. Cliff Ronning (0-7=7), Keith Tkachuk (6-0=6), Teppo Numminen (3-3=6), and Jeremy Roenick (2-4=6) led Phoenix scorers in the series.

After defeating Phoenix in the first round, Anaheim was matched up with the number three seed in the West, the Detroit Red Wings. The Mighty Ducks had defeated the Red Wings, 3-0-1, in the regular season series. The playoff series between the two would have a different result, with Detroit winning the first four games, eliminating Anaheim from the 1997 Stanley Cup Playoffs. Though Detroit officially earned a sweep in the series, it was a lot closer than the numbers would indicate. Three of the games went into overtime, including one that went into double overtime and one that went into triple overtime. The goaltenders were the stars of the series, with Guy Hebert, Mikhail Shtalenkov and Mike Vernon combining for 333 total saves on 354 total shots (.941 SV%). Paul Kariya (2-2=4) and Dmitri Mironov (0-4=4) led Anaheim in scoring for the playoff series while Sergei Fedorov (2-3=5), Vyacheslav Kozlov (3-1=4), and Vladimir Konstantinov (0-4=4) led Detroit in scoring.

WESTERN CONFERENCE QUARTERFINALS

GAME ONE @ ANAHEIM (APRIL 16), ANAHEIM 4, PHOENIX 2

The first playoff game in Mighty Ducks history saw Anaheim take a 1-0 lead in their best-of-seven series vs. Phoenix, defeating the Coyotes at the Arrowhead Pond. Teemu Selanne and Paul Kariya each netted first period goals to give Anaheim a 2-0 lead. Jeremy Roenick cut the deficit in half with his 36th career playoff goal early in the second period. Anaheim and Phoenix traded goals later in the period as Selanne scored his second goal of the game and Keith Tkachuk scored on the powerplay for the Coyotes. Kariya scored his second goal of the game (empty net) at the 19:13 mark of the third period to put the game away for the Ducks. Selanne (2-1=3), Kariya (2-1=3) and J.J. Daigneault (0-2=2) each finished with multiple-points for Anaheim, while Cliff Ronning and Teppo Numminen chipped in two assists a-piece for Phoenix. The game was broadcast nationally on ESPN.

GAME TWO @ ANAHEIM (APRIL 18), ANAHEIM 4, PHOENIX 2

The Mighty Ducks defeated Phoenix to take a 2-0 advantage in the best-of-seven series. J.J. Daigneault was the offensive star for the Ducks, earning his second-straight multiple-point game (2-1=3). Daigneault's second goal of the contest (13:26 of the third period) turned out to be the game-winner, giving Anaheim a 3-2 lead. Teemu Selanne scored an empty net goal with seven seconds remaining to give the Ducks the 4-2 victory. Selanne earned his second-straight multiple-point game of the playoffs (1-1=2), giving him five points (3-2=5) in two games, tying Daigneault (2-3=5) as the leading scorers in the series. Dmitri Mironov also recorded multiple-points (1-1=2) for Anaheim. Guy Hebert stopped 36-of-38 shots to earn the win.

GAME THREE @ PHOENIX (APRIL 20), PHOENIX 4, ANAHEIM 1

The Coyotes cut Anaheim's lead in half, winning the first game back at America West Arena. Phoenix scored the first three goals of the game before Paul Kariya scored on the power play, cutting the deficit to 3-1 after one period. The game remained 3-1 until late in the third period when Mike Gartner put the game away with his first goal of the series. J.J. Daigneault earned his sixth point in the series, assisting on Kariya's goal. Darrin Shannon led the Phoenix attack, scoring his first two goals of the playoffs and Cliff Ronning recorded three assists, giving him 0-6=6 points in the series.

GAME FOUR @ PHOENIX (APRIL 22), PHOENIX 2, ANAHEIM 0

The series is tied, 2-2, after Anaheim was shutout by the Coyotes at America West Arena. The Mighty Ducks had an apparent third period goal by Steve Rucchin disallowed after video replay found an Anaheim skater in the crease. The game remained scoreless until the 12:45 mark of the third period when Bob Corkum gave Phoenix the lead. Teppo Numminen added an empty net goal to give the Coyotes a 2-0 win. Guy Hebert stopped 23-of-24 shots faced, taking the loss.

GAME FIVE @ ANAHEIM (APRIL 24), PHOENIX 5, ANAHEIM 2

The Mighty Ducks fell to the Coyotes, at the Arrowhead Pond to trail the best-of-seven series, 3-2. Phoenix took a 1-0 lead late in the first period on Keith Tkachuk's fourth goal of the series. Anaheim tied the score at the 17:37 mark of the first period when Teemu Selanne netted his fourth goal of the playoffs. Selanne's goal ended a drought in which the Mighty Ducks had not scored in 118:48 (previous Anaheim goal was by Paul Kariya at the 18:49 mark of the first period in Game Three). The Coyotes scored the next two goals before Selanne earned his second goal of the game to cut the deficit to 3-2. Bob Corkum scored his second goal of the series and Keith Tkachuk added an empty net goal to give Phoenix the 5-2 decision. Guy Hebert stopped 19-of-23 shots, taking the loss.

GAME SIX @ PHOENIX (APRIL 27), ANAHEIM 3, PHOENIX 2 (OT)

The Mighty Ducks defeated Phoenix in overtime to even the series at 3-3. Paul Kariya scored his fourth goal of the playoffs and Brian Bellows added his first of the series to give Anaheim a 2-0 lead after two periods. Darrin Shannon scored midway through the third period to cut the Ducks' lead to 2-1, followed by Keith Tkachuk's sixth goal of the playoffs tying the score at 2-2 and sending the game into overtime. In the extra period, Teemu Selanne lofted a long, high pass that Kariya controlled and fired past Nikolai Khabibulin at the 7:29 mark of overtime to give Anaheim the 3-2 victory. Dmitri Mironov added two assists for the Mighty Ducks and Steve Rucchin earned his first-ever playoff point, assisting on Kariya's game-winner.

GAME SEVEN @ ANAHEIM (APRIL 29), ANAHEIM 3, PHOENIX 0

Guy Hebert stopped all 31 shots he faced in earning his first-ever playoff shutout. David Karpa scored the series-winning goal just 3:11 into the game while Steve Rucchin and Joe Sacco added goals in the second period to lead the Ducks' offense. All three scores marked each player's first goals of the playoffs. Karpa finished the game with 1-1=2 points in a game that saw only three penalties called. Anaheim became only the seventh team in NHL history to win its first-ever playoff series.

Paul Kariya celebrates his OT game-winning goal in Game Six

WESTERN CONFERENCE SEMIFINALS

GAME ONE @ DETROIT (MAY 2), DETROIT 2, ANAHEIM 1 (OT)

The Mighty Ducks were defeated by Detroit in Game One at Joe Louis Arena, giving the Red Wings a 1-0 lead in the best-of-seven series. The game was scoreless until the 19:00 mark of the second period, when Paul Kariya scored his sixth goal of the playoffs to give Anaheim a 1-0 lead. Detroit evened the score midway through the third period, with Sergei Fedorov scoring his first goal of the post-season, sending the game into overtime. Fedorov's goal was Detroit's first goal vs. Anaheim since March 12 at the Arrowhead Pond, snapping the Mighty Ducks' shutout streak vs. the Red Wings at 145:13. The goal was also the first allowed by Hebert in the playoffs since Game 6 of the Quarterfinals @ Phoenix (a span of 120:46). In the extra period, Martin Lapointe scored on a two-on-one break just 59 seconds into overtime to give the Red Wings the 2-1 win. Guy Hebert stopped 28-of-30 shots, taking the loss.

GAME TWO @ DETROIT (MAY 4), DETROIT 3, ANAHEIM 2 (3 OT)

The Mighty Ducks played the longest game in team history (since surpassed), going into three overtime periods before dropping a 3-2 decision to the Red Wings. Vyacheslav Kozlov scored a power play goal at the 1:31 mark of the third overtime to give Detroit the win. There were 101:31 minutes of hockey played in the game that began at 2:08 p.m. and ended at 7:39 p.m. The two clubs combined for 122 shots (Wings - 71, Ducks - 51), the third-most shots by two teams in NHL playoff history. Detroit's 71 shots rank third all-time for one team. These rankings are since 1963 - the earliest year Elias Sports Bureau can research the stat. Kozlov's power play goal marked Detroit's first goal with a man-advantage vs. Anaheim this season (the Ducks had stopped all 22 Wings power plays faced this season before Kozlov's score). Mikhail Shtalenkov stopped 38-of-40 shots in relief of Guy Hebert, who left the game due to injury (Shtalenkov entered the game at the 7:02 mark of the third period). Jari Kurri scored his first goal of the playoffs while Teemu Selanne added his sixth of the post-season with just 3:07 left in regulation to send the game into overtime.

GAME THREE @ ANAHEIM (MAY 6), DETROIT 5, ANAHEIM 3:

The Red Wings came back from deficits of 2-0 and 3-1 to take a 5-3 win in Game Three at the Arrowhead Pond. Anaheim took an early 2-0 lead on power play goals from Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne in the first period. Ted Drury scored early in the second to give Anaheim a 3-1 lead, but the Red Wings scored two goals to knot the score at three entering the third period. Detroit outshot Anaheim, 23-6, in the second period and 49-23 in the game. Sergei Fedorov and Vyacheslav Kozlov scored two goals just 24 seconds apart at the beginning of the third to give the Wings their third win of the series. Kariya (1-1=2) and J.J. Daigneault (0-2=2) had multiple-point games for the Mighty Ducks. Mikhail Shtalenkov, starting in place of injured Guy Hebert, stopped 44-of-49 shots in the loss (career-highs in both saves and shots until Game Four).

GAME FOUR @ ANAHEIM (MAY 8), DETROIT 3, ANAHEIM 2 (2 OT)

The Red Wings defeated the Mighty Ducks, 3-2 in double overtime, to sweep the best-of-seven series, 4-0. Joe Sacco and Brian Bellows each scored their first goals of the series to give Anaheim a 2-1 lead after two periods. Nicklas Lidstrom scored for Detroit at the 9:09 mark of the third period, sending the game into overtime. After a scoreless first overtime, Brendan Shanahan scored the game-winner for the Red Wings at the 17:05 mark of the second overtime, sending Detroit to the Western Conference Finals for the third-straight season. Paul Kariya picked up an assist, giving him 2-2=4 points in the series and 7-6=13 points in the playoffs to lead the Mighty Ducks. Dmitri Mironov assisted on Brian Bellows' goal, finishing second on the club with 1-10=11 points. Ken Baumgartner assisted on Sacco's goal, earning his first point of the post-season. Mikhail Shtalenkov stopped 70-of-73 shots in the loss. The 70 saves rank tied-for-second for saves in one NHL playoff game (record is 73) while Detroit's 73 shots rank second all-time for one NHL playoff game (record is 75). These rankings are since 1963 - the earliest year Elias Sports Bureau can research the stat. Over the final three games of the series, Shtalenkov faced 162 shots (54 shots per game), stopping 152 (.938 SV%).
